

Germans Jeered at Drowning, Charged

Submarine's Crew Which Sank the Palaba Laughed at Struggles of Men and Women, Say Survivors.
 London, May 21.—(U. P.)—The crew of the submarine which sank the liner Palaba with a loss of more than 100 lives, laughed and jeered at the struggling of the drowning passengers thrown into the water when the vessel went to the bottom. This charge was made today by survivors who appeared as witnesses before Lord Mersey in the official investigation into the sinking of the Palaba. They said the crew of the German craft made no effort to assist the struggling passengers.

TOWN TOPICS

Funeral of Alexander Kiesel.—Alexander Kiesel, who died in this city on May 19, was a native of Bavaria, Germany, 55 years of age and a resident of Portland for 33 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth, a son, L. A., and a daughter, Dena Kiesel. The funeral was held this afternoon from the E. Holman parlors and interment in Greenwood cemetery. Mr. Kiesel had not been in active life for several years, but was well known among the older German residents of Portland.

Episcopal Rally Postponed.—No rally of the Episcopal Social Service league will be held at Library hall tonight, as had been announced. It has been postponed on account of the Reed college conference, and will probably be held later.

Will Honor Donor.—The county commissioners have granted to S. Benson permission to place upon the Shepherd's Dell bridge on the Columbia River highway, a bronze tablet bearing this inscription: "Shepherd's Dell. Presented to the city of Portland by George Shepperd, May 4, 1915."

WART LEADS TO ARREST

Loa Angeles, May 20.—(U. P.)—Spring a wart on the nose of Otto Franco today Felix Ramirez called the police and had Franco arrested on a charge of brutality and robbing him last November in the Santa Fe railroad yards. After Franco had been taken into custody Ramirez detected a tiny scar on the cheek of Francisco Gomez. Again the police were called and Gomez was arrested on a charge of assisting in the robbery. For six months, Ramirez said, he had been watching for a man with a wart on his nose.
