

LIFE OF CHRIST IS THE SUBJECT OF LECTURE AT THE CHAUTAUQUA

Father P. J. MacCorry Holds Attention of Audience With Version of Bible Story.

TOMORROW IS LAST DAY

Willamette University Has Charge of Forum Hour at Morning's Session at Gladstone.

Closing Day—Sunday, July 18. 9:00—Devotional hour. 10:00—Sunday school under direction of Oregon State Sunday School association. 1:00—The Alpine Yodlers, sacred concert. 2:30—Lecture, "If I Had My Life to Live Again," Colonel George W. Bain. 4:00—Grand concert, special soloists from Portland, under the direction of Professor J. H. Cowen; 100 voices, by combined Chautauqua and Rose Festival Chorus; popular "Cherubim Song" from the Church-Russian (Bortnyansky), Chorus; "Vesper Hymn" by Mendelssohn; "Ladies' Voices" "Pierce Was the Wild Willow" (Noble), Chorus; "A Meditation" (Huhn), Men's Voices; "Deep River" (Burleigh); "Again an Evening's Shadow Fall" (Fletcher), Chorus; "King's Prayer," Loheingrin (Wagner), Chorus; "Be Strong" (Wagner), Men's Voices; "With Sheathed Swords," Triumphant March (Costa), Chorus. 7:30—Popular concert, the famous Yodlers. 8:15—Bible Chalk Talk, Evelyn Bargelt.

Gladstone Park, Or., July 17.—An impression was made by the maximum audience last evening by Father P. J. MacCorry in his illustrated lecture, "The Story Beautiful." The life of Christ is the inspiration for Father MacCorry's lecture. The manner in which he told of the trials and tribulations of Christ, ending with his beautiful story of the Crucifixion, left hardly a dry eye in the audience. Colored stereopticon views of the world's best paintings of different incidents in Christ's life were used to illustrate the lecture. Mr. and Mrs. Ruthen McDonald assisted Father MacCorry with appropriate music.

Father MacCorry is a Catholic priest; a paullist of the Catholic church. When at home he is in charge of the cathedral of St. Mary, at Wichita, Kan., an edifice which cost $250,000. He has special permit to say mass in seven different dioceses in the United States. Ruthen McDonald entertained with popular songs both Friday afternoon and evening. Mrs. McDonald accompanied him on the piano.

Willamette Day at Forum. Presidents and ex-presidents of Willamette university were much in evidence this morning at the forum hour. The hour was dedicated to the university and a special program was given. Congressman W. C. Hawley, an ex-president of the institution, spoke on "The Unearned Increment in Human Life." He said all people are the beneficiaries of the unearned increment of the past and asked his listeners to what use they were putting their unearned increment. His lecture was purely educational in nature.

President Carl Doney, recently from West Virginia, spoke for the first time since coming west to take the position at the university. He outlined his work for the first year. Mrs. Helen Miller Senn gave a reading and Viola M. Clark a vocal solo. T. S. McDonald presided over the forum hour.

Number One Is Lucky. "Number One, rightly played, is the only lucky number," said Eugene Baker at the close of a lecture on the principles of luck which attracted the success of any man. "Choose Number One for your number in the game of life, multiply it as many times as you can, use it in every business, and you cannot help but be lucky."

In opening his lecture, Mr. Baker told of the foolish superstitions which most people have, and showed how well satisfied a man might be with his station in life, he was always more or less anxious to take a look into the future. He showed the foolishness of always playing on one's luck and said he would hail the day when the last of superstition fell from the eyes of the people and unshackled their efforts. "The dollar can easily hide a church, if held close enough to the eye," said the lecturer. "Hereditry does not determine success. It only shows where our weaknesses and strength is. It does not determine what any man will be. It is better to have a head to get a pull than to have a pull to get ahead. Success does not come by luck but by hard work, bravely done."

Mrs. McCourt speaks. Mrs. Fannie McCourt, spoke at the civic parliament Friday afternoon on "A Penny Saved Is a Penny Earned."

There are many people attending the daily sessions of the Chautauqua who have been coming every year for 23 years, as a test taken at one of the lectures showed. By a process of elimination, it has shown that a large part of the audience of nearly 5000 which was in the auditorium at the time, had been attending the sessions for twenty years. A down-pour of rain most of yesterday did everything at the park but drive the people away from classes and lectures. If flood, tents and pavilions, prevented the baseball game and caused many to wish they were somewhere else, but they didn't go.

Dr. Dyott Will Speak. Dr. Luther R. Dyott, pastor of the First Congregational church, will preach tomorrow morning on "The New Transformation." His sermon, he says, will be "God's Gospel and Man's Greatness." During the months of July and August, A. Musgrove Roberts will have charge of the music for the church services. His solo Sunday morning will be "The Light of the World," one of Mr. Roberts' own compositions. His solo Sunday evening will be "Jesus, My Saviour, Look on Me" (Nevin). The Bible school meets at the regular hour, 9:45 a. m., these sessions being continued throughout the summer.

