LEFTY DECANNIERE PLASTERS A WHITISH COAT ON BEAVERS

Whenever Vernon Southpaw Is in Danger Mates Spring Double Play That Counts,

M'CREDIE SHIFTS INFIELD

Bates Goes to Pirst and Davis to Third But Bobbles by Hillyard and Coveleskie Allow Buns.

Manager McCredie played a new trick on the Vernon Tigers yesterday but it didn't go. He shoved Bates over to first and put Bobby Davis on third, but still the Portland outfit couldn't win. Lefty Decanniere mowed them down like so much chaff, and when the left handed party was in trouble, why, his mates would press the button and out would pop a double play.

The three Vernon runs were made in one inning and if Coveleskie hadn't butted into a play being pulled off between Hillyard and Carisch, only one run would have been made by the southerners. However, Coveleskie might have contented himself with messing up a dozen such plays for all the good it would have done him. The only time the locals could hit Decanniere was in the third. fourth and fifth, when they amassed their total of six wallops.

McCredle sent Derrick in to bat for Coveleskie in the ninth, but Fred was a failure and Rube Evans pitched the last inning, allowing one hit to Decanniere and three archouts.

With one out in the fourth, Wilholt hit a scorcher through shortstop, Purtell followed with a drive to the same place. Gleichmann lofted to Hillyard and then Berger busted one to center. The innocent little pellet to center. The innocent little pellet became lost in the maze of Hillyard's big feat and Wilholt cut loose for perfectly into Carisch's waiting paws, but Coveleskie leaped into the air, and deflected the bulb yet further into the circumambient ether. It was slowed up too much and although it dropped into Carlsch's hands the slight delay allowed Purtell to score. Berger, while this was going on, galloped around to third, and it was an easy matter for him to score when the sylphlike T. Spencer soused the agate against the right field wall. Pubby never got farther than first for Coveleskie put some swift on the ball and fanned Decanniere.

plate in the third inning by a perfect of these four has appeared.

Peg to Spencer with two on and one Tyler will meet the stiffest opposilined into a double play and in the fifth Coveleskie dld the same thing. After that only one man. Stumpf on a walk in the seventh, reached first.

When Davis' name was left off the national rating list, considerable surprise was expressed on the part of western golfers, inasmuch as he had just won the Panama-Pacific amateur championship, and had finished well up in the open event, which was won by Walter C.
