

RUSSIA FAILS TO STEM FOE AT HER GATE

Reports That Main Russian Armies Are Preparing to Evacuate Warsaw, Novo Georgievsk, Ivangorod and Lublin Come From Posen.

CAMPAIGN IS GREATEST ONE IN ALL OF HISTORY

Germans Move on Warsaw From North and South, Advance Up Coast to Take Riga and Plan Envelopment of Entire Slav Army.

Chicago, July 20.—(I. N. S.)—The following cablegram was received here this afternoon by the Chicago Daily News from Moscow: "That Warsaw is about to be evacuated is shown by the arrival of many refugees from Warsaw, including a large party of English under leadership of Consul Grove."

Berlin, via London, July 20.—(U. P.)—Capture of the fortifications of Ostrolenka, about 60 miles north of Warsaw, and further gains to the south of the Polish capital, were announced in a late statement from the war office this afternoon. The Ostrolenka fortifications were occupied without resistance, the statement declared, and the German troops are preparing to enter the city. Ostrolenka formed part of the Russian defenses along the Nerw river.

In the southeastern theatre, 9000 more prisoners have been taken, it was stated.

Petrograd, July 20.—(I. N. S.)—Reports from Berlin that the Russians were evacuating Warsaw were denied in an official report issued by the war office tonight. It said the Russians were not abandoning the city and that they must overcome six lines of defenses before striking.

German Army Headquarters, Posen, via Berlin and Amsterdam, July 20.—(I. N. S.)—Russia's main forces in Warsaw, Novo Georgievsk, Ivangorod and Lublin are reported evacuating those cities, leaving behind only sufficient troops to protect the retreat of the second fortified line of defense. General von Hindenburg's drive from the north is threatening the principal lines of communication between Warsaw and Petrograd. A German army is only 30 miles from Riga and General von Mackensen's force is less than 10 miles from Lublin.

EUROPE STAGGERED BY GERMAN PLAN TO WIN SUDDEN VICTORY

London, July 20.—(U. P.)—The most stupendous campaign since the time of Alexander the Great is now not only threatening Warsaw but contemplating the envelopment of the chief Russian field armies.

Communications from the war office in Berlin and Petrograd today revealed the vast extent of the German operations on the eastern front in such a way as fairly to stagger military critics.

The daring stroke of the Kaiser, a coup to release the great eastern armies of operations against the French and the British in France and Flanders has amazed England. With General von Hindenburg and Field Marshal von Hindenburg and von Mackensen closing in upon Warsaw from opposite directions, it is now evident that the Kaiser is making a daring attempt to capture Riga, the rich Baltic seaport and the Polish capital simultaneously.

WOMAN'S CHARM ALL ABOVE THE CHIN, SAYS PURIST AT CONGRESS

Not Until Men Realize This Will Their Ideals Be True, Rev. Albion Smith Asserts.

San Francisco, July 20.—(P. N. S.)—"When men begin to realize that womanhood's greatest charm is located above her chin, only then will our ideals be true." This was one of a score or more of similar remarks made today by the Rev. Albion Smith, author and lecturer of Madison, Wis., in an address before the International Purist congress, which is being held under the auspices of the exposition in the civic auditorium by such eminent purists as Anthony Comstock. Rev. Smith chose for his address the subject "Spirit Rule Versus Animal Rule for Men and Women." "Our ideals must be renovated," said the Wisconsin divine. "Gawgaws and jewels have no more place on woman than on man. Woman even less than man needs special attention to beauty." "Beautiful gowns and hats, so-called, only detract from a woman's real charms. "The milliner, the dressmaker and the man tailor rule women at the present time. "Extravagant clothing, palatial residences and sumptuous food are the fatal mistakes of the age. "When men begin to realize that womanhood's greatest charm is located above her chin, only then will our ideals be true." The white slave traffic, social hygiene and the sex problem will be discussed every day until the session closes, next Saturday.

Ex-President Himself Is Not Telling What He Intends to Do in 1916.

Is Colonel Roosevelt planning to recapture the G. O. P. elephant, buckle a Progressive howdah on its shaky old back, and ride to victory as the Republican presidential nominee in 1916? The colonel isn't saying. But those who have some insight into his psychology, and who have been analyzing his words and actions—particularly his actions—since he started his trip down the Pacific coast, believe he is planning to lead a party of Progressives, as the only means of overcoming the present ascendancy of what he calls the "mollycoddle." The colonel talked a great deal of mollycoddles all along the way from Seattle to Portland, and at Portland, yesterday afternoon during his 20 minutes' stay.