Fear Not! Oysters Not Wild; Nor Yet The Gentle Clam

(U. P.) Olympia, Wash., July 17.—Oysters and clams are not wild animals and hence do not come under the game laws of the state of Washington. The only jurisdiction that has over them, therefore, is in prevention of fraud, or violation of the health code. Therefore, Japanese may engage in the business, and the alien law does not apply. This is the gist of an opinion by Attorney General Tamm to Fish Commissioner Darwin.

UNCLE SAM OFFERS FOR SALE 145,000 ACRES IN MONTANA

Washington, July 17.—(U. N. S.)—Approximately 145,000 acres of land, within the former Flathead Indian reservation in Montana will be offered for sale at Kalispell and Missoula, Montana, during August, under regulations announced by Secretary Franklin K. Lane, of the department of the interior. One hundred thousand acres of the land is classified as agricultural land of the first class, as agricultural land of the second class, or as grazing land. It will be sold to the highest bidder, in tracts of 160 acres each or less, for cash, at not less than its appraised value, which ranges from $12 to $7 an acre, but most of it at prices varying from $1.25 to $2. A portion of the land will be offered for sale at Kalispell, August 18, and a portion at Missoula, August 23, 1915. Bids may be made in person or by agent, but will not be received through the mails. The remaining 45,000 acres is classified as barren, burned over and small-wooded land. It will be offered for sale in tracts of 160 acres or less at prices of $1 an acre. This land will be offered for sale at Kalispell, August 18, and the other portion at Missoula, August 25, 1915.

Laurelhurst Enjoys Club's County Fair

Business flourishes at Booths and Jitney Dance Attracts—Will Be Repeated Tonight. All Laurelhurst visited "the county fair" given by the Laurelhurst club on the club grounds last night. From the time the grounds were thrown open to the public in late hours in the evening there was not a chance for a dull moment to interfere with the enjoyment of the 2000 or more that were present. Booths from which anything could be purchased were stationed east of the club house, and the grounds were illuminated by numerous electric jets. A dance in the club house furnished one of the most enjoyable features of the evening. It was on the order of a "jitterbug" and the dancing couple couple just one nickel. Anyone could dance as long as they had nickels. The illumination of the park grounds, club house and the string of automobiles parked on East Burnside street caused a great deal of attraction. As the result of the fair being a success last night it will be held again tonight with more and different attractions. Ruben's band, which furnished music for the evening, will appear again tonight.

Cairns, Toronto, Ont.; directors, Louis Melind, Chicago; William Jenkins, Pittsburgh; C. E. Willard, Chicago; E. C. Buehler, Chicago; Gus D. Messing, St. Paul; treasurer, A. Woodruff, Auburn, N. Y.; auditors, E. Q. Cannon, Salt Lake; E. F. Schmitt, New York; S. S. Bevan, Kansas City.

Charge of Stealing Checks Preferred

Charged with stealing checks from the Eilers Music House, Thomas Deckert, 19 years old, an ex-employee of the music company, was arrested last night by detectives Craddock and Smith. Frank Webber and Jack Mulcare were arrested at the same time and are being held for investigation. They are suspected by the detectives of having stolen automobiles, tires and accessories. The checks alleged to have been stolen from Eilers were those which had been sent in to pay for purchases.

Sent to Jail for Stealing Overcoat

For taking an overcoat belonging to A. E. Finley from Finley's automobile standing in front of the Oregon hotel last night, Henry Miller will spend the next six months in jail. He was sentenced this morning in municipal court following his arrest last night by Captain of Police Cline.

Young Man Kills Self. San Francisco, July 17.—(P. N. S.)—Richard Beggs shot and killed himself today in bed. He was 26 years old, single and out of work. The body is at the morgue.

HIGHWAY PARK IDEA IS KEEPING WITH DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

So Declares Chief Forester Graves Who Addresses the Chamber of Commerce.

GUEST MAKES INSPECTION

Prominent Townsman in Party Making Journey Over the New Columbia River Highway. Establishment of a national park contiguous to the Columbia river highway and extending back around the shoulder of Mount Hood in the national forest is right in line with the policy of the department of the interior, Chief Forester Henry S. Graves explained last night at a little dinner in his honor at the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Graves arrived late yesterday and expects to continue his journey to Alaska.

Today the forester is guest of honor on a trip over the Columbia river highway. The Chamber of Commerce and good roads boosters wish to improve the highway and more than 25 business men, headed by C. C. Colt, president of the chamber, are in the party. The outing is under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and will be enormously enhanced by the establishment of a national park.

