

'BRIDES OF THE BATH' MURDERER IS HANGED AT DAWN IN LONDON

George J. Smith, Who Killed Three of Six Wives, Pays Penalty.

CONFESSION IS RUMORED

Took Lives of Women After They Had Been Insured in His Favor—Met Death Stoolily.

London, Aug. 12.—(U. P.)—George Joseph Smith, the "bath-tub murderer," was hanged today for the killing of Beatrice Mundy, whom he drowned in a bathtub. It was rumored that Smith confessed to Scotland Yard operatives before going to his death, but this was without confirmation.

The little rat-eyed man, who was charged with having taken six wives within a few years and drowning three of them in bathtubs in order to get their fortunes and insurance which had been taken out in his favor, walked to the scaffold stoically, flanked by guards. He only shook his head impatiently when asked if he had anything to say before the noose was adjusted. Smith was pronounced dead eight minutes after the trap was sprung.

Scotland Yard gave out a detailed record of Smith from the time of his birth, 42 years ago. According to this record, while a boy, he stole a bicycle and was sent to a reformatory. Upon emerging from prison he systematically married seven women and swindled them. His first wife, it was stated, he eloped with, then deserted her, tying her to the floor for several days. He also induced his mistress to become a domestic and rob her employers for him.

A great crowd gathered outside Maidstone at dawn in anticipation of the hanging of Smith, but only those legally entitled to witness the execution were admitted.

The arrest and trial of Smith in what was known as the "brides of the bath" case attracted great attention in England despite the war.

Given Liberty After Holding Up Steamer

Frank Reinosky, With Shotgun, Demands $450 From Purser of Yukon; Tried for Insanity and Acquitted.

Fairbanks, Alaska, Aug. 13.—(P. N. S.)—Despite the fact that he held up the steamer Yukon while Governor J. P. A. Strong and party were on board and compelled the purser of the boat, at the point of a shotgun, to write him a check for $450, Frank Reinosky, a woodcutter, is at liberty today and will not be punished for his action.

Reinosky halted the Yukon as she was steaming up the Yukon river, compelled the captain to point the boat's nose toward the shore and demanded a check for $450. He claimed this amount was due him because the installation of oil burner in the vessel had damaged him to that extent. A jury before which he was tried on an insanity charge acquitted him.

Australian Students Here.

Or, Aug. 13.—Thirty-three Australian students, who are making a tour of the world, arrived here yesterday afternoon and were welcomed by Governor Withycombe. Then they were taken by the Salem Chieftains on an auto tour of the city and vicinity. Last evening they staged aquatic stunts in the Willamette river and this evening they will give an entertainment in the Grand theatre.

Los Angeles Plans To Greet "Middies"

Boys From Annapolis, Aboard Battleships Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin, Have Good Time Ahead; Sail in Honor.

Los Angeles, Aug. 13.—(U. P.)—Arrangements were completed today for the entertainment of the Annapolis naval academy midshipmen who arrive here Monday on their annual cruise. When the battleships Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin steam into the harbor, General Robert Wankowski will head the delegation which will pay its respects to Admiral William F. Fullam. Following this, 500 enlisted men will be taken to Universal City on special cars, there to be entertained with a barbecue. The middies are to go motoring through Los Angeles and suburbs. In the evening there will be a naval ball at Shrine auditorium, preceded by an electrical street parade down town.

Salem Man Hurt.

Salem, Or., Aug. 13.—S. F. Anderson, proprietor of the Great Western garage, was painfully cut and bruised when an automobile driven by Dr. W. H. Byrd struck a post as it entered the garage and knocked it over on Anderson, who was sitting in a chair. The car also struck Anderson.

Montana Delegates Named.

Salem, Or., Aug. 13.—Following delegates have been appointed by Governor Stewart of Montana to attend the water power conference of western states to be held in Portland September 21, 22 and 23: United States Senators Myers and Walsh; J. B. Collins, Miles City; Sam D. Goza, Helena; and J. E. Erickson, Kalispell.

Woman Leaps Into Sea and Drowns

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 13.—(U. P.)—Mrs. Carrie Elizabeth Jenks, believed to have been the divorced wife of F. W. Jenks, Elgin, Ill., racetrack manager, threw herself into the sea at Coronado late Wednesday while temporarily insane, according to officials who have investigated the case today. An inquest was to be held late today. The theory of possible foul play was done away with today with the discovery of the dead woman's pocketbook on the beach at Coronado. Relatives and friends here say that she had been extremely nervous recently, and was subject to periods of mental depression.

Mrs. Gus Myers Jr., a distant relative of Mrs. Jenks, declared today that she didn't believe the woman committed suicide, but that she became ill and wandered into the water.

Mrs. Jenks had been in poor health for some time.
