

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 8, 1915.

ROGER PECKINPAUGH AND JOHNNY LEVAN IN LEAD IN DOUBLE PLAY

Former Portlander Now With
New York Yankees May Surpass Maranville Record.

BUCK HERZOG IS NEXT

Dave Bancroft Has Started an Even Twenty That Two-Ply Kills for Phillies and Is in Running.

Walter Maranville, of the Braves, will have to hustle if he again intends to lead the major league in starting double plays, writes Ernest J. Lanigan.
Last season the Rabbit set a new record by making the initial move in 58 duplex killings, all prior performances being knocked into infinitesimal smithereens.

The mystic words "Maranville to Evers to Schmidt" haven't appeared in the summaries of the box scores as frequently this season as last, one reason of course, being the long absence of Trojan Johnny Evers from the Braves' lineup. Now that the K. K. again is playing regularly, the probabilities are that Springfield, Mass.'s notable contribution to the list of baseball heroes will get busy and go out and overhaul the able athletes who at present stand credited with having instituted more double plays than he has.

Four Pass Quarter Mark.
Said able athletes are Shortstops Roger Peckinpaugh, of the Yankees, John Lavan, of the Browns, and Charles Herzog, of the Reds, these men and the Rabbit being the only pastime-ers who have passed the quarter century mark in starting two-ply killings.
The two American leaguers each have put 20 in motion, the leader of the Reds has made the first move in 23, and the private of the Braves follows along with 27. An oddity regarding the double plays manufactured by the world champions this year is that up to Wednesday not one had been started by Evers.

Thus far this season nine players have instituted 20 or more double killings, the other men being Arthur Fletcher, of the Giants, and David James Bancroft, of the Phillies, shortstops, and Bert Niehoff, of the Phillies.

FAVORITE IN BIG
MARATHON SWIM

Norman Ross, the star Multnomah club swimmer, who is the favorite for the three-mile swimming event in the Willamette river next Saturday. Ross competed in the swimming championship at San Francisco, getting fourth place in the quarter mile event.

Larry Doyle of the Giants, and Derrill Pratt of the Browns, second basemen.
Fletcher has started 23, Niehoff 21 (a good showing for a man who has been transformed into a second baseman in a year's time), and Pratt, Doyle and Bancroft 19.

Rickey's Boys Go Well

Rickey's two high-brows have between them started 50 double plays.
Other swift-moving combinations at the middle of the infield are Peckin-paugh and Boone of the Yanks and Fletcher and Doyle of the Giants. They each have pulled 14 dual slaughters on the opposition, Bancroft and Niehoff of the Phillies take credit for having started 12 double plays; Maranville and Fitzpatrick of the Braves for 11; O'Mara and Bushaw of the Superbas for 8; Herzog and Olson of the Reds for 7; Fisher and Zimmerman of the Cubs for 6; Weaver and Collins of the White Sox for 5; and O'Mara and Bushaw of the Superbas for 4; Bridle and Morgan of the Senators for 3; Scott and Wagner of the Red Sox for 2; and Chapman and Hammond of the Indians for 1.

Groh and Austin at Top.
Best of the third sackers at starting double plays this year are Heinie Groh of the Reds and Jimmy Austin of the Browns. Each westerner has put 18 in motion. Zim Beak, of the Cards, and Walter Barbare of the Indians have each made the first move in 10, and Douglas Baird of the Pirates has taken the initiative in nine. Beak, Baird and Barbare have not played regularly at the hot corner this season, else their records in double plays might be just as good as Austin's and Groh's.

Of the first basemen, Jack Miller of the Cardinals is the pace-setter in dual killings, with six to his credit. Fred Luderus of the Phils has started four and so have Arroyo, Grand of the Washingtons and Anthony Brief, who was with the White Sox, and who now is with Salt Lake. Vic Saler of the Cubs has instituted three two-ply retirements, and, incidentally, in each one of these he played a lone hand.
Twenty-nine unassisted double plays have cropped up thus far this year.
Saler, as told, taking credit for three of these tricks. "Doc" Johnson of the Pirates and Jack Miller of the Cardinals Elmer Smith of the Indians, Pete Daley of the Yanks have taken flies while on the dead run and then kept on springing and added to their putout records by stepping on the base runners had vacated. This is the list of unassisted double plays:

