

HUGO'S VETERANS OF BACKFIELD MELT AS HE SIZES UP GROUND
Parsons, Bryant and Malarkey Appear to Be Out of It for Good.
CAN FILL PHILBIN'S SHOES

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Sept. 11.—After eight days of wilds surrounding the city of Florence on the north bank of the Siuslaw river, Coach Hugo Bezdek with his squad of gridiron candidates arrived in Eugene this evening prepared and seasoned to take up the long football campaign now pending. The trip to Florence served its purpose inasmuch as it revealed the fact that Oregon is liable to be minus the services of a veteran backfield—the old trio, Parsons, Bryant and Malarkey—through with the game for good if present statements issued by each are to be taken as sincere.

Bryant arrived in Florence yesterday only to stay for an hour or two. He was on his way "down river" where he has accepted a position with the government on the jetty projects at the mouth of the Siuslaw. Parsons is still in Portland and when last heard from he stated that his chances to return to college were remote.

Malarkey will play if he can get the consent of his parents and a doctor or two. He has one show in a thousand to do so.

Bezdek Faces Tough Task.
Taking it for granted that the "old timers" have had better days than they will not be seen in action in the season to come, then Coach Bezdek has a mighty job on his hands—the whipping together of a backfield which will be as finished as the set now in the discard. However, as gloomy as might be the prospect, the Oregon member is in no manner discouraged.

Other line jobs are well taken care of.

Risley Billeted for End.
Blacksmith Cosman, if he shows as well as he did against the Aggies, will undoubtedly be stationed at center in a regular capacity. Risley is booked in an end position if present plans nursed by Coach Bezdek are followed.

Zeip Snyder, a veteran of sophomore rating, is again in college and looking better than ever. Snyder will have little difficulty in holding his place. Although Coach Cook has been silent as to his exact whereabouts, it is known that he will again register at Oregon; Cook is somewhere in the woods of Idaho serving as a fire warden and is looked to make Eugene early in the coming week.

Johnny Beckett, tired of harvesting, has sent word to expect him at college tomorrow or Monday. Beckett is still the best bet that Bezdek has in the kicking department and the assurance that he would reenter college was mighty good news to the training corps.

Yes, But Who Shot It?
Bill Hayward, Captain Cornell and "Tee" Malarkey arrived in Eugene last evening, one day ahead of their squad members. While here Bill took out enough of the various experiences of the camp and thinks the biggest feat of all was the deer that he, Bezdek and a guide bagged on a hunting trip last Thursday.

Just two weeks from today, Bezdek's favorites will usher in the season against the Multnomah club team of Portland on the local lot. This is the first trip that the clubmen have signed for in Eugene in some 15 years of interest is being centered

LINCOLN HIGH FOOTBALL COACH AND CHIEF AIDE

CALIFORNIA UP AGAINST IT FOR FOOTBALL LADS
Plenty of Material but Little Experience in American Game.

The University of California players have a hard row to hoe if they plan to win any of their games this fall. There is a big bunch out for the team but the men are nearly all inexperienced in the American game. The team as it comes onto the field looks like an invading army with the coaches as the advance guard.

PORTLAND GIRL SWIMS OSWEGO

Here is a new record for the fair maturators to shoot at. It was made in Oswego lake Labor day by Miss Bergljot Hovde, a 19-year-old Norwegian girl. She swam the length of the lake, some three miles, in 2 hours and 45 minutes, which is quite a record in still water for a woman.
Miss Hovde, who was born at Hamar, Norway, and who has made her home in Portland for three years, has been swimming since she was a mere child. She did not try to establish a record in time, but was merely trying to swim the length of the lake.

RUNYON SAYS FIGHT FOLLOWERS HOWLED FOR SOME FIGHTING

Mike and Packy Did Nothing to Offend Most Effeminate of Spectators.
ASSERT THEY DIDN'T TRY

Biggest Crowd That Ever Saw Fight in New York Keeps Up Caustic Conversation During Scuffling.

New York, Sept. 12.—(U. P.)—Mike and Packy were given the decision by the sporting editors of New York, divided as follows:
For McFarland—Five.
For Gibbons—Two.
Draw—Three.
The individual decisions were as follows:
United Press (George R. Holmes)—McFarland.
New York World—McFarland.
New York Herald—McFarland.
New York Sun—McFarland.
New York Press—McFarland.
Associated Press—Gibbons.
New York Tribune (Grantland Rice)—Gibbons.
New York American (Damon Runyon)—Draw.
New York Telegraph (Bat Masterson)—Draw.
New York Times—Draw.

By Damon Runyon.
New York, Sept. 11.—(I. N. S.)—Along about the sixth round of the exhibition between Packy McFarland of Chicago and Mike Gibbons of St. Paul down at Brighton Beach tonight, a loud voice rose from a ringside seat and let forth a roar that reverberated up and back and far out over the biggest crowd that ever saw a fistic event in America.

"Gents," said the man, hoarsely, "this is grand picture show but I came to see a fight."
And from the murmur that responded to his cry it was apparent that many others present echoed these sentiments.

The McFarland-Gibbons affair may have been a fair boxing exhibition and certainly it contained nothing that could offend the finer feelings of any of the thousands of women who were present, but as a fight it was not much. It was a ten round, no decision affair and no decision would be about correct if a decision had been given, a draw is not damage to either man.

They were both on their feet and fighting at the finish. There had been no damage inflicted on either side and neither man had a distinct advantage at any stage of the conflict.

Gibbons Headed Knockout.
There are always rumors of this kind going around before a big match and perhaps the only result that would have prevented criticism of the affair tonight would have been a knockout by Gibbons. Certainly a knockout by McFarland would have been looked at askance and it may be the men were trying desperately.

Packy Was a Shade.
The complaints of the crowd became more pronounced as the men went through the early stages of the fifth.

In that round, however, Gibbons let loose a left that looked to be about the hardest punch that had been started but it did no damage. The old rip and dash of St. Paul man was entirely missing. Mike has fought some corking fights around New York and some bad ones, but up to the fifth he showed none of the class he has inhabited in Chicago when he is in the ring. The same might be said of McFarland. Never a hard puncher or knocker-out, he has nevertheless displayed much more form than he displayed in the early rounds tonight. McFarland had a shade in the fifth, however, because he did most of the leading.

It was about the first round that could reasonably be given to either man.

In the sixth McFarland hit Gibbons a little low, but it did not do much. There was a close exchange in McFarland's corner, but the blows that landed fell on elbows. Mike missed badly in this round, but he opened an old cut under his right eye.

McFarland Is Wary.
In the seventh round showed over Gibbons left eye and trickled down his nose. He had evidently been hurt. When he returned to the ring he wiped the blood off of Packy's shoulders. Faced seemed a bit weary from the exertion and it was Mike's round. There seemed to be more drive to his punches during this season than before. In the eighth Gibbons missed with both hands. In fact, the story would have to be a narrative of misses if an answer were made to detail every lead. Blows with which Gibbons has knocked men cold from a distance of six inches fell without apparent weight upon Packy's head.

Alexander Gets Bonus
Grover Cleveland Alexander has gathered unto himself a $1000 bonus. His 1915 contract stipulated that he was to get $1000 above his fixed salary if he won 25 or more games. Alex annexed his twenty-fifth victory a few days ago by blanking the Giants, and the check for $1000 now is duly deposited in the bank.
