2 THE OREGON SUNDAY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, SUNDAY MORNING, JULY 4, 1915.
ASSASSIN OF MORGAN SET BOMB IN SENATE	SHOT BY FANATIC	FRANK HOLT WAS GERMAN INSTRUCTOR	Public Building in Washi	ington Doublea	TO THE PLAT HOUSE HI	derblit university and Oklahoma un versity. "He was extremely quiet and peac ful and strongly opposed to war," fact, his peace views coincided exact with those of ex-Senator of Sta Bryan, but I do not think he kne Bryan personally. He was of Germa extraction, born in Wisconsin. "Mrs. Holt this morning had a lett	Armed Guards Fatrol Streets of Bouth- ern California City; Red Man Angry Because One of Tribe Hilled.
WING OF THE CAPITOL Frank Holt, Instructor in Ger- man at Cornell University, Shoots J. P. Morgan.		He Finished Term This Sum- mer; Was Studious and Quiet While in Ithaca.	By John Edwin Nevin. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) Washington, July 3.—Positive infor- mation that Frank Holt, who attempts ed J. P. Morgan's life, was the man who tried to blow up the national	definitely. Until it is learned just who, if anyone, Holt had behind him, there was no question tonight that Washington officialdom will not breathe easy. Holt's methods were such that in- vestigators felt sure he at any rate	Rev. P. F. Sensabaugh Father-in-law, Unable to Understand Action of Holt	"The strain is killing her," her fat er said. Sensabaugh explained that He planned to go to Ithaca soon and the come to Dallas, where he was engag as a language professor for the ne	though government officials believe the danger of an Indian uprising on the reservation near here is past, armed guards still patrolled the streets of this city tonight ready to act if the braves should suddenly de- cide to follow the example of their Yaqui and Mayo brethren farther south.
MORGAN'S HURT SERIOUS Rolf Admits to Police That He Flaced Bomb in Mational Capitol Because of Ammunition Sales. (Continued From Page One.)		Bare Scholarship Won Bacommenda- tion of His Fellows on University Faculty. Ithaca, N. Y., July 3(I. N. S.)- Frank Holt, the former Cornell in-	reached the Washington police to- night. It was stated that it came by long distance telephone. All further infor- mation was refused. The next object of the secret serv- ice agents, justice department investi- gators and Washington policemen en- saged on the case was to determine whether Holt acted independently or was the agent of a group of conspir-	capitol and to kill J. P. Morgan the first steps in a proposed campaign of terrorism. As a result of this, the guards over all public buildings in Washington were doubled tonight. At the White House, uniformed officers held up everyone who tried to carry a pack- age through the grounds. Since Friday night nobody has been permitted to enter the capitol con-	Mrs. Molt Received Letter From Hus band, Dated New York, Saying He Was Despondent; Is German, Dallas, Texas, July 3(U. P.) Frank Holt, held in the Morgan shoot	Meantime his only statement was the he had a son-in-law named Holt, b he could see no reason for the crim Tonight he granted the United Fre the first extended interview of t	tions of activity around the quarters of the leaders on the reservation. The Indians are incensed against the Mex- icans and demand punishment for two Mexicans suspected of shooting an In- dian. 2,800,000 Reported
mite you had this morning?" inter- rupted Captain Tunney. "Never mind," answered the prison- er. "Til tell you that when I have my hearing on Wednesday." "Why are you holding out on us?" persisted Tunney. "Trying to give some accomplices a chance to escape?" "I told you there were no accom- plices," replied Holt. "I meant it,		structor who shot J. P. Morgan to- day, finished his service at the univer- sity two weeks ago and had accepted the chair of French history in the Southern Methodist college at Dallas, Texas. Holt taught German at Cornell, He is an accomplished linguist, speaking French and German fluently and be- ing well versed in Spanish. He came here two years ago from Vanderbilt	of terror throughout the United States. The fear of an organized plot hung over the government. That such a conspiracy has been suspected for some time to be simmering was known Portland Salesman	suspicion. For the first time in months credentials were demanded of callers at the state, war and navy de- partments. There was a feeling of nervousness everywhere. Meyer, who was with him at the time, is also in custody.	ing case, had been a peace advocate of the strongest type before he today sho J. P. Morgan. His father-in-law, Rev P. F. Sensabaugh, declared tonight the Holt was a disciple of former Secre- tary of State Bryan. "It seems he must have been de mented," said Sensabaugh, chokin back a sob, "though I had never see anything of that nature about him if	 f be no doubt as to Holt's identity for lowing the latter's admission in Gle, cove that Sensabaugh is his father-law and showing an express receipt is a package sent Sensabaugh here. Sensabaugh said, however, Mrs. Ho has not yet received the message Hore sent her today. Fraternity Elects Stockton Man Danville III. July 3-(U.P.)-T 	Benter's Petrograd Correspondent Says Military Critics Flace Tentonic For Says Military Critics Flace Tentonic Forces in East at 71 Army Corps. Dit London, July 3.