With the announcement from Cleveand last night that Infielder Hamnond, who beat Bill Rodgers out of a job with the Naps, had been turned over to Portland, a big shakeup is imminent in the Beaver ranks. Hammond is a second baseman, who can play a rattling good game at short, and who has been playing off and on for the Cleveland Americans this

Two outfielders are pretty much un-certain of their jobs, and they are not Billy Speas and Dave Hillyard. It is understood that another Coast teague club wants to trade Portland out of one of the two outfielders on shaky ground. The club must be Vernon, for the reason that it was stated in the was reason that it was retained in the south the other day that Manager White wanted to trade Walter Carlisle and Johnny Kane for Rube Gardner. However, Gardner is hitting the ball ard and against the short right field ence at San Francisco, so that the Dakland club has turned down a swap. Carlisle or Kane for Doane or Lober would be a fairly even trade, but if McCredie took one or the other, taking into consideration that a trade was offered Portland, it would more likely e Carlisle, who is the left handed hit-ers after two and one-half innings of play. Jup Piuvius' work robbed Portland of a possible victory, as Mc-Credie's players were leading, 2 to 0, and Irve Higginbotham, was pitching at his best.

Portland's two runs were scored in the second frame, just before the downpour started. William Stumpf, after Bates had skied out, connected with one of Lefty Brown's straight ones for a double to left center, Dave Hillyard put the ball on the runway on the right field fence and Stumpf counted. Under the new ground rules Hillyard was suitled to but two sacks. Fred Carisch put Hillyard on third with a single and the big centerfielder scored on Lober's hot drive to Jones. Jones made a great stop of the ball, but he was unable to field it to Schmidt in time, hitting Hillyard in the back.

At this point of the game, Acting Manager Roy Corhan pulled Brown out of the game and put in Skeeter Fanning. Higg forced Lober at second and then Fanning walked Doans, filling the bases. Derrick ended the frame by grounding out.

In the third, Higg whiffed Corhan,
