SCHOOL ATHLETES TO LAND ALL-AMERICAN

Carl Johnson, Evan Pearson and Reg Bullivant Entitled to Highest Recognition.

By George Bertz. Three Northwestern and four California scholastic track and field stars should be named on the All-American interscholastic Athletic team this year, This is the opinion of the writer, chairman of the records committee of the Pacific Northwest association of the Amateur Athletic union.

son, and, in fact, ever since he kicked his way into the big show, the lanky Weilman has beaten the Tigers con-sistently. A short time ago he beat them twice in the same series, and that was all that was needed to convince the Detroiters that he is their jinx. Yet Weilman will go up against a weak hitting club like either Washington or Cleveland and they'll knock his brains out, Cobb Crawford, Veach, Bush and the rest of that famed wrecking crew look like bushers against the tean Brown, while some rookie will go ap and plant the ball over the fence. archives of baseball history, it is seen that there have been many jinxes. It will be remembered that for a long time the Cincinnati Reds couldn't beat Mathewson. Of course, there were a lot of other clubs in the same fix, but they did manage to sneal: a game from the Old Master now and then, but the

Alcase a little more recent is that of A. Rankin Johnson, who beat the Washington club, Walter Johnson up, every time he worked against it. Rankin wasn't a wonderful pitcher, he was just average, if that and after he leaped to the Feds he had a lot of difficulty in winning games. But he had Clarke Griffith's goat, Tom Hughes, the old Washington pitcher, now with Los Angeles, cast the same sort of spell over Cleveland. When Tom was in his prime, Washington never was out of the cellar. About all the games the Senators won were due to his prowess. He didn't look so good against other clubs, but Cleveland had no chance at all.

Eddie Summers, the old Tiger star, nade the Athletics eat out of his hand during his sojourn in the American league. One day, the last season he had, he beat them a double-header and Connie Mack heaved a sigh of relief when Summers hit the toboggan the next season.