—Reuter's Petro- grad correspondent says the Russian military critics estimate the total Aus- tro-German forces operating against the Russians as no less than 45 Ger- man and 26 Austrian army corps ton." Holt, it was learned tonight, wrote a Tong letter this morning. Captain Tunney told reporters he "belleved" the letter was addressed to R. Pearce and that it was mailed. "R. Pearce" was the name used by a man who wrote to the Washington Times, de- claring that the bomb that exploded in the capitol was a protest against the shipment of war munitions to the		university, where he had also taught. He specialized in German at Cornell, and did such brilliant work that he was granted his degree of doctor of philosophy this June. Holt was primarily a graduate stu- dent, but in order to increase his in- oome and support his family-wife and two children—he secured a posi- tion as instructor in the German de- partment. His rare scholarship won the friendship of his professors and	Spokane, Wash, July 3.—J. E. Mey- er, who claims to be a traveling sales- man for a Portland vacuum cleaner concern, was arrested here tonight for passing a bad check for $56 on the Whitehouse Clothing company. Mrs.	Vienna, July 3(U. P.)-Thirty thousand Italians who attacked the Austrian positions near Goritz, were repulsed with heavy losses, the war office reported tonight. The Italians	the 10 years that I have known him His life has been above reproach. H was an extremely ambitious youn man and for five years has been over working	h. national convention of the Phi Alp e Omega fraternity today elect g Charles Cloudsley, Stockton, Cal., so geant at arms. Bennett Brittin has decided to ret from active work in Plainfield N	ha It is asserted that 14 or 15 German train from New York, carrying a me- dium sized suitcase and neatly dressed. Hs walked to a garage near the sta- tion, called Fred Ford, a chauffeur, and asked to be driven to the Morgan home on Mantincock Point about two	by fanatic. over a private line to J. P. Morgan and company in New York. Holt Talks Irrationally. The Glencove police immediately be gan sweating Holt. The prisoned talked freely, though at times in an irrational manner. He repeatedly de olared that he had no intention on killing Morgan, but that his victim was responsible for prolonging the Eu ropean war and that he intended to	they gladly recommended him for an instructorship. He had finished work here two weeks ago and said he was leaving for New York. His wife and two children had started for Texas a few weeks ago. While Holt was known among his associates as pro-German he was not considered rabid and several of the Cornell professors who favor the allies said today that they regarded him as the most reasonable man in the entire German department. Holt had no bit- terness toward England and he cer- tenly had none for France or the	July C		nce Sa rdsF		d Oak miles from Glencove. "By the way," he asked Ford, as the car was about to start, "do you know. Mr. Morgan's car when you see it?" The chauffeur answered in the af- firmative. "Well, if we pass it, just stop," Holt said, "and I'll throw my grip in and get in with Mr. Morgan." At Holt's direction, Ford drove the car through the gateway of the Mor- san estate and up to the main steps, where his passenger alighted and paid	frighten him into preventing the exportation of any more ammunition to the allies. The smash from Morgan's fist and the onslaught by the servants left Hof in a badly battered condition. His head was bleeding and he was bruised about the head and body. When he recovered sufficiently he consented to talk with reporters. Instructor at Cornell. Holt said that his home was in Dallas, Texas, and that he was 40	French, of whom he talked in the high- est terms. He was never a prominent figure in the bitter disputes about the war, which were more or less frequent during the fall, but he did write let- ters of protest to a local newspaper because it criticised Germany's vio- lation of Belgian neutrality. It is said that lately Holt has been much wrought up over the question of exportation of arms and ammunition and he is said to have expressed strong objections to the United States	Sale Prices on All Camp Furniture	room, library, porch and o price with other pieces w portunity to select just the variety of over 500 articles	and the second se	uickly as possible: An op- your home from a splendid	Sale Prices on Comforts his fare. Holt then started up the steps and Ford turned to drive out of the grounds. Butler Fiske answered Hoit's ring. The caller handed him a card, saying: Exolt Sees the Butler. "I want to see J. P. Morgan." He is	years of age. "I am an American," he said. "My ancestors were French and German. "Before I went to Cornell, I was an instructor at Vanderbilt college. I received a degree of doctor of philoso- phy at Cornell in 1914, while I was an instructor there in modern languages I resigned from the Cornell faculty this spring and accepted an appoint ment to the chair of Roman languages at the Southern Methodist university	permitting the shipment of arms to the allies. Holt, however, could not be consid- ered violent on the question, though a- man of his type might have been so beneath the surface and not have shown it to his fellows. Ex IS Nearly 40. Holt was a studious, hard working man of nearly 40 years. At times his colleagues say he was morose.	Begulation Folding Army Cot.	Sale Pri Gutaran $9.85	ces on Brand	ass Beds h Proof $7.45	BLANKETS Summer prices prevail on an sorts of bedding, especially comforts and Blankers, which have been 20% room. As he did so Holt drew a re-volver from his pocket and taking a few steps toward the hall said quietly: "You see this gun? I have another in the southern Methodist university, "You see this gun? I have another in the southern Methodist university, "You see this gun? I have another in the southern Methodist university, the southern Methodist university, "No one influenced me to do this. I got the idea about a month ago that I might persuade Mr. Morgan to stor the lapsible Go- $9.75 Carts Now at $9.75