- First Basemen.
Saler, Cubs, 3; Johnson, Pirates, 3; Miller, Cardinals, 2; Superior, 2; Bellwits, Reds, 1; Brainerd, Giants, 1; Luderus, Phillies, 1; Gainer, Red Sox, 1; Lajoie, White Elephants, 1; Pratt, Browns, 1.
- Third Basemen.
Groh, Reds, 18; Smith, Braves, 1; Maisei, Yankees, 1.
- Shortstops.
Herzog, Reds, 2; Bancroft, Phillies, 1.
- Outfielders.
Smith, Indians, 1; Daly, Yankees, 1.
These are the five best men on each club in the National and American leagues at starting double plays:
- American League.
Boston—Scott, 10; Wagner, 5; Hooper, 5; Janvry, 4; McNally, 4.
Chicago—Wagner, 12; Collins, 11;
Brief, 4; Breton, 3; Blackburne, 3; Cleveland—Chapman, 11; Barbare, 10; Wangbanss, 6; O'Neill, 3; Hammond, 2.
Detroit—Bush, 13; Young, 10; Vitt, 4; Kavanagh, 4; Cobb, 4.
New York—Peckinpaugh, 30; Boone, 13; Maisei, 10; Bauer, 8; Barry, 8; Philadelphia—Kopf, 16; Barry, 13; Lajoie, 9; Lapp, 6; Strunk, 6.
St. Louis—Lavan, 30; Pratt, 20; Austin, 18; Agnew, 5; Hamilton, 2; Washington—Foster, 11; McBride, 10; Morgan, 7; Moeller, 5; Johnson, 4.
- National League.
Boston—Maranville, 27; Fitzpatrick, 10; Smith, 7; Egan, 4; Magee, 3.
Brooklyn—O'Mara, 19; Cuthaw, 17; Getz, 6; Myers, 6; Archer, 3.
Chicago—Fisher, 17; Zimmerman, 11; Pflan, 6; Saler, 3; Archer, 3.
Cincinnati—Herzog, 28; Groh, 20; Olson, 9; Rodgers, 4; Dale, 4.
New York—Fletcher, 23; Doyle, 20; Brainerd, 7; Meyers, 6; Tesreau, 4.
Philadelphia—Niehoff, 23; Bancroft, 20; Luderus, 4; Byrne, 4; Killefer, 2.
Pittsburg—Wagner, 17; Baird, 10; Viox, 9; Johnson, 5; Adams, 4.
St. Louis—Beck, 10; Miller, 8; Huggins, 9; Betzel, 5.

Here's a Good Idea For McCrede and Kindred Managers

New York, Aug. 7.—Some of the big league clubs, who are in a hitting slump, might imitate the experiment made with wonderful results a few years ago by a minor league manager.
Alexander Pearson is the manager under discussion. He was handling the Uniontown (Pa.) and the team was doing everything but winning ball games. Pearson shifted his batting order a half dozen times in the hope that the change would lift the team out of a batting slump. But to no avail.
Whereupon, Pearson put the names of all his players on a slip of paper and deposited them in a hat. Then he withdrew them for batting position, the first name withdrawn being the lead off batsman, the second name to bat second and so on. On the club, with its jugged lineup, won the game that day and followed it with 17 more victories, all in a row.
Will Turn Professional.
Johnny Gallagher, who finished seventh in the Stockholm Marathon race, will, it is reported, make his debut as a professional at the Philadelphia Caledonian Games on Saturday, August 7. He will run in the 5-mile race.

British Are Taking
Credit for Mile Run

A. B. George, brother of the illustrious W. G. George, and one of the best known British athletic critics, has been heard from in England regarding the great nine mile run of Norman Taber, the former Brown University athlete who recently covered the distance in 41:23.5, bettering the former record of W. G. George by 3-20 of a second. According to George it was not altogether unexpected that Taber would shade his brothers' world's figures for the distance.

George hints that British conditions and training had much to do with Taber's come back. Taber has been a student for several years at Oxford University, England having been a Rhodes scholar.
