News for publication in the Sunday society pages must be in the Journal office by Friday afternoon.

By Nona Lawler.

WITH the advent of July the summer exodus will begin. Many prominent ladies will open their summer homes and a continual round of gaieties will be planned for the many visitors on the way to the exposition. Exposition visitors will share attention with the group of attractive debutantes and their house guests, some from eastern and southern hotels.

Week-end trips to the beaches with usual round of summer dances, for trips, picnics, luncheons, tennis and golf, will claim the attention of city and, in anticipation of these affairs, several have already opened their coast cottages.

Honoring Miss Patsy Stewart, one of the season's most attractive debutantes, Mrs. Lee Hoffman and Miss Arjory Hoffman will give a dancing party at the Hoffman country place on Kings Heights Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd are planning a dance for Miss Katherine Hardy, of Englewood, N. J., who is a house guest of Miss Helen Ladd at the season. The date is next Friday night, and many of the younger members of the smart set will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jorgensen, 176 Skidde Drive, are being congratulated on the arrival of a baby girl yesterday morning.

A charmingly appointed dinner followed by an elaborate reception, was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Alva Stephens, honoring Kathleen Lawler, visiting here. The decorations were especially beautiful, the reception room being a bower of Dorothy Perse, la France and Lamartine roses, a living room in ferns and bright clusters of fragrant jessamine. The dinner guests were Misses Lawler, Nona Lawler, Eleanor Sanderson, Lorraine Allen, Nina Joy, Elizabeth Carroll, Marin Jamil, Dagnar Kelly, Claire Oakes and Thelma Dunbar.

An artistically rendered program of the evening's entertainment included vocal solos by Miss Nina Joy, Kay Huntington, Mrs. Clyde Alken, Mrs. Robert F. Clark, Editha Eugenia Woodruff, Eleanor H. Lorge and Aileen King, and piano selections by Dr. Will Enna.

Miss Dorothy Collins was born to Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Rockey Wednesday, and congratulations are being sent to the Rockey home. Mrs. Rockey was Mrs. Alice Carey.

Countless affairs are being given honor of the younger girls who are from school and one of the most jolly held in Miss Margaret Kent, the new guest of Miss Helen Wortman. Miss Clara Hirschberger entertained Friday at an informal dinner party for the pleasure of Miss Kent and Miss Wortman. An informal dinner will be given at the Automobile club next Wednesday and a large party is being planned by Miss at a distance of 18 miles. There will be about six in the group and July 3 and 4 will be spent in true camp style and camp fare will be the order of the day.

Both Miss Kent and Miss Wortman are popular members of Miss Baldwin's school, where they will enter on their last year next fall. Miss Wortman recently made chairman of the school, which is one of the highest honors conferred on students there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wortman have as their house guest Victor D. Salvatore, sculptor of New York, who arrived June 20 to be in Portland for several weeks. Mr. Salvatore is well known in artistic circles in the east. He is planning to exhibit at the Museum of Art, Fifth and Taylor, this summer.

July 1 Miss Ruth Teal, who has been in New York for the past three months, will return to her home in Portland. Miss Teal will bring with her as house guest Miss Virginia Scully of New York. Many affairs will probably be given honoring the visitor.

Dr. and Mrs. James Rosenfeld, who have been to Gearhart on their wedding trip, are in Portland again and are with the I. N. Langs for the present.

Miss Beatrice Washburn, of Minneapolis, the attractive daughter of Mrs. W. D. Washburn, has arrived for a few weeks' visit here with her mother and her grandmother, Mrs. Henry E. Jones. Mrs. Washburn and her little son have been visiting here for some time at the Jones residence, on Portland Heights. Miss Washburn's visit will doubtless be the inspiration for much entertaining.

Mr and Mrs. Thomas Honeyman went to Tacoma Thursday for a short visit with friends and will be home today.

Prominent matrons who will be in San Francisco for a short time are: Mrs. William Honeyman and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman, who have a host of friends in the exposition city.