Forester Graves will inspect a portion of 14,000 acres of land in the Oregon national forest, which the Chamber of Commerce has asked the department to have set aside forever for recreation purposes. This land is ideal for park purposes, and the highway crosses it in eight places in a distance of 23 miles.

While in Portland the Chamber of Commerce will also take up with Forester Graves the question of the construction of a 20 mile road to connect the Hood River valley and Barlow roads. This would give a highway that would encircle Mount Hood providing, with the Columbia river highway, one of the most beautiful trips by automobile in the world.

Jacob Kansler, chairman of the special committee of the chamber arranging the outing for today, announced a program that will give Forester Graves an excellent idea of the entire Columbia river highway project. With Mr. Kansler, and also present are: Amos S. Benson, T. H. Sherrard and R. S. Shelley.

The party left the Commercial club building at 8 o'clock this morning. They were the guests of Amos S. Benson for breakfast at the Crown Point manse. The party will have a picnic luncheon at Kalispell, and will return to Portland about 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Committee Named To Encourage Trade

Gaylord C. Griffith Appointed President of Hispano-American Society of Oregon. At a meeting Thursday evening of the Hispano-American Society of Oregon, Gaylord C. Griffith, first vice president of the society, was appointed president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of President Hamilton Johnstone from that office.

A proposal to broaden the scope of the society's work was unanimously adopted. The effect that steps be taken to make the society a medium for the interchange of information of commercial interest, as well as to bring about a closer cooperation of the public of the Pacific northwest and the Latin American countries. A committee was appointed to work out the details of the plan of action with that end in view.

100 Minneapolis Rotarians Guests

Portland Rotarians entertained a party of 100 Minneapolis Rotarians on their way to the convention of the International Association of Rotary clubs at San Francisco yesterday afternoon and evening. The visitors left for the Golden Gate this morning on the steamer Great Northern.

Entertainment of the Minnesotans included a ride about the city, dinner at the Benson hotel, and an excursion up the Willamette on the steamer Grahama.

Delegates from Pacific northwest ports reached Portland this morning and were entertained at the Benson for breakfast after which they departed for San Francisco. The convention opens tomorrow with a religious service.

Cools Keels Expert. Marshfield, Or., July 17.—Cools Keels expert, J. H. Smith, was in the city today for a little over a year, and has accomplished big things for the dairymen.

Trip Shows Surplus And Not Deficit

Superintendent Churchill Returns Pleasants to Subscribers to School Children's Field Trip. J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, has issued a complete financial statement of the receipts and expenses of the recent trip to San Francisco of prize winners in the school industrial and agricultural contest. The fund totaled $277, made up of $100 from the National Oregon Conservation Commission, $100 from Douglas Fir Sales company, $25 from Portland Flouring Mills company, $100 from Clearing House Association, $100 from Marshall-Wells Hardware company, $25 from Oregon Journal, $100 from Union West company, $100 from Portland Union Stock Yards company, $100 from Meler & Frank company, $100 from Portland Implement & Vehicle club, $100 from Ballou's, Guthrie & Co., $25. The disbursements were $284.95. The remarkable thing about the report is that there was no deficit.

VACATION READING LITERATURE NOW IN DEMAND AT LIBRARY

Books on Mountain Climbing Popular; New Works Have Been Added to Lists. Books for vacation reading are in popular demand at the library. Adventure, mountain climbing and hunting are favorite subjects.

The library is well supplied with copies of Euripides' "Trojan Women," translated by Gilbert Murray, the peace play over 2000 years old, which the Chicago Little Theatre company presents at the Heilig this week.

Another useful volume added to the reference department is a Short Story of the world, which was compiled and edited by the late Mrs. E. S. Benson, T. H. Sherrard and R. S. Shelley.

A new publication of the geological survey, of interest to the people in this vicinity, is "Water Supply Paper No. 363," just added to the reference department. It deals with the quality of the surface waters of Oregon. This covers not only the purity of the water for drinking purposes, but also its use for irrigation, power generation and other industrial work.

Another useful volume added to the reference department is a Short Story of the world, which was compiled and edited by the late Mrs. E. S. Benson, T. H. Sherrard and R. S. Shelley.

A collection of study programs gathered from all parts of the United States is in the library. The library aims to give the bibliographical assistance asked for.

Clubs considering programs for next winter's work will find the small committee rooms in the library convenient for their use. The cooperation of the library is desired. Miss Rhoades of the reference department, will be glad to give the assistance possible.

Hill's Salmon Party Costs Over $100,000

St. Paul Friends Enjoy Fish From Labrador Waters, Caught on Railroad Magnate's Annual Cruise. Fabulously expensive salmon were served in the homes of several prominent St. Paul people last Tuesday, but few of those who partook of the fish realized the reason. The salmon were served by James J. Hill to friends, from Labrador.

