moters, the breadth of the cou try, realize that Welsh is in the game solely for what he can extract from he pockets of the gullible public. He has made no effort to give the fans a "run for their money," and this stand on the part of a recognized world's champion has embittered the fighting community against the Briton. Welsh, on next Wednesday, will have held the world's lightweight championship exactly one year. In that period he has gathered in the shekels at an astonishing rate—as fast as "suckers" could be supplied for him to outbox, or he outboxed by. Half of these "battles" have been adjudged against Welsh, but as they were merey newspaper decisions they did not impair his hold on the championship. The few friends Welsh had when he ame lightweight champion have been lost to him by his disgusting tactics in the ring. Freddie's method of "fighting" consists of circling an ent, jabbing lightly, and then stepping back a couple of paces. This peration consumes fully 15 seconds; o if Weish repeats the process about
