What Society is Doing BAWRER

Tuesday, July 13, printed the following notes of especial interest regarding Portland visitors in the Bay City:

Distinguished visitors to the expo sition still claim a large part of the attention of society, and every week brings its quota of men and women whose presence is the incentive for social gayeties. Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, of Portland, who arrived last week to be a guest at the Oregon building. was entertained there yesterday after-moon at an elaborate luncheon over which Mrs. John F. Logan presided Mrs. Piper is the mother of Miss Constance Piper, who delighted a large audience Sunday evening at the mu-sicale which she gave in the Oregon building. Green and gold were the colors chosen for the decorations of the table, a charming effect having been produced through a clever arrangement of yellow zinias and maidenhair ferns. Among those who were dames William Bailey Lamar, Elea-nor Martin, Thomas Hailey, Elon Brown, Arthur McLean, Norman E. Mack, William Baxter, Abigail Scott Duniway and Charles A. Gray.

The Francisca club was the setting for a prettily appointed luncheon Sat-urday afternoon. The young hostess was Miss Genevieve Halley, of Port-land, who presided over a flower laden table arranged for 12. Pink roses ornamented the table, and the dames Bert Calvin, Thomas Hailey, and the Misses Priscilla Ellicott, Dorothy Hillier, Anita McLean, Helene Baker, Marion Stovel, Harriet Mack and Norma Mack.

Carpenter-Smith Wedding.

Miss Esther Marie Smith became the wife of Frank E. Carpenter at 6 o'clock last Saturday, July 3, at Rev. Pratt's residence. The bride wore a traveling suit of tan silk poplin with a black and pink combination picture hat and corsage houquet of pink rose buds. The bride is well known among the musical circles, being possessed of a beautiful soprano voice. She is the daughter of Fred W. Smith, a well known violinist, formerly of this city, now in San Diego, Cal.

Surprise Party.

A pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Miss Susie Michael Tuesday evening at her Ainsworth avenue home. Over a score of the younger set spent the evening in dancing, games and music. Dainty refreshments were served at a late

Real Mystery Is Up to the Minute

Mystery done right up to the minute with Japan and Russia the secret combatants and America the scene of activities, is "The Clue," the Lasky production at the Peoples with Blanche Bweet the featured member of the cast. The story is woven about two Russian brothers, one of whom has a map pertaining to Japan. The brothers are guests in a home where they are not welcome by the brother of the sister whom one of the foreigners is trying to marry. The older Russian also desires the sweetheart of the American prother and with complications of that sort there is added a Japanese valet who is in the secret service of Japan. by a clever actor of that nationality. Miss Sweet gives her usual performance and the remainder of the cast is very well selected. Pathe Weekly com pletes the bill for the remainder of the

Used Auto Bargain

That those with cash to purchase automobiles may get almost any kind of a machine, and at any price they desire to pay, can easily be seen by a giance at the classified columns of today's Journal. One bargain that is bound to attract considerable comment, is offering for sale of an electric coupe at the very low price of $600, that formerly sold for $3150. Due to the 1916 announcement of lower prices on practically every line of pleasure car, those desiring to dispose of their used machines have to accept whatever is offered. (Adv.)
