

NEWS OF THE SOCIAL WORLD

Top, left to right—George Mathew, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. B. Walker (photograph by Sarony); Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mason; Elaine Bernice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mason (Pearl Barde) of Milwaukee, Wis. Bottom, left—Millard Jeffery, son of Dr. and Mrs. Millard C. Holbrook; Henry and Jane, children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prudhomme.

bolter, Aline Noren, Lucile Cogswell, Mildred Lawrence, Margaret Belet, Bess Cushman, Katharine Northrup, Bertha Kincaid, Helen Wiegand, Ann Hales, Lela Cushman, Lurline Brown, Jeannette Calkins, Lucy Powers, Miriam Page, Edith Dahlberg, Allice Church, Roberta Killam, Allice Townsend, Margaret Cornwall, Lucile Huggins and Marian Nell.

Helen Wiegand, Lucile Cogswell, Helen Wiegand, Marian Nell, Allice Townsend, Allice Church, Lucile Huggins and Olive Noren are returning to Portland for the summer vacation.

Mrs. Harry L. Shaw of Honolulu arrived in the city Friday to pass the summer months with her sister and nephew, Mrs. Amy E. von Rhein and Charles von Rhein. Mrs. Shaw will be remembered as Miss Mary Estes. This is her first visit in the city since her marriage several years ago. She will doubtless be the inspiration for much entertaining among her many friends here.

Mrs. J. H. Joyce entertained Wednesday at her apartments in the Breiter with four tables of "500." The refreshments and decorations were carried out in the colors pink and white. Card honors fell to Mrs. F. W. Patt, Mrs. Joe Sandval and Mrs. Dr. Keeney.

Mrs. Arnold Lindsey has returned home after passing two weeks at Seaside. Her visit there was made most enjoyable by several delightful affairs given in her honor. Among those who entertained for her were Mrs. Mearns, Mrs. L. Henry and Mrs. Fullam, all residents of Seaside.

Miss Shirley Fluke and Earl F. Bernard were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ambrose M. Cronin, at Garden Home. Rev. Father McNamee of St. Mary's Cathedral, read the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few intimate friends. The affair was simple but charming in every detail. The bride who is a beautiful girl, made an unusually lovely bride in her wedding gown of ivory white satin elaborated with silver lace and tulle. The gown was fashioned in round length in girlish effect, the long court train being draped from the shoulders. A simple tulle veil enveloped the costume in its soft folds and a coronet of orange blossoms circled her coiffure. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marla Parker attended the bride as maid of honor and was crowned becomingly in lavender satin with tulle and gold lace trimmings. Her bouquet was of pink sweet peas and fern.

Just preceding the ceremony Miss Kathleen Sealy sang, accompanied by Miss Constance Piper, who later played the wedding march.

The bridegroom was attended by Louis Sharp.

About 75 guests called at the reception which followed the ceremony when a buffet supper was served with Mrs. Frederick A. Martin, Mrs. Larkin Shell, Mrs. William F. Greer and Mrs. James Conley presiding at the table. The house was decorated artistically for the occasion with clusters of blue delphinium and cantenry bells in the living rooms and in the dining room a basket of golden cornucopias centered the table.

After a wedding trip on the sound,

June 16, the German Women's auxiliary to the German Red Cross are to give a midsummer night's dance at the German house from 8:30 until 12 o'clock.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. U. Sheldon Attie and their two small sons are in Portland for a short visit from Salem, Or., where they have resided for the past year. Mr. Attie being in the employ of the state highway commission. Bette former residents of Portland, they are receiving a hearty welcome from their many friends. They are being entertained at the home of his East Twenty-eighth and Grant streets, during their stay in the city. Mr. Attie will also make a short trip to San Francisco, where he will visit his father and mother, who are living in Berkeley, Cal.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Kavanaugh have returned from the east after a year's absence. The doctor spent the interval doing special work at Harvard and in the leading maternity hospitals of New York and Chicago. Mrs. Kavanaugh visited with relatives in New York and Columbus, Ohio. On their return trip they spent several days at the Panama-Pacific International exposition and visiting San Francisco relatives. They will be a home to their friends at 741 East Broadway, Irvington.

