

F. M. BROWN CHOSEN FIRST CLERK TO THE NEW GAME WARDEN

No Action on Election of Deputies, Matter Being Postponed Till Next Meeting.

Salem, Or., May 27.—Following the election of William L. Finley as state biologist, R. E. Clanton as master fish warden, and A. H. Lea as state game warden, the state game and fish commission yesterday afternoon unanimously chose F. M. Brown of Brownsville as first clerk to the game warden at a salary of $150 per month.

On the first ballot for game warden, Stone voted for R. L. Ewing, Warren for J. H. Westcott, Plichner for J. E. Cullison and Jack and Governor Withycombe for A. H. Lea.

It was voted to allow the state biologist one assistant at $100 per month, and one stenographer at $75 per month. The stenographer will be under the control of the biologist.

Miss Wilson was reelected a clerk in the fish warden's office at a salary provided by law.

It was decided to create the office of superintendent of commercial and game fish hatcheries, the superintendent to be head of all hatcheries and state hatchery work and to be responsible to the commission.

Following a report of Clanton regarding a fish hatchery site on the North Umpqua river, it was ordered that the condemnation proceedings on the river be prosecuted to termination in the event that no settlement can be made to the landholders.

Renewal of licenses were ordered granted to both Suesfert Brothers and an Indian for the identical licenses covered by the previous licenses of 1914.

An audit of all the books and accounts and appraisements of all commission property was ordered.

No action was taken concerning the naming of deputy fish and game wardens, consideration being postponed until the next meeting.

George Palmer Putnam, secretary to Governor Withycombe, was elected recording secretary, his duties being to keep a record of all the meetings. It was explained that this move was made in the interests of economy.

By cutting down the office forces, the payroll was slashed $435 per month by the board. The overhead charges will be greater than before, however, as the board created two new heads of departments who will draw a total of $400 per month, and gave Finley, in his new office of state biologist, an assistant at $100 and stenographer at $75 per month.

This would make the total of new expense created by the commission approximately $675, a total of $140 more than the cuts in the former payroll.

The newly created office of superintendent of hatcheries will also probably mean additional office expense, it is said.

The Oregon Sportsman was declared at the meeting to be an enterprise publication, although of considerable educational value. The commission discussed whether it would be continued, but did not arrive at any conclusion.

Artisans Plan Benefit. Assembly No. 121, of the United Artisans, will be tendered a benefit at the National theatre tomorrow, the object being to raise money to send the cadet team to the big convention at San Francisco.

IVANHOE RESIGNS AS DISTRICT ATTORNEY WHEN RECALL LOOMS

Union County Official Accused in Petitions of Being Unfaithful to Trust.

With the recall looming in the foreground, F. S. Ivanhoe of La Grande has tendered his resignation as district attorney for Union county to take effect June 1.

Petitions for an election to vote on the recall of Ivanhoe were being circulated. It is reported that they were being rapidly signed, when the announcement of Ivanhoe's resignation was made.

In the recall petitions charges were made that Ivanhoe was "unfaithful to his trust as an officer" and that he was "inefficient and incompetent to fill said office of district attorney."

Ivanhoe was district attorney when many complaints were made to former Governor West to the effect that the laws, particularly the laws pertaining to liquor and morality, were not being enforced. These complaints led to investigation of conditions in Union county.

Ivanhoe was elected district attorney for Union and Willowa counties in 1910, for a four year term. The 1913 legislature passed a law providing for a district attorney in each county. It provided that the district attorney then in office should hold the office in the county in which they resided.

Further provision was made for the general election of 1916 their places should be filled by appointment. Ivanhoe's term would have expired January 1, 1915.

Shortly before that time the governor appointed J. S. Hodgson of La Grande to fill the place. Ivanhoe refused to surrender his office, contending that the provision of the 1913 law referred to was unconstitutional. He took the matter into the courts and the supreme court sustained his contention.

Soon after the supreme court decision was handed down, recall movement was started. Next came Ivanhoe's resignation.

that a Zeppelin had been sighted at Sheerness, flying in the direction of London.

Two Zeppelins also were sighted over Burnham-on-the-Crouch, seven miles north of Southend, but no bombs were dropped.

Today's raid was the sixteenth the German birdmen have conducted against the east coast of England. It was believed the Zeppelins came from Zebrugg.

The British admiral this afternoon issued the following statement: "Zeppelins were active on the east coast last night and early today. Two women were killed and a child was injured. The damage was slight. The Zeppelins are being pursued."

The government held up news of the attack for some time.

there is no immediate danger, but adds that in the opinion of the doctors it would be rash to exclude the possibility of a grave issue.

Professor Zainco builds much hope on the robust constitution of the king. The metropolitan and clergy celebrated divine service during the night. The sacred ikon from the Pilgrimage church at Tinos was brought today to Athens and will be carried in a procession to the palace and placed in the sick room of the king.

Other officers elected were A. D. Cross of St. Andrews, secretary-treasurer; Riley Rice, Cottonwood, Idaho, vice president; Rev. E. P. Little, Waitsburg, chaplain; J. P. Hill, Spokane, conductor; W. H. Appling, Rathdrum, Idaho, doorkeeper. The executive members chosen are: J. H. Jennings, Spangle; H. J. Herman, Genesee, Idaho; Elmer McCurtain, Davenport; E. D. Knight, Wapato, and G. M. Thompson, Dayton.
