

BRITISH STEAMSHIP DECKHANDS HERE FOR CARGO OF GRAIN

Vessel Is Expected to Be Ready to Load Wheat by Next Wednesday.

FRENCH BARK IS LOADED

French Bark Le Pillier Is Also Being Loaded at Mersey Dock; Navajo Due Monday Night.

Swelling the grain tonnage in port the British steamer Beckenham, Captain Gow, reached the river at 8 o'clock this morning, 17 days from Cristobal, to load wheat for M. H. Houser.

Although she reached the Columbia today, the steamer Navajo, Captain H. H. Houser, is discharging her ballast at Linton.

The French bark Norm, laden with grain for Sydney for Balfour, Guthrie & Co., was pulled into the stream by the steamer Navajo this morning, but no time has been set for her departure.

Of the other grain ships in port the French bark Duplex is discharging ballast at the dock, the North Pacific Lumber company and the French bark Le Pillier is being loaded at Mersey dock.

Bringing 600 tons of New York freight, the steamer Navajo, Captain W. R. Grace & Co. left San Francisco for Portland at 3 o'clock this morning. She is due to reach the local harbor Monday night.

Another steamer arrived for Mr. Houser early this afternoon in the Norwegian steamer Strinda, 22 days from Nagasaki. The Strinda will go on the Oregon tomorrow morning, discharging after reaching the local harbor. She is taken to load wheat for the United Kingdom at 92 shillings sixpence.

PASSENGERS VIEW REGATTA

Beaver to Be in Astoria During Marine Sports.

Passengers on the "Big Three" liner Beaver, which left down shortly after 9 o'clock this morning for San Francisco, were rejoicing that they were to see part of the Astoria regatta during the steamer's layover of an hour or so at that port.

The Beaver carried 320 passengers and 2300 tons of freight. Among her passengers were H. W. Houser, Portland advertising man, Aaron Harris, assistant secretary of the Elks, Mrs. H. T. Groves, wife of the superintendent of dredges for the Port of Portland commission, Miss M. Dunn, Mrs. M. A. Eckler and Carl Frehn, engineer of the Portland harbor patrol.

Somewhat delayed in coming up the coast, the steamer Beaver will reach Astoria dock about 11 o'clock tonight. She brings 200 passengers and a light cargo.

TO BE SENT FOR NITRATES

Eureka to Make Extra Voyage Down the West Coast.

In order to spread the time between the sailings of the steamers Eureka and Tampico, of the Oregon-California shipping company, the Eureka is to be sent to the west coast for nitrates after discharging her cargo here, according to an announcement by Manager H. M. Williams this morning.

The steamer Tampico, sailing from Philadelphia for San Francisco and Portland by way of the Panama canal yesterday afternoon at 4:35 o'clock, will stop at Eureka, where she will bring 500 tons of nitrate and Philadelphia freight to Portland.

It is expected that the Eureka will reach Philadelphia Tuesday, and that she will depart for that port for this coast about September 10.

The Tampico will discharge her cargo at multiple dock No. 1 and will proceed to Wauna, where lumber for Sudden & Christian will be discharged. It is expected she will reach Portland by October 2.

ALL ALONG THE WATERFRONT

Bar buoy No. 5, Peacock split, has been reported missing to Robert Warlock, inspector for this lighthouse district. It will be replaced as soon as possible. Mr. Warlock was back at his desk this morning after a week's vacation at the beach.

Mrs. C. E. Shaver, niece of Captain J. W. Shaver of the Shaver Transportation company, was a passenger on the steamer Beaver for San Francisco this morning.

The McCormick steamer Klamath was sighted to Rainier to load lumber last night. Polhemus, assistant engineer in the United States engineer office for the first Oregon district, returned this morning from a vacation spent at Newport, Wash.

After discharging her cargo of 400 tons of asphaltum, 100 tons of canned goods and merchandise at Couch street dock, the McCormick steamer Multnomah will load 300,000 feet of mining timbers and 400,000 feet of Oregon pine for San Pedro. The Klamath of the same fleet will take 1,000,000 feet to San Pedro, leaving tomorrow with a good passenger list.