An entire line of Go-Carts apecially priced for July Clearance Sale,

1/3 Off

Porch and

Lawn

Furniture

Sale Starts Tuesday

"You see this gun? I have another one. Now, I want to see Mr. Morgan." Fiske sized up the tall, slender stranger with the gleaming revolver and realized instantly that he was dealing either with a lunatic or a dan-louid I that is more than the set of a tutoring school ling either with a lunatic or a dancrank.

"Mr. Morgan is in the library," he to clean my clothes." and I'll call him." The butler passed slowly into the hall, broke into a run as he approached the dining room, and shouted: "Upstairs, Mr. Morgan, upstairs!"

Morgans Bun Upstairs.

The financier and his wife, believ-ing that something had happened up-stairs, ran up the back stairway. They found nothing wrong and hurrying through the long hall on the second floor and down the front stairs, almost stumbled upon the intruder who brandishing a revolver in either strong. Mrs. Morgan brushed ahead and ated to throw herself between the raigned before Judge Luyster, charged would-be assassin and her husband. Morgan however, pushed her back and huried the full weight of his 200 pounds of solid flesh upon his slender scallant, just as the two revolvers

At this point accounts of what happened differ materially. The version generally accepted here tonight was that Holt fired three shots before he was felled, one entering Morgan's ab-domen, piercing the center and inflicting a serious wound, and a second

Inge of the financier's father. Wounds Not Berious. Morgan's physicians issued a state-ment early this evening, declaring that the two bullets that entered his body lodged in the reation of the right thigh, causing no serious wounds. It was learned definitely late to-night that neither of the shots pene-trated Morgan's abdomen. The first shot struck the right hip and deficeted ot struck the right hip and deflected slightly downward. The second pierced near the groin and went downward more sharply, passing through the up-per part of the leg. In falling to the floor with his as-saliant. Morgan saired Holt's up to saliant, Morgan seized Holt's waist and wrenched one of the revolvers out of his hand. The butler and other servants then roshed in and overpowered Holt, They trussed him up with ropes and telephoned for the police and doctors.

Morgan refused the assistance of his wife and, unaided, mounted the stairs to the second floor, blood streaming down his trouser legs. He tairs to the second treaming down his trouser legs. He andressed himself and got into bed. Dr. Zabriski of Glencove, reached the Morgan home in 15 minutes in his automobile. Dr. Lyle of St. Luka's hospital, New York, was hur-ried to Glencove and shortly after-ward R. P. Davidson's yacht arrived with a number of New York special-

Holt, meanwhile, had been carried to the lawn of the Morgan home, se-currely bound. Constable Frank McGill and Judge William Luyster drove to the Morgan home and removed the prisoner to the court house here. When Holt was searched, he was found to have on him three sticks of less found to have on him three sticks of liquid I had in my pocket that they said that he also noticed that Holt was called nitroglycerine was only benzine a queer individual and he called him disagreeable. Both men said, however,

