Manager Campbell Explains That Company Is Ready to Do the Right Thing.

STATION SITE IS SECURED

Explained That Cars Will Be Eun is Manner Desired by Public.

Corvallis, Or., Aug. 26. - General Manager D. W. Campbell of the Southern Pacific Railway company, and the local city council have reached a tentative basis for the franchise sought cars on certain public streets.

"The Southern Pacific company is ready to do whattver is proper whenever the city council and property owners signify what they want done," said Mr. Campbell concerning one feature of the negotiations.

would have to remove its rails and tear up the old track on that street, and also that the trackage of the will be sent to Norfolk for trial.

neer, Mr. Lull, to do both things as soon as possible. Property owners on Jackson street present at the session questioned Mr Campbell on the policy of the company if granted the franchise as recommended by the committee. Mr. Campbell explained that only passenger cars would be operated over the line on Jackson, and that stops would be made at the points where turns will occur, allowing passengers to board and leave the cars at places most convenient to their homes. He suggested that this feature be incorporated in the franchise. The Jackson street property owners have asked that some other street be named in the franchise, and it may be that Harrison will be substituted. Grounds for the passenger station have been secured by option on Sixth street, between Madison and Monroe.

"Birth of a Mation" to Be Feature at the Heilig, Portraying Reconstruction Days Following Civil War, The board of moving picture cen-fors unanimously decided last night that "The Birth of a Nation" may be shown in Portland. It will be shown at the Heilig. Protest against showing the film, Tillamook, Or., Aug. 26.—Tillamook which is founded on Thomas Dixon's ounty fair opened Tuesday with a "The Clansman," was made both by the G. A. . R. and by representative colored people of Portland. Their position was that the portrayal of the terrible reconstruction days in the south following the Civil war might renew race hatred and prejudice and open old sores. The board of censors asked for three minor eliminations, but in genera took the position that the play is historically faithful; that while it shows horrors of war and conditions following war, it has not departed from the tables, the greatest attraction to the facts nor over-portrayed the dread of secret service men and agents of farmer is the stock exhibit. More experienced by every southern woman. "I can readily understand that educated colored people feel ashamed of the members of their race that had to following the war, but they can feel