The salmon ship Berlin, Captain Lortzen, has entered at the customs house with 40,117 cases of salmon in one-pound cans, valued at $20,613.82, and 2548 cases containing half pound cans, valued at $10,348.60. The Berlin reached port early yesterday morning and was brought inside by the Port of Portland tug Association. The St. Nicholas, owned by the Columbia River Packers' association of Astoria, was picked up outside at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, leaving one more Columbia river salmon ship, the Alliance, to be heard from.

Change in Masters.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—Captain Fred M. Johnson has replaced Harry D. Clark as master of the steamer Cleone.

Plans have been authorized for a new government tug for use by the second Oregon engineering district. It is the intention of the government to

GREATEST NEED IS PREPAREDNESS FOR WAR, LANE DECLARES

Senator Speaking Before Jackson Club Says United States Helpless.

LARGE ARMY IS OPPOSED

Oregon Lawmaker Believes More Boys Should Be Trained in Use of Arms Than at Present, However.

Senator Harry Lane, in an informal talk before the Jackson club last night declared there was the greatest need for this nation to add to its preparation for national defense, both in the way of increasing our naval forces and adding to the number of men who are trained for war.

"We would be helpless if the conqueror in the European war chose to attack the United States," Lane said, "not even repel the attack of a little nation that was equipped with any kind of a fighting force. They could land on our shores and exact tribute, or do as they pleased with our property."

He said something must be done to strengthen the nation's defenses, and while he did not favor a large standing army, he did favor a large reserve army of the country trained in the use of arms so they would be ready if a call should ever come for their services.

Mr. Miller R. Turnbull, secretary of the child labor commission, spoke on child labor conditions.

Der. Esther Pohl-Lovejoy presided.

County Teachers' Institute Closed

Discussions and Inspirational Talks Prove Highly Beneficial to Those in Attendance.

The Multnomah County Teachers' Institute closed yesterday afternoon with a session in which teachers and school officers discussed intimately their common problems. The idea of the discussions was to arrive more nearly at complete cooperation between teachers and school officers.

The three Elliotts, singers and harpists, were honored repeatedly. County Superintendent Armstrong said that he felt that the institute was one of the best, from a standpoint of interest shown, that has ever been held in the county.

The talks being of an inspirational nature and calculated to show the teachers how to bring the rural schools closer to the actual needs of the people.

Wanted "Dead or Alive"

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 4.—(U. P.)—Orders that they be taken "dead or alive" were issued for the Mexican bandits who kidnaped and murdered two Americans near here Wednesday. The Mexicans surrounded in the brush near Fresno yesterday and thought to be the entire band of marauders proved to be only a small detachment. Search for the main body was resumed today by civilians and United States troops.

The four Mexicans are reported to have been killed within the last 24 hours in skirmishes with deputies and troops. No casualties resulted yesterday from an attack on the American camp by the bandits on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, but there was a sharp exchange of shots when soldiers returned the fire directed against the American camp. More than 90 soldiers were killed and Lieutenant Morrow and Jones, who were in the airplane, but they landed safely on American soil unharmed.

W. H. ECCLES PLANT AT BAKER DESTROYED, LUMBER YARD SAVED

Will Rebuild at Once; Loss Is Between $50,000 and $60,000; No Insurance.

WIND WAS JUST RIGHT

Fires Were Started in Other Nearby Yards, But Prompt Work Is Effective.

Baker, Ore., Sept. 4.—Fire destroyed the entire plant of the W. H. Eccles Lumber company early this morning. Loss is estimated at from $50,000 to $60,000, with no insurance. The lumber yards were threatened for a time, but the wind held in the right direction and the loss would have been tripled had the wind blown from the east.

Several small fires broke out in the yards of the Baker White Pine Lumber company several hundred yards away, but prompt action saved them. Planning mill, shipping sheds, dry kiln, box factory and every other building except the office was burned.

The plant will be rebuilt at once. Over 100 employees, including wood crews also, will be thrown out of work for months.
