

FINE WEATHER MAKES EXPOSITION VISITORS INCREASE IN NUMBER

Many Well Known Oregon People in San Francisco for the Big Show.

RACES PROVE ATTRACTIVE

Public Entertainment Is to Be Held in the Oregon Building Tomorrow Evening.

By Marion Mac Rae.

San Francisco, June 5.—The big flag on the Oregon flag pole is flying every day lately, which means that San Francisco is having clear weather.

In consequence of the fine weather, exposition attendance has materially increased and all special events are well patronized. Among the most important this week were the races. The finest harness horses in the country have been making records on the exposition track and everyone who has the price goes to see them.

Stephen S. Bailey of Portland brought a string of his best racers up from their credit. Mr. Bailey is accompanied by his niece and sister, who are visiting their relative, Mrs. Daisy Dillar Shindler, formerly of Oregon City.

The first public entertainment at the Oregon building under the new hostess, Mrs. Charles Gray, will be held tomorrow evening, the commission having issued invitations for reception and dance to all official families residing in state and foreign buildings within the grounds.

Commissioner Clark entertained a number of bankers at luncheon in honor of Commissioner Thompson during the week, some prominent commissioners from other states being included in the guest list.

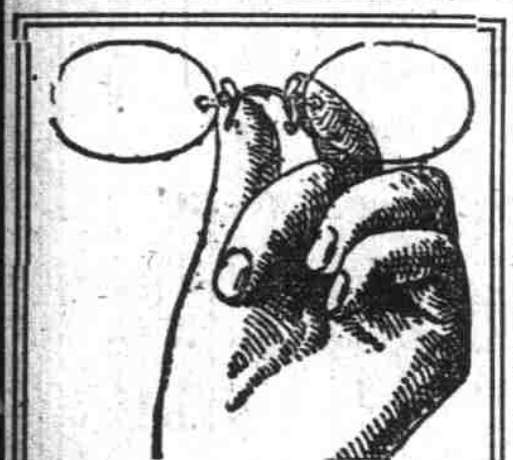

The Oregon commission was honored with special invitations for the Decoration day services on board the S. S. Oregon last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Clark attending. Mrs. Clark was an honor guest at a tea given by Mrs. Fielder, wife of New Jersey's governor, last week. She was assisted in pouring by Mrs. McLean of the New York commission. Rt. Rev. Bishop Sumner of Oregon was a visitor at the building during the week and Mrs. H. C. Wortman, who is here with Miss Helen and Everett, was another prominent visitor. The Hartmans are staying at the Inside Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newbegin were at the St. Francis hotel, having come down to attend the graduation of their daughter, Elynn Anne, who has been at Caselleja school, at Palo Alto, and Mrs. Frank A. Spencer are also exposition visitors this week and are at the St. Francis. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cohen of Pendleton, accompanied by Mrs. E. H. Carter, recently motored down from their Oregon home and are at the Bellevue. The Cohans, who have many friends in Portland, are most enthusiastic over the Columbia Highway, and plan many trips on its completion. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jones, who are still in the "newly wed" class, are guests of the Cliff hotel and have called at the Oregon building several times.

LaShon and Lloyd Frank were at the St. Francis during the week, and E. B. Labbe was another familiar Portlander greeting old friends here. Fred Johnson of the Portland Evening Telegram staff, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnston, were Oregon visitors at the log building Sunday. Mr. A. B. Moxley was visiting with trans-bay friends, also registered and stopped for tea. Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strahorn were callers at both the Oregon and Washington buildings. A number of the Ad club members stopped en route from the Los Angeles convention, among them Charles F. Bore, who was elected first vice president of the Pacific coast organization.

It is announced at the Presidio that Mrs. George Young and Miss Polly Young (Vancouver barracks) will come here this week to be with Colonel Young, who is in the Letterman hospital. I understand Mr. and Mrs. Don Zan are in the city this week but have not found them registered at the downtown hotels.