Miss Rhoda Hummel gave a smart tea at her home on Willamette Heights Thursday afternoon, in compliment to Miss Helen Ladd, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, and her guest, Miss Katherine Hardy, of Englewood, N. J. About 100 delightfully spoken matrons and maids called during the afternoon to meet the eastern visitor. At the amovars, Mrs. C. H. Honeyman (Mildred Honeyman) and Mrs. Maurice Crumpacker presided, and Mrs. Kurt Koehler (Dorothy Hu-

Louise Caswell in the beautiful Caswell gardens for Friday, July 2. Another jolly party planned for Miss Kent will be a hike to Hillsdale, which is ber) and Mrs. Andrew Dickinson served the tea.

Miss Dorothy Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Collins, entertained a group of the sub-debutantes set at an informal tea last Thursday afternoon, honoring Miss Dorothy Condon, of Seattle. Miss Condon is an attractive belle who has just graduated from St. Helen's Hall, where she has been studying for the past four years. About 40 girls called during the afternoon to bid good-bye to the honored guest. Assisting Miss Collins were Misses Margaret Clark, Clara Elliot and Alice Dabney. Miss Collins is to go east to Wellesley in the fall.

Miss Grace Peters was hostess at luncheon Tuesday at her home in Irvington in honor of Miss Katherine Hardy, of Englewood, N. J., Ladd. Her guests were the Misses Katherine Hardy, Helen Ladd, Mary Stewart Smith, Nancy Zan, Rhoda Hummel, Elizabeth Jacobs, Margaret Meers, Virginia Burns, Sara McCully, Nan Russell and Allie MacMaster.

Miss Nan Russell was hostess Wednesday at luncheon at the Benson, complimenting Miss Helen Ladd and her house guest, Miss Katherine Hardy. Covers were laid for 14.

At a pretty tea Monday afternoon Miss Violet Erskine entertained a number of prominent members of the smart set. The affair was informal and the decorations were a simple grouping of summer blossoms. Mrs. Kurt Koehler and Miss Jean Morrison assisted the hostess in presiding over the tea table.

Mrs. William H. Skene has joined the summer colony of cottagers at Near-Nah-nie and is domiciled in a bungalow there. She is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Donald Mackay and Mrs. Walter B. Mackay. Mrs. Skene made a short trip to the city this week.

Mrs. B. J. Raeder is entertaining from Fort Wayne, Dr. and Mrs. Mike Mikessell, for a few days. The Mikessells are on their way to visit the exhibitions in California.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wilcox have been in California at the exhibitions since last Sunday and are expected home this Sunday.

Keen interest is being shown in the coming recital of next Tuesday night, at which Mrs. Thomas Carriek Burke will present Miss Constance Piper.

Harry Wembridge, tenor, will assist on the program. Miss Piper has not appeared at a large concert since her return from New York last spring, when she gave a splendid recital before a large audience. The program will doubtless be very interesting, for Miss Piper will give numbers from contemporary musicians as well as from the old masters.

Miss Rebecca Cook Ross, of Clarion, Pa., who has been visiting in the southern states in her house guest of her cousin, Mrs. Jacob Hill Cook. Mrs. Cook entertained for Miss Ross with an elaborate dancing party Saturday evening at her home in Mount Tabor.

A brilliant event of last week was a large informal tea and reception given Saturday afternoon and evening by Mrs. James F. Dunbar. The affair was given in compliment to Mrs. Nathaniel Lee Kingsbury, who will leave soon to make her home on Pans Ranch, Carrollton, Wash., and it was a complete surprise to the guests when announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Jean Dunbar and Harold Ames McIntyre. Miss Dunbar is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Dunbar and a granddaughter of the late Mary E. Reynolds, one of the city's pioneers. Mr. McIntyre is the son of the late Mrs. James Pyle, of Minneapolis, and is connected with a timber concern in Bismark, North Dakota.

Wild arrowroot was used in the decorations. A pretty feature of the party was the manner in which the announcement was made. The guests were seated at the table and at each cover was a slender gilded basket of Cecil Brunner roses in which the card was concealed. The wedding is to take place in the early fall.

The Bozorth family association held its eleventh annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Keenan, 721 East Ash street, Friday, June 25. Mrs. Keenan is one of the direct descendants of this pioneer family, her mother having come to Oregon with the family in 1845. The association has more than 300 members. The officers are H. C. Bozorth, president; Alfred N. Willis, vice president; Milton E. Bozorth, secretary; and John O. Bozorth, historian. The business portion of the association began at 11 o'clock. The dinner was served at 1 o'clock, after which the afternoon was spent in recitations, music and visiting. It has been the custom heretofore to hold these annual reunions on the old homestead at Woodland, Wash., but some of the members have found it rather inconvenient to be in at-endance on account of the distance, so it was decided to hold the meeting this year in Portland.

