Unofficial Agent of President Wilson in Europe Departs Suddenly for U. S.

London, June 10 .- (I. N. S.) -Americans here today were discussing the possibility of Colonel E. M. House becoming secretary of state.

Colonel House, who had not intended to leave so soon, left in a great hurry and with some secrecy. Until today the American embassy carefully refrained from making any announce ment of his departure.

Colonel House recently returned from the continent, where he visited Germany and France, seeing high officials in both countries. After his return he settled dewn for an extended stay, and, as the unofficial agent of President Wilson, saw Sir Edward Grey, Premier Asquith and virtually all other men of importance in the government.

It is thought certain here that Colonel House has been recalled on account of the Bryan resignation. If this is so, the president foresaw last week what would happen,