Mr. John Campbell and daughters, the Misses Carolyn and Lillian, are being entertained at the home of his brother, Mathew Campbell, 291 North Eighteenth street, during the Rose Festival. They intend spending a month sightseeing through California, returning home via New Orleans and New York. Mr. Campbell is a brother of Mrs. Mary McCoy, Mathew Campbell and Anthony Campbell, old residents of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Folger Johnson, who are now ensconced in their new residence on Westover Terrace, at 1119 Westover road, have had interesting house guests for the Rose festival, Mrs. Frances Roscovitch of Tacoma. Miss Jessie Logan Bass of Seattle and Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Clara Waldo. Mrs. Waldo will remain here for several months longer.

Mrs. William Buckler has just returned from a two month vacation in California, visiting with her son, George, and family, who are located in Alameda. She was given several very enjoyable entertainments by friends during her stay, also paid several visits to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Mrs. John Blackburn and her husband, Ensign Blackburn of the cruiser South Dakota, have arrived in the city and are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Haines at their home in Irvington. Mrs. Blackburn is well remembered as Miss Emma Blagen.

Miss Hettie Mullendore, of Holton, Kan., is visiting the family of J. W. Simmons, state deputy head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, at 223 1/2 Market street. Miss Mullendore made special efforts to leave Holton in time to attend the Rose Festival.

Mrs. George Berts left Thursday evening from Oakland, Cal., where she will visit her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Klemman, for a month and later will visit San Francisco with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Tingley, enjoying the exposition while in the Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Mearns have as their guests Mrs. Frederick Mearns and her daughters, the Misses Elizabeth and Josephine, who are en route to

FURS Remodeled and Repaired AT SUMMER PRICES

Stored Free Until Needed

FURS STORED AT LOWEST RATES

Hudson Bay Fur Co.

111 Broadway, N. W. Wash.

Alaska, where they will join Lieutenant Mearns, who is a member of the Alaskan railroad commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newbegin returned last week from Pala Alto, California. They were accompanied on their return trip by their daughter, Miss Elynn Anne Newbegin, who graduated from the Castilleja finishing school.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hammer of Des Moines, Iowa, are visiting their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford C. Childs of 114 East Thirty-fourth street, on their way to San Francisco and Honolulu.

Miss Winifred Kerr is entertaining as her house guest Mrs. R. E. Kerr, who arrived Tuesday night and will remain until Monday. She is the wife of Ensign Kerr, of the cruiser South Dakota.

Miss Helen Whitney has returned home from an extended visit with Miss Ellen Thielson of Salem. She enjoyed a delightful 10 days' outing at the H. B. Thielson ranch in Polk county.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Claus Jr. and son Fred Claus III, are here from Lincoln, Neb., for an extended visit with Mrs. Claus' sister, Mrs. Charles T. Hoge, 339 East Forty-seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Gross of 932 East Fourteenth street north, and the latter's sister, Theresa Arno, have returned from an enjoyable three weeks' trip to California, visiting the fair.

Mrs. Ada B. Milligan, from Millican, central Oregon, who has been attending the General Federation of Women's clubs, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. D. W. Holden, at 426 Cook avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Gestbracht, Mrs. Homer A. Nelson, Mrs. Anna Hunt and Mrs. D. O. Woodworth of Albany motored down to the city to attend the Rose Festival and to visit friends.

Miss Kathleen Lawler arrived Tuesday evening from Chicago, where she passed last week. Miss Lawler will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Honora M. Lawler, until September.

Mrs. Carlyle has returned to Seaside after spending the winter at Berkeley, Cal., with A. C. Stevens, her brother. She will open new Locksley Hall for the summer.