According to associates of Mr. Hill he figures his fishing party cost him about $108,000, and while the number of salmon caught is never made public, it is believed that the party cost him a high figure, even though the "haul" was a big one.

SEWARD LOTS SELL FAST

Seward, Alaska, July 17.—(P. N. S.)—Four hundred and fifty lots, which brought a total of $123,000 have been sold at auction by the government at the Seward Alaska land office. The lots were sold by A. Christenson, chief of the Alaska field division of the interior department, who conducted the sale. Preparations for the building of a coal dock slip at Anchorage are being made by the Alaskan Engineering commission.

Visiting Minister in Pulpit. The Rev. Sam J. Chaney, pastor of Immanuel Methodist Episcopal church, Boise, Idaho, one of the leading preachers of the denomination, is to preach at Centenary Methodist church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. He will be in town on his vacation and is in Portland only for a day or two, and Centenary church is fortunate to have secured his services.

JOINT CONCILIATION SYSTEM ADOPTED BY CENTRAL LABOR BODY

Only One Dissenting Vote is Filed Against Agreement With Commerce Chamber, MEETINGS TO BE PUBLIC

Articles Call for Board of Ten Persons Who Will Advise and Conciliate in Cases. The Central Labor Council adopted last night the articles establishing the Joint Conciliation Board of the Portland Chamber of Commerce and the Portland Central Labor Council. The adoption was by a rising vote and with the single exception of the representative of the Sailors, Jack Rosen, everybody stood up.

The president of the Central Labor Council explained as chairman of the conciliation board will be formed and proceed to business. "It is one of the most important steps that organized labor in Portland has ever taken," he said. He explained the provisions before calling for a vote. The articles of agreement provide for a board of ten, five from the Chamber of Commerce and five from the Central Labor Council.

Meetings Open to Public. Any industrial dispute will be settled by a special board made up of the Chamber of Commerce and the Central Labor Council. The board will not be authorized to make any award, but to hear, advise and conciliate. Its findings will be made public.

Chairman Smith Explains. Chairman Smith stated that in a conference with the theatre managers recently, he had made no requests for a concession, but had merely pointed out some matters of interest, given advice and made a few mild suggestions. When he was told by the managers that they were tired of negotiating for nine weeks and getting nowhere, he said he replied that he would do it frequently had to do that for months and years, and get nowhere either.

The matter of the Chamber of Commerce passing a resolution recently asking President Wilson to use his best efforts to secure a repeal of the La Follette or seamen's law was reported by the committee, which asked for further time, on the ground that the Sailors' Union of the Pacific Coast would meet in San Francisco July 22, and was expected to start a campaign of education on the subject. The committee was instructed to proceed with its work of drawing up resolutions of indorsement of the bill.

Jitney Men Want Help. The Jitney Drivers' Union gave notice that the Central Labor council would be asked to help financially the lawsuit against the jitney ordinance, if it became necessary to carry the matter to the United States courts.

A difference between the proprietors of a large bakery and the Steam Engineers was referred to the executive committee with power to act. The committee was informed that the proprietors demanded that demands had come in from various parts of the state for copies of the people's land and loan measure proposed and that a plan for a campaign of education would be presented as soon as formulated.

Oregon Land Grant Case. The legislative committee was requested to bring in a resolution concerning the Oregon & California land grant.

A. W. Jones, chairman of the picnic committee for the outing at Crystal lake, August 15, reported several hundred tickets sold the past week. Nominations for officers were declared to be open next Friday night, and election will be held on Friday, July 30.

The committee concerning the appointment of a representative of labor by Mayor Albee on the civil service board reported that his honor had assured it of his distinguished consideration.

1914 Good Year For Oregon Coal

Production of 51,556 Tons Shows Increase of 5425 Tons Over Output of 1913; Largest Since 1910. In 1914 Oregon produced 51,556 tons of coal, valued at $148,556, an increase, according to statement of the United States geological survey prepared in cooperation with the Oregon bureau of mines and geology, of 5425 tons over the output of 1913, and the largest production in the state since 1910.

Coal production has never been one of the important industries of Oregon, and during the last few years has been of less importance than formerly because of the large increase in the production of petroleum in California and in its use as fuel. Before the advent of the liquid fuel considerable quantities of Oregon coal were shipped to San Francisco, where it served to some extent as a moderator of prices, particularly for domestic fuel. In only four years has the production exceeded 100,000 tons, and in each of the three years preceding 1914 it was below 50,000 tons.

Team Will Conduct Services. Evening service at Fourth Presbyterian church tomorrow will be conducted by the Y. M. C. A. gospel team.

Gustav Andreen, president of Augustana College and Theological Seminary, Rock Island, Ill., will arrive here tonight and will speak at the Immanuel Lutheran church, Nineteenth and Irving, tomorrow.