Here Holt described the struggle in that he had a good knowledge of the the Morgan hallway. He offered no reason for shooting Morgan, but ex-pressed admiration for his victim's reticence as to his own origin, brave struggle and for the bravery of While his colleagues are convinced Mrs. Morgan in attempting to save her that he is an American citizen and After he had talked to reporters, Holt borrowed a pencil and wrote a telegram to his wife, addressed to 101 Marseilles street, Dallas, Texas. It follows:

Members of the Cornell faculty are inclined to believe that Holt was not

The most significant fact bearing on the mental question, however, is that Holt left town without turning into the faculty committee in the college of arts and sciences, the marks made by one of his classes in a final examination in German. This was

Was to Teach in Texas, regarded as rather unusual.

Telegraphs His Wife. "Man proposes, God disposes, Don't come here until you get my letters. Be strong. (Signed) FRANK." Late this afternoon Holt was arin his proper mind when the shooting occurred. They said, however, they think that behind the surface of his demeanor and reticence he had been brooding about the question of arm-ament, but there was nothing in his with assault in the first degree, which manner when he was here to show he was unbalanced. covers attempted murder. He was bound over without bail for appearance

Wednesday at 2 p. m., the police an-nouncing that the prisoner would be taken to the county jall at Mineola, where Mrs. Florence Carman was con-Two incidents were recalled today bearing on this question of his sanity. One was some time ago when a professor found Holt in the library reading a volume on German witch-craft, written about the sixteenth cenfined during her trial for the sense tional murder of Mrs. Louiss Bailey. Holt apparently was suffering great-ly from loss of blood when he was artury. The professor told him if he did not stop reading it he would go crazy, but Holt merely smiled and raigned and his brain was muddled. When asked if he desired to plead, he went on reading.

penetrating the groin and coming out through the right thigh. A third shot was reported to have shattered a val-uable oil painting, one of the belong-ings of the financier's father. Wayness Mat Services

Holt, who shot J. P. Morgan, came to this city on June 2, and registered at Mrs. Frank Holt, wife of the man who no word where he intended going. no word where he intended goins. Ten days ago he reappeared at the hotel and walked up to the deak where mail for guests is distributed. There were several letters awaiting him, and these were handed to him. Since that time no further mail for him has been received, nor did he leave instructions for forwarding on that might with a leave instructions for forwarding on the leave instructions the bolt was to have come to Dallas in August to accept the position of pro-fessor of French at the Southern Meth-odist university, which opens this fall. University officials were dumbfounded when they heard the news of Holt's act. They declared they had investigated Holt was to have come to Dallas in received, nor did he leave instructions for forwarding any that might arriva Says Eat Lime to Save Your Teeth

Michigan Doctor at San Franc Makes Fublio His Pormula for Preterances. venting a Toothless Human Macs. San Francisco, Cal., July S.--(U. P.) --Is the human race becoming tooth-less? This question was asked today by venting a Toothless Human Bace.

Id to have on him three sticks of power dynamite, two large is of cartridges and a bottle the race betterment foundation, whose is the financier ordered the explosition contains attained coming to Dallas in a few the race betterment foundation, whose is the financier ordered the explosition contains attained coming to Dallas in a few the race betterment foundation, whose is the financier ordered the explosition contains attained coming to Dallas in a few the race betterment foundation. Whose is the financier ordered the explosition contains attained to be the race betterment foundation. Whose is the financier ordered the explosition contains attained to be the race betterment foundation. Whose is the financier ordered the explosition contains attained to be the first the first partner.
Is bed. Butler Fisks had him conted with his mother, Mrs. J. P. fruits, nuts, vegetables and other for seater amounts if the race would be eastern foods containing limes should be eastern foods containing limes and other atticles of small value of Battle Creeks, Mitch, who is in charge of the display. The people today do the ratified of the display. The people today do not east enough food containing lime, he says.

this city on June 2, and registered at the New Mills hotel, at Seventh ave-nue and Thirty-sixth street. He was assigned to room 1066. Ap-parently, he only had hand baggage with him, as there is no record of any larger baggage being registered in the baggage department of the hotel. Ac-cording to the management of the hotel, he stayed there only one night, and departed the following day, leav-ing instructions that his mail should be held until he called for it. He left no word where he intended going. Hot was to have come to Dallas in

Sensabaugh family is not of the type that would encourage anarchistic ut-There is probably no significance