Mrs. John Benoit (Gertrude Jackson), of Astoria, is visiting with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Benoit. Mrs. Benoit is assistant auditor of Astoria.

Many informal parties are being given for the pleasure of Mrs. Frederick Burrows and Miss Stone of Chicago, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Veasey.

Miss Leona Barker has gone to California for the summer. She will visit Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles, staying with relatives until about August.

Mrs. James C. Pollock, formerly Mrs. Emma W. McKenzie, for many years identified with the Portland public schools, is visiting Mrs. F. J. Mann, 441 Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Curtis Simmons have returned from a week and visit to Neah-kah-nie mountain, and were guests at the Neah-kah-nie tavern, Neahalem, Or.

Lieutenant P. J. Hennessy, United States army, commandant of cadets at Oregon Agricultural college, is at the Benson. Mrs. Hennessy accompanies him.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hollinhead are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby daughter, who has been named Lola May Hollinhead.

Mrs. Thomas T. Davies of Great Falls, Mont., is the home guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. George L. Roberts, at 196 East Thirty-eighth street.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Coon (Lora Stuart) are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a baby daughter, May 27.

Mrs. V. Feenberg of Salem was the house guest of her sister, Mrs. George Hartman, during the Rose Carnival.

Donald Tarpley returned home last Tuesday evening from the Boston

School of Technology, where he has been studying for the past year.

Mrs. C. W. Sherman and baby daughter, Polly, left Wednesday for their summer home at Tokeland, Wash., for the summer season.

Tom Dobson is expected home the first part of the week from New York City, where he has passed the winter furthering his musical studies.

Miss Amy Rothchild has returned home from Wellesley college and will pass the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rothchild.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cottrell (Miss Hazel Foster) are receiving felicitations on the birth of a son at St. Vincent's hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. George Parker and son, Melvin, left Friday aboard the steamer Great Northern for San Francisco, which city they will make their home.

Miss Frances Baites has returned from Wellesley college to pass the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baites.

Mrs. William Henry Davis, an attractive young matron of Albany, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Andre J. Wolff of Irvington.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris E. Stone are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, Robert Le Sewer, Monday, June 7.

Mrs. Frederick H. Strong is passing two months at Seaside, Oregon, and will return to the city about the first of August.

Edith Knight Holmes left the first of last week for San Francisco, where she will pass several weeks at the exposition.

James McBride, St. left Tuesday morning for Minneapolis to visit his son, James McBride, Jr. who is very ill.

Mrs. George E. Waggoner and her little son returned home last Tuesday from an extended visit at Spokane.

Guy Willis of Portland, is spending a few days in New York city and is stopping at the Wolcott hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Knighton of Salem were at the Seward for the Rose Festival.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Dollie Ethel Woodham to J. Carroll Richards on Wednesday evening, June 2, was a charming affair. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Woodham, on Sixty-seventh street. About 150 guests were invited. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The altar and hall were especially artistic. Preceding the ceremony Miss Johnson sang, "I Will, Thine Own" (Solo). Mrs. Richards was the bride. The two flower girls were Miss Dorothy Webster and Miss Virginia Nelson and were fairly like in fluffly white dresses adorned with pink ribbons. They carried baskets of pink roses, scattering them down the aisle formed by white ribbons, after them came "Cupid," Dr. Nelson's small son of three years, carrying a white lily with the wedding ring inside. Following Cupid came Miss Dorothy McEnchaulb, charmingly crowned in an imported embroidered pink chiffon over pink silk, her hair entwined with a rose chain. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and ferns. The bride followed on the arm of her father, a vision of loveliness in her bridal gown of ivory charmeuse, crowned on train, her mob cap veil of real lace caught up with lilies of the valley extended to the full length of her gown. A diamond lavalier, a gift from the groom, was her only ornament. She carried a shower bouquet of white rose buds and lilies of the valley. The groom stopped from the altar to meet his bride and Dr. T. W. Lane performed the marriage rites, using the beautiful ring service.

