

What Society is Doing

BY NONA LAWLER

ABOUT 40 of the younger belles and beaux will attend an informal dancing party to be given by Miss Elsie Walker at her home on Sherwood drive tonight. Bright Japanese lanterns and summer blossoms are to be used on the porch and in the rooms and gardens of the Walker home. Miss Walker and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Walker, spent a delightful week-end at their coast home at Cannon Beach.

Conlin-Hope Wedding.

At a simple church wedding this morning in St. Rose Catholic church, Miss Helen Alice Seglin, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Conlin, became the bride of James Hope, an attorney of Astoria. The ceremony was solemnized at 9 o'clock by Rev. Father Cunningham officiating. John Hope of Chicago attended his brother as best man, and Mrs. Frank Collier served as matron of honor. A musical service was given by Leo and William Conlin. Miss Anna Matschiner sang an appropriate solo, and Mrs. J. H. Mackenham played the violin obbligato. Mrs. William Schmitt presided at the organ. The church was artistically decorated in white blossoms and ferns. After a wedding breakfast at the bride's home, Mr. and Mrs. Hope departed for their wedding trip. They will reside in Astoria.

Large Tea.

Mrs. Guy M. Standifer entertained yesterday at a large tea at her home on 753 East Broadway from 3 until 6 o'clock. About 80 prominent matrons and maids called during the afternoon.

Week-End Parties.

Many delightful week-end jaunts are already being taken to the mountains and seashore and along the Columbia River. Several parties from Portland spent the week-end at Crown Point chalet, one of the most picturesque stopping places along Columbia highway. Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Boise, Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Katherine Hardy and Miss Sara McCully formed one of the groups who enjoyed the outing. Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Menefee and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Berney of Port Worth, Texas, also passed a delightful stay at the chalet. Others registered during the week were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Clark, New York city; Mr. and Mrs. William Cotton, Portland; Mrs. L. Mabel Hight, San Diego, Cal.; George H. Carse Jr., Yokohama, Japan; Mrs. E. B. Carroll, Portland; John B. Yeon, Portland; Mrs. Richard H. Hope, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Whittemore, Houghton, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wright, Portland; William S. Janney, Louisville, Ky.; E. Roth Jones, New Albany, Ind.; Emma A. Shulte, Portland; Florence Knapp, Portland; Coara Knapp, Portland; P. C. Knapp, Portland; Miss M. E. Ahern, Chicago; Miss Hunt, Portland; Misses Mary and Bernice Ison, Portland; Mark A. Mayer, Portland; A. G. Jacobs, Portland; J. O. Muebe, Portland; Mrs. James Giles, Anderson, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bell, Portland; W. B. Neels, Portland; Samuel Hill, Portland; Paul C. Bates, Portland; T. H. Crang, Portland; H. L. Bowley, Portland; W. O. Church, Kansas City; C. J. Thomas, Portland; L. R. Miller, Portland; Philip Patterson, P. L. Menefee, Howell Jones, Miss Jean Mackenham, Portland; Ruth Fieis, San Francisco; Thomas B. Blumer, Boston.

Home Wedding.

A pretty home wedding to be solemnized next week will be that of Miss Hazel Steadman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Steadman, and Cyrus A. Woodworth. The date is set for July 7 and only the members of the two families will be present.

To Visit on MacKenzie River.

Mrs. Theodore Brooks Trevelt and Miss Kate L. Trevelt will leave Wednesday for a fortnight's visit with Miss Alice Quigg at her country place on the MacKenzie river. Later they expect to visit in San Francisco.

To Entertain Roommate.

Miss Helen Hall, who has recently completed her course of study at Chevy Chase seminary in Washington, D. C., is expecting her roommate, Miss Louise Hunt of Chattanooga, Tenn., this week to visit her for a few weeks. Many affairs will be given for the two girls.

For Bride-Elect.

