SENATOR BELIEVES STATE SHOULD HAVE PROFIT FROM LANDS

Marcus A. Smith, of Arizona, Gives Views on O. & C. Land Grant.

HAS STUDIED SITUATION

Head of Reclamation Committee Visits Portland as Guest of Oregon's Senators.

"I am perfectly willing that the state of Oregon should have all the profit in the Oregon & California railway land grant," said Senator Marcus A. Smith of Arizona, yesterday.

He says now that the government can collect from the railroad company the excess that the company has received for lands sold at a price greater than $2.50 an acre.

As a general principle he favors the state administering its own public lands. As an illustration he points to Texas, which came into the United States after it had successfully withdrawn from Mexico and established itself as an independent republic.

"Texas has made better disposition and has handled its public lands better than the federal government has handled public lands in any state," said Senator Smith.

Senator Smith is visiting in Portland. He is a close friend of Senator Chamberlain and Senator Lane and stopped off for a visit with them and to go fishing with Senator Lane.

The strongest opposition to any proposal for the state to receive these lands will come from the senators and representatives who sit off on the eastern coast and think the land is theirs.

Senator Smith explained that the views he expressed should not be set down to indicate what action he would take when the question of making disposition of the lands comes before congress.

He was accompanied by his wife and three children. All were emancipated by Mexican soldiers, who buried his wife and burned his ranch.

Eight automobile speeders arrested by Motorcycle Officer Ervin Friday afternoon and evening were fined by Municipal Judge Stevenson yesterday.

ASHLAND YEARNS TO TAKE FRONT PLACE AS TOURIST CENTER

City Council Takes Steps to Bring Out All of City's Scenic Resources.

PARKS, BATHS FEATURES

Sum of $175,000 Voted for Expensive Natural Advantages Will Enable to Make City Beautiful.

Ashland, the metropolis of Josephine county, has ambition to become a great tourist city.

M. J. Duryea, director of publicity of the Ashland Commercial club, says the city is backing its ambition with the expenditure of $175,000 on parks and mineral water baths.

Mr. Duryea is in Portland and is enthusiastically calling attention to the wonders of this city and county.

He says the city has acquired 40 acres of parks, has 25 miles of scenic drives and in the neighborhood are 40 known sulphur springs.

Water from one of these springs is being piped to the city and is to be one of the attractions.

Besides these things, he reminds one of the wonderful Josephine county caves, and Crater lake and Pelican bay and asks why, with all these natural attractions and a climate that is favorable the year round, should Ashland not become a tourist city of world-wide fame?

There is no one to answer him now.