After a month's honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Richards will be at home to their friends in Tacoma, where Mr. Richards is in business.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Tacoma, Mrs. N. E. Coffman, Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. D. Bush and Mrs. Whitmarsh and son of Chehalis, Wash. J. N. Rose came over from Seattle to attend as best man, being a schoolmate of Mr. Richards in their boyhood days.

Serving during the reception were: Mrs. John F. Logan and Mrs. William Barton Jr. Those assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dublier will be at home to their friends at 411 East Forty-first street north.

A quiet but very pretty home wedding was solemnized Tuesday (June 1) at Astoria, when Miss Ernestine Shellenberger, daughter of J. R. Shellenberger, became the bride of Duane Hall Grier of Portland. The ceremony was performed under an arch of fern and roses, and was read by Rev. M. Gilbert. The bride was charming in white pussy willow taffeta and was trimmed in orange blossoms, and carried bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her parents are widely and favorably known throughout Wallawa county. The bride is an attractive daughter of Mrs. Bertha Prier, having formerly lived at Omaha, Neb., and Enterprise, Or., whence she moved to this city.

After a sumptuous wedding dinner, the young couple left for a trip to the south, intending to take in the Pan-Pacific exposition and other places of interest, after which they will make their home at Enterprise, Wallawa county, Oregon.

Miss Elsie Lomatch became the bride of Arthur Pace of Enterprise, Monday at high noon at a pretty home ceremony which took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Gus Price. The Rev. Ebling read the services. The bride was attired in white tulle and carried a bouquet of silk poplin and wore a chic white hat.

Arthur W. Ruhndorf of Salem at Seaside, where they will pass the with corsage bouquet of bride roses. Miss Anna Taggesell was maid of honor and she was crowned in a prettily embroidered frock of white and carried American beauty roses. William Shanahan acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Pace left after the wedding for California for the wedding trip and will be at home to their friends at Enterprise, Or., after July 1.

Miss Florence Long of Omaha, Neb., was an out of town guest at the wedding.

At the home of the bridegroom's sister, in this city, 70 East Seventy North, and in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends, Monday evening, June 7, 1915, Allice C. Dovel to Ray R. Robertson, Jr. Bowersox officiating.

The school and the bridegroom identified with the engineering department of the steamboat division of the O. W. R. and N. Co. The beautiful ring ceremony was performed after which a dainty wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson are now sojourning at Newport, Ore., for a few days, prior to taking up the permanent residence in Oregon City.

A quiet but very pretty home wedding was solemnized Tuesday (June 1) at Astoria, when Miss Ernestine Shellenberger, daughter of J. R. Shellenberger, became the bride of Duane Hall Grier of Portland. The ceremony was performed under an arch of fern and roses, and was read by Rev. M. Gilbert. The bride was charming in white pussy willow taffeta and was trimmed in orange blossoms, and carried bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her parents are widely and favorably known throughout Wallawa county. The bride is an attractive daughter of Mrs. Bertha Prier, having formerly lived at Omaha, Neb., and Enterprise, Or., whence she moved to this city.

After a sumptuous wedding dinner, the young couple left for a trip to the south, intending to take in the Pan-Pacific exposition and other places of interest, after which they will make their home at Enterprise, Wallawa county, Oregon.

Miss Elsie Lomatch became the bride of Arthur Pace of Enterprise, Monday at high noon at a pretty home ceremony which took place at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Gus Price. The Rev. Ebling read the services. The bride was attired in white tulle and carried a bouquet of silk poplin and wore a chic white hat.