An event of interest to society this week was the reading of Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables" by Miss Penetta Sargent Haskell. Mrs. George J. Frankel and Mrs. Herbert Garr Reed were the hostesses for the affair. Many prominent members of the smart set enjoyed the splendid interpretation by Miss Haskell who has unusual ability.

Miss Claire Wilcox spent last week in Tacoma where she was the guest of Miss Constance Rice, an attractive Tacoma belle. Miss Wilcox is expected home today.

Among those who left this week for California is Miss Anna B. Crocker, curator of the Portland Art association. Miss Crocker left Thursday morning and plans to be away about two weeks.

Leo Charles Sparks will present his pupils in a recital at Christensen's hall July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Brunn and their niece, Miss Edith Marshall, are motoring to California where they will be entertained by Mrs. Brunner's sister, Mrs. John Albert Marshall of Berkeley. They left last week and plan to return home about August 1.

The Gamma Phi Beta alumnae held a meeting Saturday, June 26, at Miss Buelah Bridges' home, at Ewings station.

For the pleasure of Miss Penetta Sargent Haskell, the house guest of Mrs. G. J. Frankel, Mrs. Chester Deering, Graceful crystal bowls of pink and white sweet peas adorned the dainty table, and covers were laid for Miss Haskell, Mrs. Frankel, Mrs. Herbert Garr Reed, Mrs. Alva Lee Stephens and Mrs. Willard T. Hawley. Mrs. Deering plans to go next month to British Columbia, to join Mr. Deering. They will then go on to California in October.

A small dinner dance was given Wednesday evening in the Tyrolean room of the Hotel Benson by Miss Vella Winner for Mrs. Clarence V. Everett, known professionally as Alice Fleming. Mrs. Everett has just returned from successful engagements with leading stock companies in Denver, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Covers were laid for 12, and the decorations consisted of an artistic arrangement of Caroline Testout buds and Maiden Hair ferns. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence V. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Farrington Jr., Miss Kathleen Lawler, Miss Nona Lawler, Ludwig L. Pokorney, Dr. J. B. Ferrier, Martin T. Duffy.

A smart event of last week was an informal dancing party given by Mrs. J. D. Honeyman at the Honeyman farm near Scappoose. About 43 of the younger set attended the affair, which was one of the jolliest of the summer. Many of the guests motored to the farm. The party was given for a number of girls, among whom was Miss Patsy Stewart, a debutante who is being extensively feted.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Sanosky will be at home this afternoon, from 2 to 5, at the Multnomah hotel, suite 509.

Miss Helen Unity Graves entertained with a delightful tea in her Portland Heights home Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Martha Bigelow, a member of Spokane younger set. Miss Bigelow is a member of the Washington chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, and is on her way south Washington chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, which convenes the first week in July. Those who met the guest of honor were Madama Burton Beck, Frank Knight, Fletcher Linn, John Claire, Monteith, Roy Marx, John Turner, George Young, H. C. Fowell, H. L. Shepherd, R. L. Phillip, Tom Owen, Kaler and Coffman. Misses Florence Knapp, Verna Weaver, Margaret Jackson, Fannie Lane, Josephine Lane, Peggy Innes, Gertrude Blackmar, Frances Dewar, Anna Kay Browne and Williams.

An event that came as a great surprise to their numerous friends was the wedding of Miss Sylvia Eaton, of Fort Wayne, Ind., to Karl S. Brown of this city. The ceremony took place on the morning of the 23d of June at 8:30 o'clock at the First Congregational church, the Rev. D. Dyott officiating. The bride was accompanied by Miss Erdner as bridesmaid. The church was beautifully decorated with sweet peas and Dorothy Perkins roses. The bride wore a very becoming traveling suit of midnight blue and carried a large spray of white roses. After a breakfast at the Portland hotel the newly wedded couple were accompanied to the train by their friends.

They will spend their honeymoon on an extended tour of the Pacific coast and will be at home to their friends on August 1.

Mr. Brown is a well known young business man of this city and a prominent member of the Ad club and the M. A. A. club. Miss Eaton is very
