

CITY LEAGUERS WILL RESUME SCHEDULE IN TWO GAMES TODAY

All Managers Have Strengthened Their Teams for Second Half of Season.

NETZEL WITH PIEDMONT

Netzler Should Add Great Deal of Strength—Games at Piedmont and Sellwood Ball Parks.

PORTLAND CITY LEAGUE.

Sellwood	1	0	1,000
West Side	1	0	1,000
East Side	1	0	1,000
Piedmont	0	1	999

After a fortnight's rest, the City League teams will resume play in the second half of the season today. The Piedmont Maroons, flashing with the East Side Redmen on the Peninsula Annex grounds and the Sellwood Dingbats locking horns with the West Side Monarchs on the Sellwood grounds. Both games will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

All managers have strengthened their teams considerably during the past two weeks, and it is expected that today's games will be very close. Manager Grayson of the Maroons has signed Miles Netzler, former Portland and Spokane player, to fill the place of Ernest Sigbee, who has joined the Caldwell, Idaho, team. Netzler will play third base and Bogart will be shifted to short. Hendson will play second base. Manager Lewis of Sellwood has signed Fred Garner, a third baseman, and Outfielder Joe Dixon, who played with the Piedmont during the first month of the season.

"Red" Lund, who was defeated by the Maroons three weeks ago by the score of 1 to 9, in a hard pitching battle with Jude Moreland, will leave for the East Side against Grayson's cranks. Emery Webb will do the hunting for the Piedmont nine.

Murphy is scheduled to pitch for the West Siders, while Manager Lewis is undecided who he will send to the mound. It will probably be Maxmeyer or Heman.

Way of Art Is Hard Finds Alfred Noyes

Celebrated English Poet Stud by Lyceum Bureau Manager Who Says She Bought Him Out.

Boston, July 10.—That the ways of literary fame are still rough and rocky, as in the days of Milton and the "Paradise Lost," is the opinion of Alfred Noyes, the English poet, who was arrested at Harvard recently after delivering the Phi Beta Kappa poem to the great scholars of the east, in a suit brought by a woman manager of a lecture bureau. Mrs. Alexina C. Barrett, the woman who brought the suit, says she took action because she believed the poet had not treated her just right. She declared Noyes had come to Boston "helpless as a babe in the woods," and had to arrange social entertainments for him, have his baggage checked, arrange for his taxi across Boston, and have him taken to Wellesley and to various functions, often at his expense. In spite of this, Mr. Noyes did everything possible to exclude her.

"He came here from New York in an upper berth on a sleeper. I sent him back on the boat, with a stateroom, at my own expense, just right. She came, I had made elaborate arrangements for his lectures. I secured engagements for him that crowded out other distinguished persons. The amount for which I am suing, $1600, will never recompense me for my services to Mrs. Barrett. I am prosecuting him as a matter of principle."

At 105 Attends to Horses and Works

Philadelphia, July 10.—Jacob Hoelbach, said to be the oldest farmhand in the United States, celebrated his 105th birthday by walking across the farm of Daniel Kirkner, at Berren Hill. "Jake" has been employed on the Kirkner farm for 43 years.

Except for a little touch of rheumatism, that makes his cane a comfort and reduces his speed, the old farmhand is as able to do his chores about the farm as he was 20 years ago.