Oregon was represented at the government dinner and ball Monday night by Commissioner and Mrs. Clark. This was the second function tendered by Uncle Sam since the exposition opened.

Protest at Hanging Of Frank Is Made

Communion Death Sentence Asked "In Name of Justice and World Brotherhood" by Peace Association.

A resolution protesting against "the taking of the life of Leo M. Frank," and addressed to Governor Clayton of Georgia, was adopted at a meeting of the World Peace association at the library last night. A commutation of the sentence of death is asked "in the name of justice and world brotherhood."

The resolution was sent to Governor Clayton by telegraph last night by Dr. Nina E. Wood, organizer of the association. The position is taken that the verdict against Frank was "clearly based on passion and prejudice."

"The outrageous procedure in this case," said Judge W. N. Gates, "will do more to abolish capital punishment than any other case that has gone to trial in this country."

"As an American citizen," said Sold Back Jr., "I feel that we are too slow in trying to overcome race prejudice. The experience of my country and the race brings this very closely to my mind. We should let the world know that we are against court procedure based on race prejudice."

Other speakers were Dr. Perry Joseph Green, Rev. John F. Hanson, Professor George Morris, Florence Crawford, Virginia Arnold and Rev. John M. Skinner.

The resolution was submitted by Judge Gatens.

"CRIBBING" SCANDAL GRIPS ANNAPOLIS; 3 "MIDDIES" EXPELLED

President Orders Inquiry Involving Alleged Misconduct of Hundred in Examination.

OTHERS TO BE DISMISSED

Reported That One of Trio Let Out Tried to Bribe Mechanic to Get Examination Papers.

Washington, June 5.—(U. P.)—The "honor" system at the Annapolis Navy Academy is on trial. Three midshipmen's expulsion and an inquiry into alleged misconduct in examinations of more than 100 others, including members of the graduating class, were ordered today by President Wilson and Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

The annual examination "cribbing scandal" was declared this afternoon by Secretary Daniels to be the most widespread in the history of the academy. Members of all classes are involved. Monday a complete board of inquiry will begin an investigation which may cause wholesale dismissal of cadets.

A preliminary inquiry was held yesterday at Annapolis by Secretary Daniels. Today he placed the whole matter personally before the president, who ordered the special board.

The Annapolis board's recommendation for dismissal of seven others has been suspended pending the general inquiry next week.

Of the three dismissed today, one tried to bribe a mechanic to secure examination papers; two broke into a mathematics professor's room to learn their marks in examinations already taken. It is charged that dozens of cadets had complete or partial copies of examination questions to be asked.

The board to conduct the inquiry next week consists of Captain R. L. Russell, presiding; Captain A. T. Lang, Commander L. R. de Steiguer and Lieutenant Commander W. C. Watt, judge advocate.

Three Midshipmen Dismissed.
Annapolis, Md., June 5.—(U. P.)—The three midshipmen who were dismissed from the naval academy today were Charles C. Gill, second class, from Tennessee; Ralph R. Byers, Indiana, and John G. Grogan, California, both third class students, it was learned here tonight.

Things again. No man will ask for payment. We know that our native treasury has given the money to the king. It is a great thing to be able to pay him. We are Mohammedans. We pray that God may overthrow the enemies of the king."

African Natives Loyal to the King

Interesting Letter, in Arabic, Received in London by Governor General of Nigeria From Council of Locos.

London, June 5.—The governor general of Nigeria received today the following letter, in Arabic, from the council of Locos, a small precinct in the African province of that name:

"From the council of Locos to the governor general, Sir Frederick Lugard, salutations.

"We are the people of Locos. We are servants of the king. We are not a great province. We are a small town. They are a great people. We give a small gift. We are a small people. See now we give three hundred pounds from out of the native treasury. The king must use it as he sees fit to use it. We are the servants of the king. This year the water will break our roads in the rain time. We will work with our hands and make all