Arthur W. Ruhndorf of Salem at Seaside, where they will pass the

Mrs. Henry Prudhomme, who, with her two children, has returned home after passing several months at Gearhart. Mrs. Prudhomme has been convalescing at the beach from a recent operation.

rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dublier will be at home to their friends at 411 East Forty-first street north.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Tacoma, Mrs. N. E. Coffman, Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. D. Bush and Mrs. Whitmarsh and son of Chehalis, Wash. J. N. Rose came over from Seattle to attend as best man, being a schoolmate of Mr. Richards in their boyhood days.

Serving during the reception were: Mrs. John F. Logan and Mrs. William Barton Jr. Those assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dublier will be at home to their friends at 411 East Forty-first street north.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Tacoma, Mrs. N. E. Coffman, Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. D. Bush and Mrs. Whitmarsh and son of Chehalis, Wash. J. N. Rose came over from Seattle to attend as best man, being a schoolmate of Mr. Richards in their boyhood days.

Serving during the reception were: Mrs. John F. Logan and Mrs. William Barton Jr. Those assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dublier will be at home to their friends at 411 East Forty-first street north.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Tacoma, Mrs. N. E. Coffman, Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. D. Bush and Mrs. Whitmarsh and son of Chehalis, Wash. J. N. Rose came over from Seattle to attend as best man, being a schoolmate of Mr. Richards in their boyhood days.

Serving during the reception were: Mrs. John F. Logan and Mrs. William Barton Jr. Those assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dublier will be at home to their friends at 411 East Forty-first street north.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Tacoma, Mrs. N. E. Coffman, Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. D. Bush and Mrs. Whitmarsh and son of Chehalis, Wash. J. N. Rose came over from Seattle to attend as best man, being a schoolmate of Mr. Richards in their boyhood days.

Serving during the reception were: Mrs. John F. Logan and Mrs. William Barton Jr. Those assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dublier will be at home to their friends at 411 East Forty-first street north.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Tacoma, Mrs. N. E. Coffman, Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. D. Bush and Mrs. Whitmarsh and son of Chehalis, Wash. J. N. Rose came over from Seattle to attend as best man, being a schoolmate of Mr. Richards in their boyhood days.

Serving during the reception were: Mrs. John F. Logan and Mrs. William Barton Jr. Those assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dublier will be at home to their friends at 411 East Forty-first street north.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Tacoma, Mrs. N. E. Coffman, Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. D. Bush and Mrs. Whitmarsh and son of Chehalis, Wash. J. N. Rose came over from Seattle to attend as best man, being a schoolmate of Mr. Richards in their boyhood days.

Serving during the reception were: Mrs. John F. Logan and Mrs. William Barton Jr. Those assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dublier will be at home to their friends at 411 East Forty-first street north.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richards of Tacoma, Mrs. N. E. Coffman, Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. D. Bush and Mrs. Whitmarsh and son of Chehalis, Wash. J. N. Rose came over from Seattle to attend as best man, being a schoolmate of Mr. Richards in their boyhood days.

Serving during the reception were: Mrs. John F. Logan and Mrs. William Barton Jr. Those assisting about the rooms were: Mrs. N. M. Webster, Mrs. J. Rogers, Mrs. Whitmarsh and Mrs. L. H. Adams.

Miss Sarah Spellman and William Dublier were married Sunday, May 30, at a large and elaborate ceremony at the Rose City Park club at 5:30 p. m. Rabbi Abrams officiated. About 150 guests were in attendance for the ceremony and the supper which followed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Spellman received with their daughter and her husband. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white satin elaborated with silk net lace and orange blossoms, a wreath of which held her long tulle veil. She carried bride roses and sweet peas, combined with gypsophelia. Her sister, Miss Leah Spellman, was the flower girl and was a dainty figure in a white frock with pink sash, and carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Quantities of flowers decked the club a gale effect. The Jewish service with the parent of the bride and other relatives taking part, was most impressive. Mrs. Lee Kent, a sister of the bridegroom, sang, "I Love You Truly," just prior to the bridal party taking their places.