

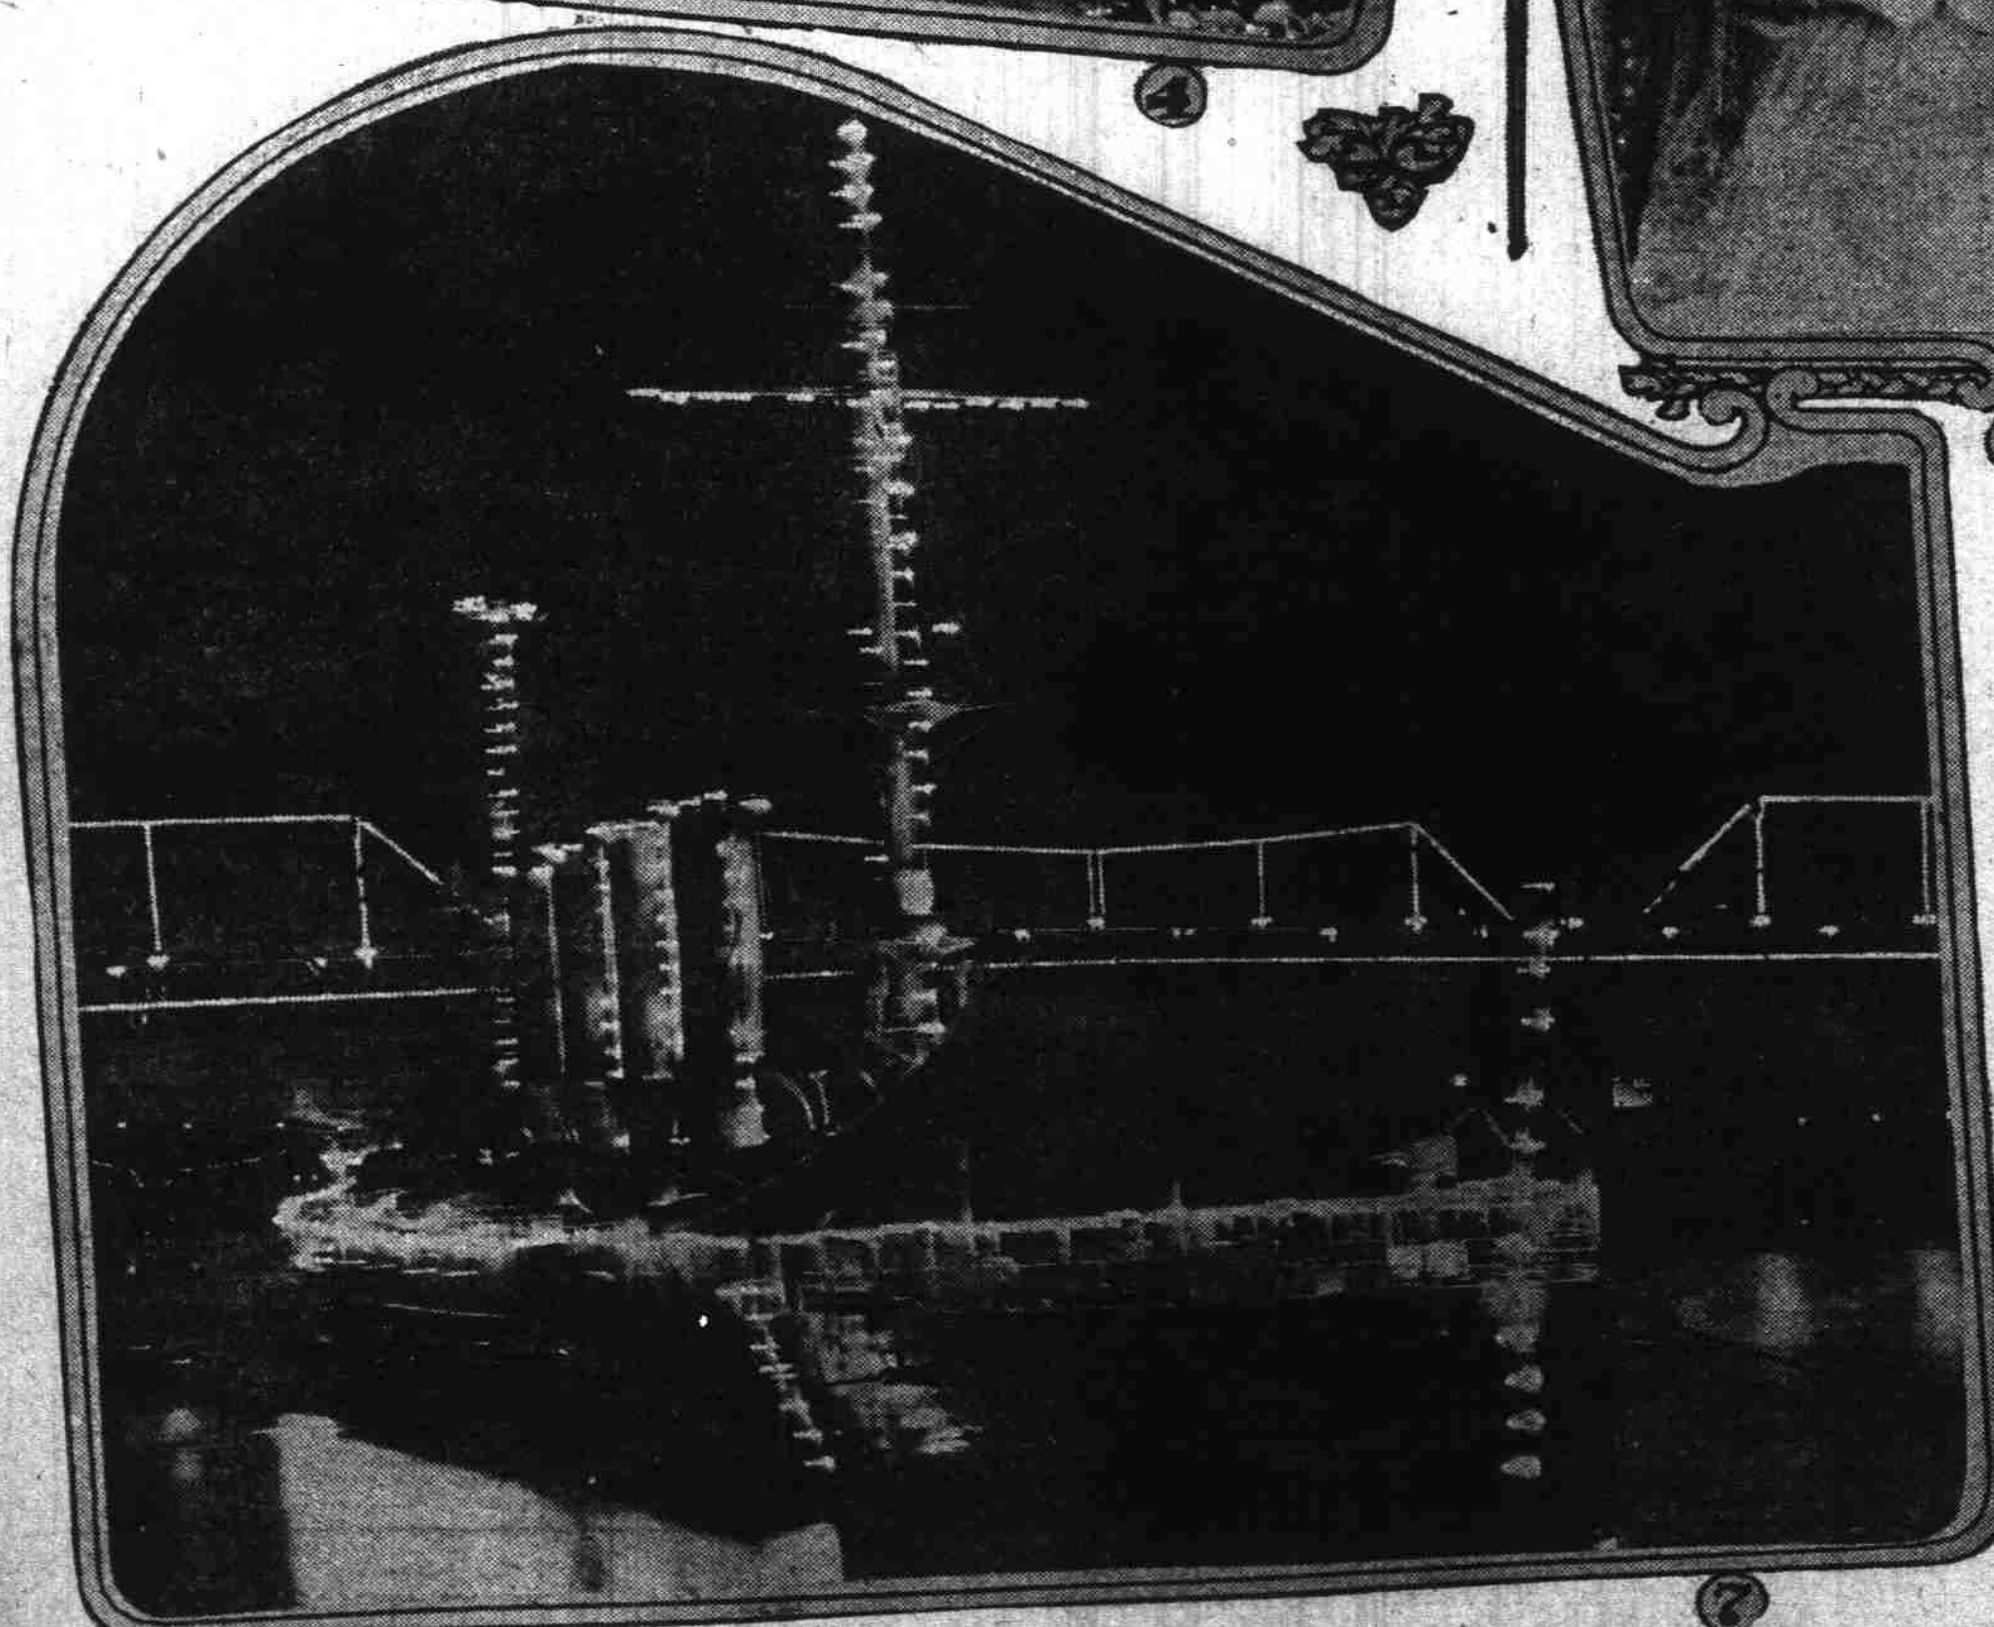

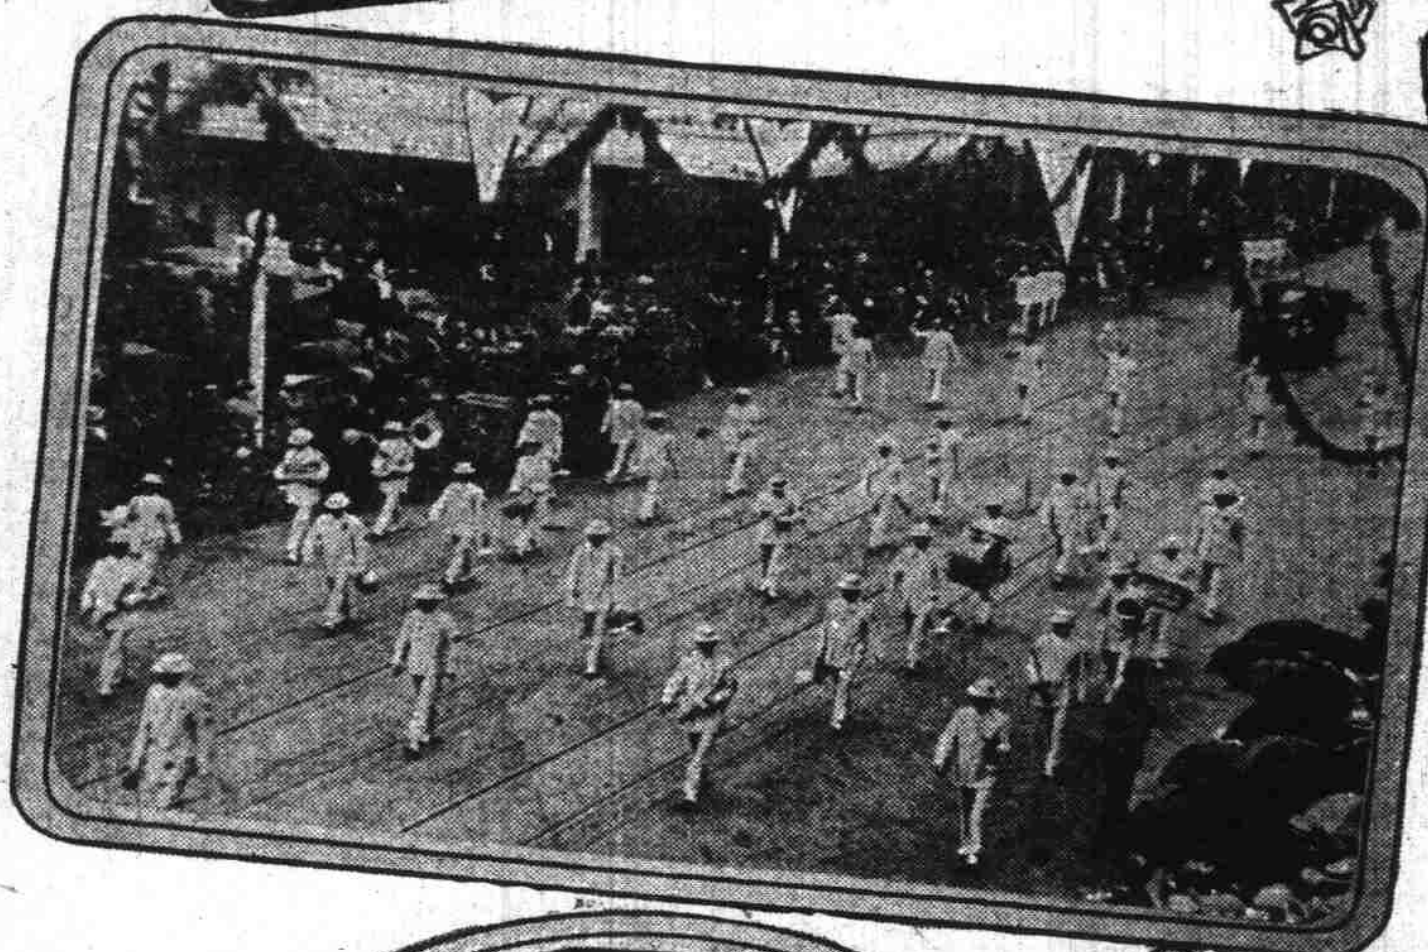

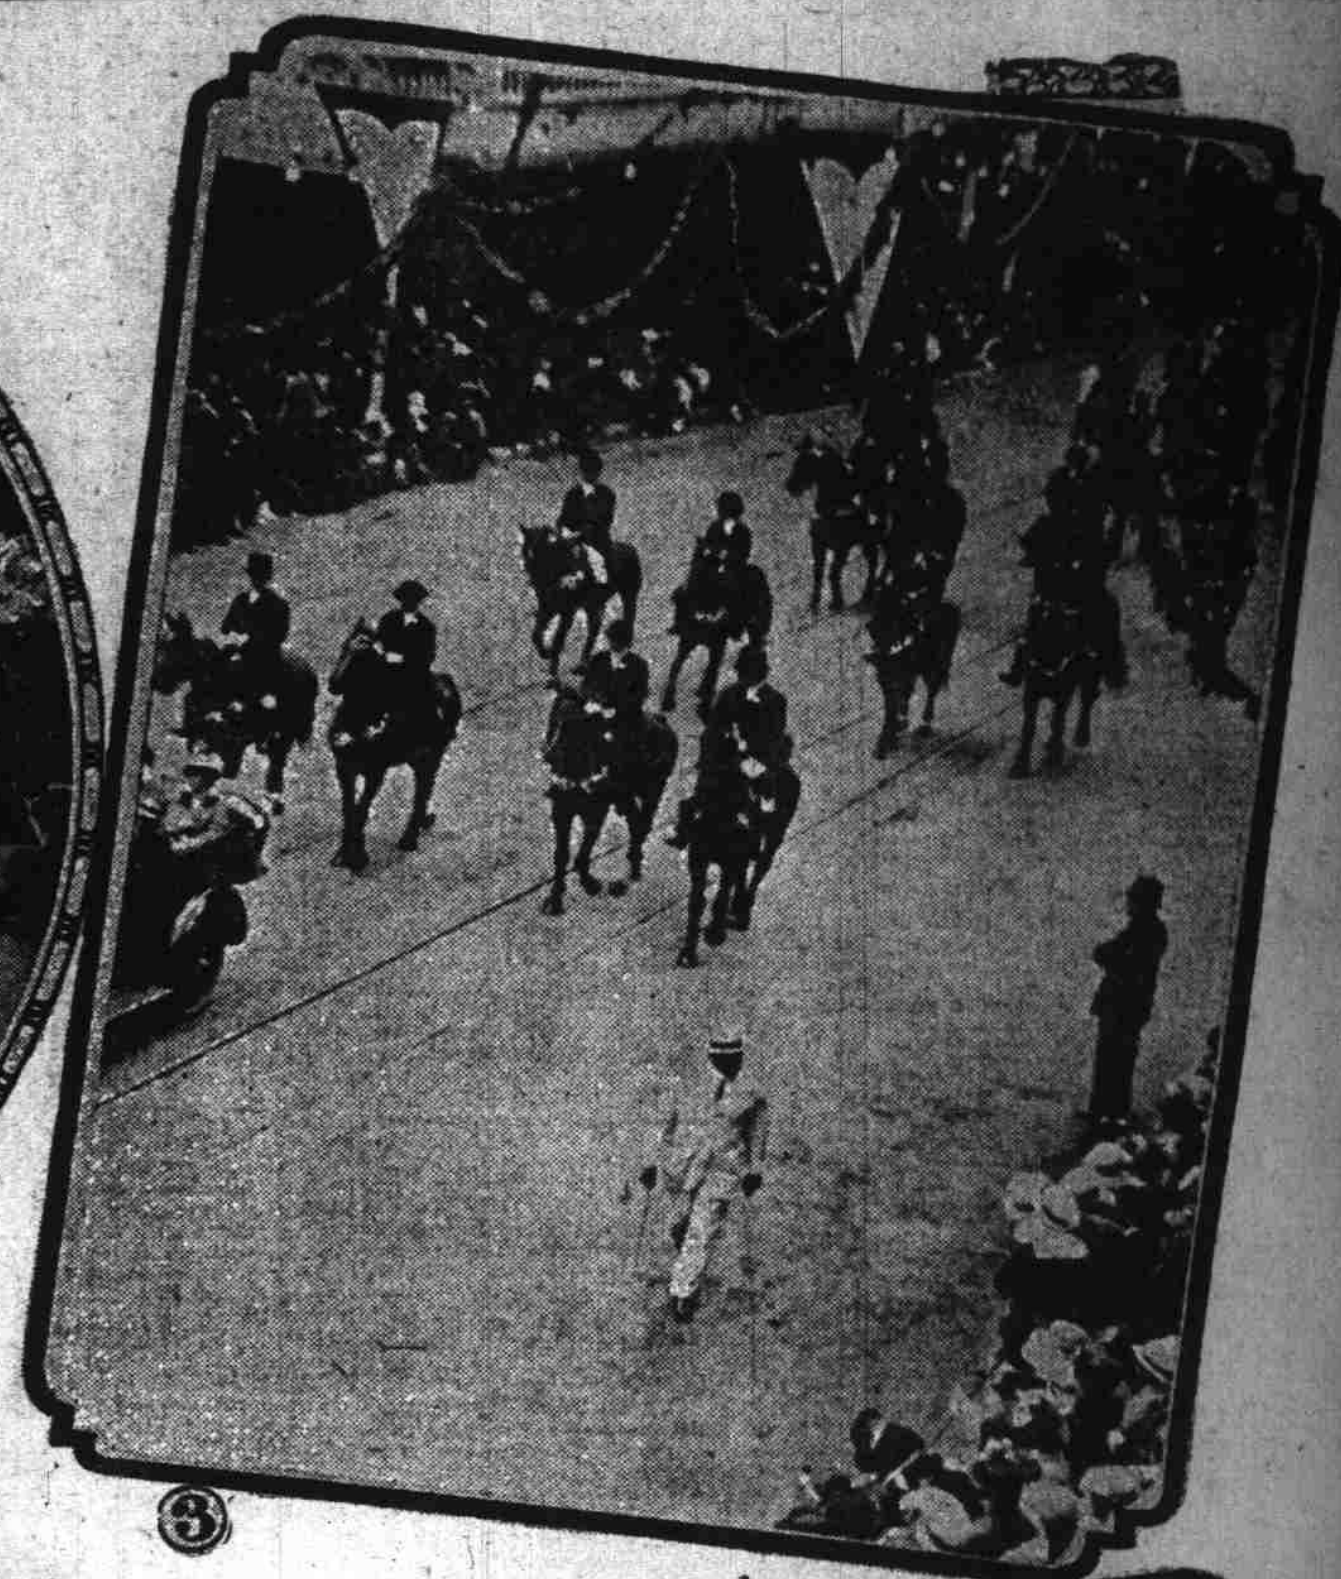

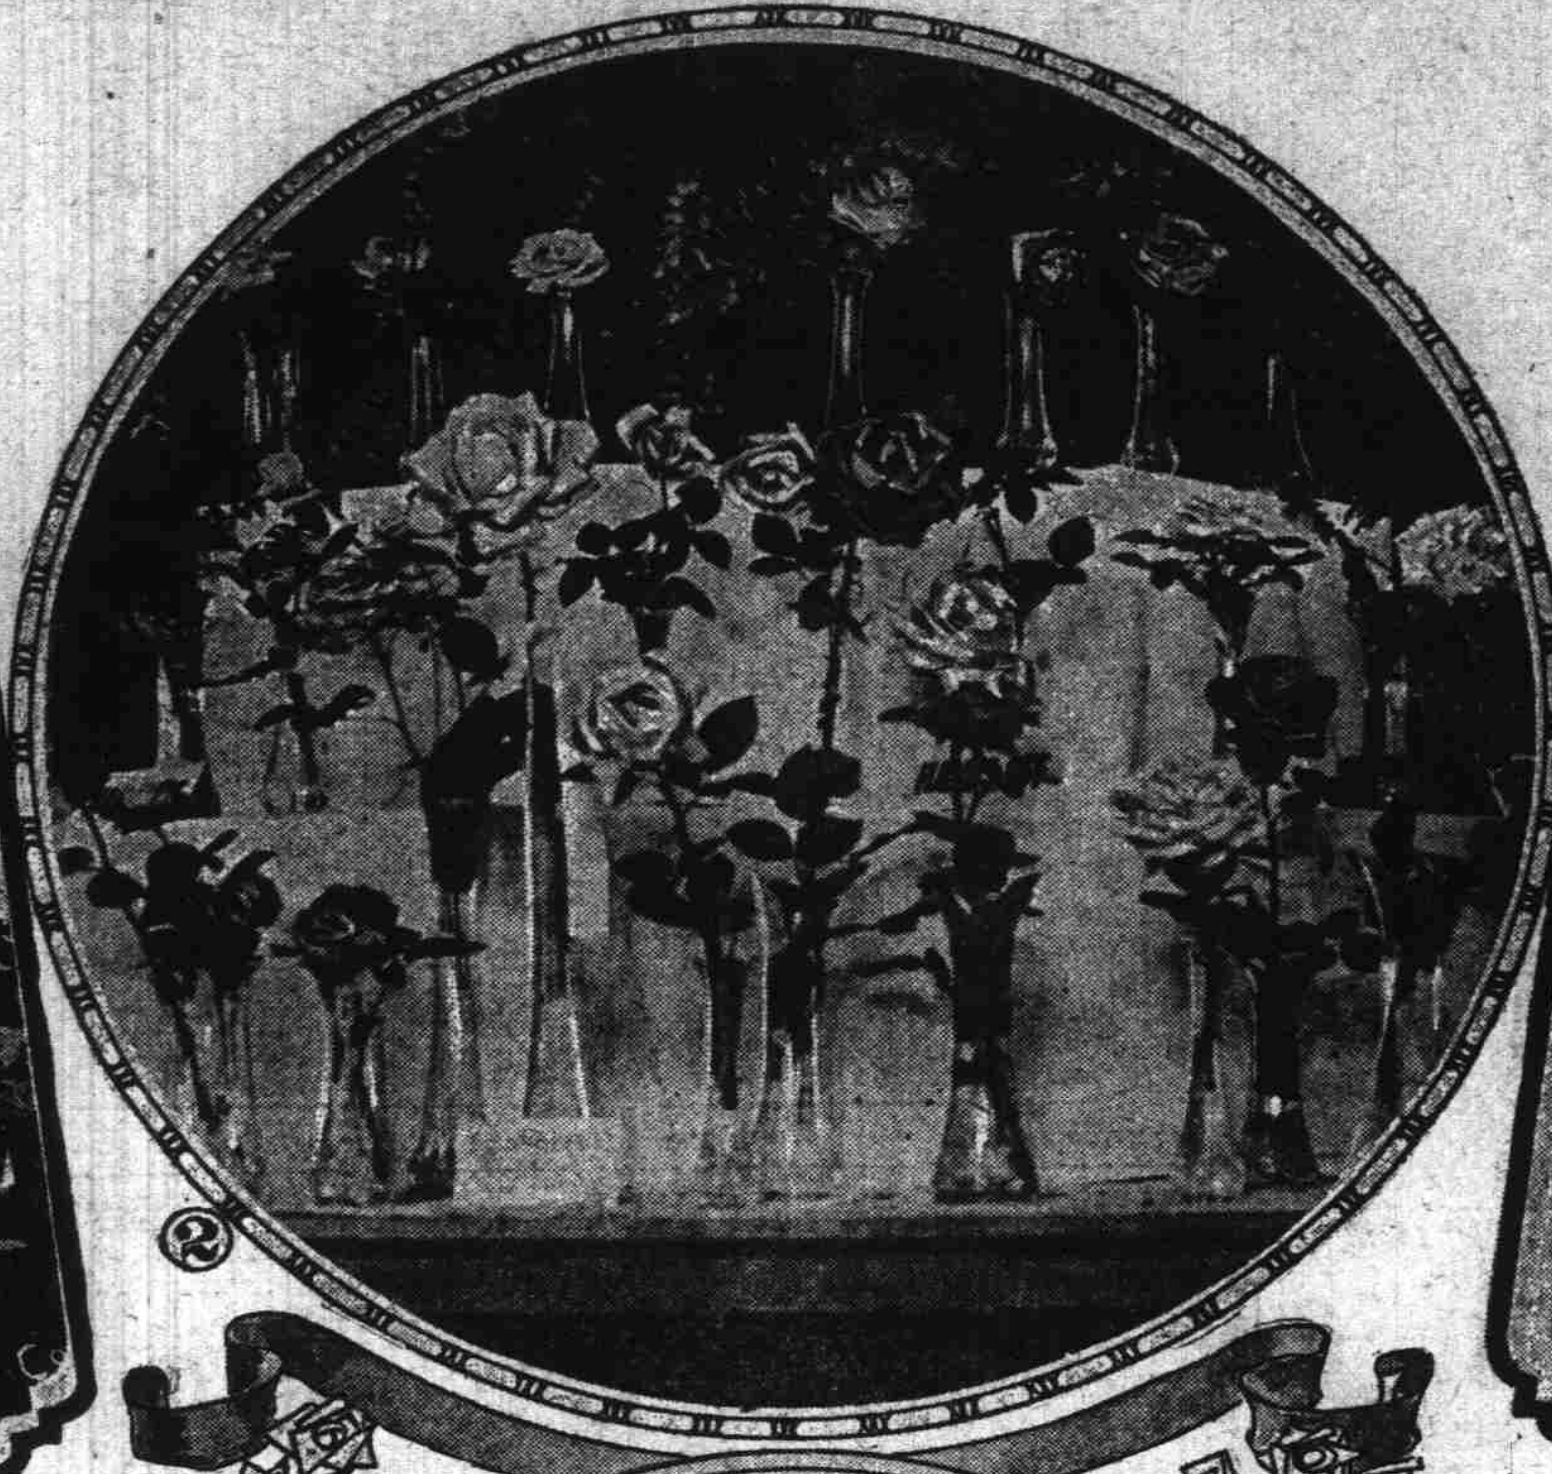

PHOTOGRAPHIC REVIEW OF BIG EVENTS OF NINTH ANNUAL FESTIVAL

1—The spirit of Rose Time in Portland as personified by Miss Miriam Schiller, who posed for animated pictures of the official festival poster announcing the midsummer fiesta, which were viewed by thousands (Photograph copyright by the Peasley studio); 2—An exhibit at the Rose Show which was admired by throngs of interested visitors; 3—A section of the Hunt club riders, who made a brilliant showing in the floral parade Thursday afternoon; 4—Royal Rosarian band in the floral parade; 5—Miss Sybil Baker in her garb as queen of the festival. Miss Baker made a gracious queen and her every appearance was greeted with enthusiasm; 6—"Autumn in the West," one of the illuminated floats in the electrical parade Friday evening; 7—The United States cruiser South Dakota, in Portland harbor, illuminated for the festival (Photograph by W. E. Lewis); 8—Uncle Sam's and Columbia maids group from the Albina Homestead school in the children's parade Wednesday morning.