A very smart event of Friday, June 25, was a luncheon given by Misses Audra and Gladys Watkins at their home in honor of their cousin, Miss Leah Cushman, whose wedding will be an event of next month. The rooms were daintily decorated with June blossoms. The afternoon was spent in card playing. The honors were won by Miss Louise Gailien. Those who presided at the luncheon were: Miss Leah Cushman, Vivian White, Marjory Crittenden, Ruth Crittenden, Helen Campbell, Marion West, Grace Altoff, Beulah Hayes, Louise Gailien, Louella Blingham, Martha Levitt, Gladys Brault, Mrs. Louise Moore and Mrs. H. A. Moore.

Home From Exposition.

Mrs. Chester Murphy returned today from a delightful sojourn in San Francisco, where she has been with her father, Timothy Kinney, of Salt Lake City, and her two sisters, Mrs. James Dougherty and Mrs. C. W. Whitley, for a fortnight. Mrs. Murphy is returning ahead of the rest of the party, who will come on later this week. The entire group will summer at Gearhart.

Vocal Recital Announced.

Invitations have been issued to attend a vocal recital given by the pupils of Leo Charles Sparks at Christ's hall, 1893 Eleventh street, Thursday evening, July 1, at 8:30 o'clock. At that time Mr. Sparks will present Miss

Care for the Eyes

As an eye remedy or an eye bath, Dr. Thompson's Eye Water has stood unequalled since 1795—one hundred and twenty years. Your mother and your grandmothers esteemed it as an indispensable household need. Do you? If not, you do not know the benefits your eyes would secure by using it regularly. Keep your eyes strong and healthy and they will help keep you. 25c at your druggist, or John L. Thompson, Sons & Co., Troy, N. Y. Booklet free. (Adv.)

Miss Gertrude O'Malley, who has been visiting friends in Seattle.

Shirtwaist Dance.

The B'nai B'rith club will hold a shirtwaist dance tomorrow evening at the B'nai B'rith hall, Thirteenth and Mill streets. Arrangements are in the hands of the entertainment committee and the women members of the organization.

Attractive Luncheon.

Mrs. J. B. Evans of Oak Grove was the honor guest at an elaborate luncheon given at the home of Mrs. Jack Wilson, near Ardenwald. Mrs. Evans will spend the summer at her country home, Sunnybrook farm, near Goble, Oregon.

Society Notes.

Mrs. Aubrey Jenkins left Portland today for Kingston, Ont., for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Robert Davidson. She plans to remain in Canada until September, and on her return will be accompanied by Miss Edna Cannon of this city, who has been visiting in various parts of the east and Canada during the last year.

Mrs. W. J. Furnish left Saturday night for a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. W. Vincent, at Pendleton.

Mrs. James McKenna of 673 Main street will go this week to Idaho to visit relatives for a month.

Mrs. C. C. Murton, accompanied by her daughter, Lucile and Ebelwynne, left last week for Gearhart, where she will join her son, Clarence, who left a few days ago to open the family cottage. They expect to remain at Gearhart till the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Levy and children are sojourning in their summer cottage at Seaview, Wash., for the season.

Mrs. L. A. Tike and son-in-law of Portland are building a new summer cottage at Ecola, Elk creek, Cannon Beach.

Misses Lorretta Stack and Helen Stack of Escanaba, Mich., are spending a month with their sister, Mrs. Walter M. Daly. Both have spent the winter in Pasadena and are on their return.

Indiana Society Social.

A large number of Indians gathered last night at the Masonic Temple to attend the social given by the Indiana Society of Oregon. Music, games, readings and dancing were enjoyed by the guests.

"If you know anything about CHERRY'S INSTALLMENT SYSTEM, Mrs. Gray, you'll see at once why it is Jim doesn't have to be urged to get a new suit when he needs it."

"It's simply because CHERRY'S allows him to pay easy Monthly or Weekly sums that can't possibly work any hardship for him. It doesn't seem as if he's paying such a lot, you see, and he doesn't, either, for cash is what we all need these days, and CHERRY'S does not ask for cash."

"I buy my clothes that way, too—CHERRY'S Women's Department is splendid. Really, it will pay you in comfort and satisfaction, as well as in money, too, if you take your husband up to CHERRY'S. Their place is at 389-391 Washington St., in the Pittock block." (Adv.)
