Washington Senator Says He Will Seek Election of Progressive Republicans,

CONFERS WITH "TEDDY"

Purpose of Waging Campaign Against the Reactionaries Is Stated at Spokane,

Spokane, Aug. 12 .- (P. N. S.) -- Senator Miles Poindexter, after a trip over the western part of the state during which he conferred with Colonel Theodore Roosevelt at Seattle, today Jeclared his belief that the Republican party, if united, is overwhelmingly rogressive and asserted that he would dhere to his purpose to bring together the Progressive forces in an effort to defeat the reactionary element in the Republican ranks.

The division of the Progressives between the Republican and Progressive organizations," said Senator Poin-dexter, "has left the reactionary element of the Republican party in control in this state." Senator Poindexter declared he ward an attempt to bring about the Prairie, with a traction engine and Prominent G. A. R. clover huller, the engineer, Herman Prominent G. A. R. Bernhardt, had a narow escape. Some of the gearing of the engine gave way, causing the engineer to lose control of the engine, which toppled over a seven foot embankment, carrying the huller with it. Bernhardt escaped with a few bruises and a sprained ankle.

Society to Publish J. B. Adams' Poems

Pormer Residents of Colorado Would Who Is Now Here.

The Colorado Society of Oregon is It will issue a volume of the poems this city. f James Barton Adams, Colorado's poet, who is now living in retire- negie hero medal, which was awarded ment at Vancouver.

This was decided by resolution at the annual picnic of the society at War Reminiscences, now running in the Oaks last night, at which Mr. the Western New York Post, and will Adams was the guest of honor. Although Mr. 'Adams' poems, as papers. clipped from newspapers, are in scrapbooks up and down the land, a volume of his verses has never been something that will "fill a long felt want," but that will be a memorial to the well beloved author. Mr. Adams spoke briefly last night, Congressman Hill as did Mark Woodruff, Shad Krants, Joe Hunn, Professor Garvin and others.
