

SHATTUCK AND COUCH SWIMMING TANKS ARE GIVEN "DEDICATIONS"

Officials Stand By and Watch Proceedings; Wish They Were Children Again.

EQUIPMENT IS LATEST

Kindling Is of White Tile, Water Is Sterilized—Boys and Girls to Alternate.

"Ready! Go!"

Thirty-five boys leaped into the swimming tank at the new Couch school. The tank was filled with bobbing heads and arms and feet, that churned the water almost to foam. In a minute the lads were scrambling up on the opposite side.

School Director Lockwood, Assistant Superintendents Groat and Rice, School Clerk Thomas, Physical Director Krohn and a number of other grownups, fished to be boys again and privileged to attend one of Portland's newest schools.

Girls "Dedicate" Shattuck Tank.

In this way the new swimming tank at the Couch school was "dedicated," or rather initiated, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

An hour later the swimming tank at the new Shattuck school was "dedicated" by a class of girls. Howard McKay was the swimming instructor in charge of the boys, and Miss Millie Nichol was the instructor in charge of the girls. She was assisted by Miss Lucile Bronnugh.

The tanks, made of clean white tile, are 20 by 50 feet. The water is sterilized before being turned into them. In connection with the tanks are large dressing rooms and shower baths. Demonstrations were given at both tanks of rescuing drowning persons. Mr. Krohn said emphasis will be laid on that sort of instruction. The tanks range in depth from three to nine feet of water.

Boys and Girls to Alternate.

It is the plan to have the boys and girls alternate, half a week at a time, in the use of the tanks. Beginning next Monday, the girls will start their swimming lessons at the Couch school and the boys at the Shattuck school. At Wednesday noon they will alternate, and the boys will use the Couch tank and the girls the Shattuck tank. Pupils of nearby schools will also be permitted to take the swimming lessons. It is the plan to have the pupils of Ladd, Holman and Failing schools go to Shattuck for their swimming lessons, and those at Chapman and Davis schools will go to Couch.

Mrs. F. C. Wirfs Dies at Dayton

Dayton, O., Sept. 16.—Elizabeth Schuster, wife of Frank C. Wirfs, died at her home near Dayton Wednesday morning, after a long illness. Mrs. Wirfs was born in Mississippi, August 15, 1862, and has lived in Oregon for the last 30 years. Besides her husband, she leaves four sons and two daughters, Frank W. and Mrs. Marie Redington of Portland, Mrs. Kathryn Johnson of Cathlamet, Wash., Charles and Arthur and Bernard of Dayton.

Spokane Racing Is Off.

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 16.—(P. M.) Deciding that the dirt track used for horseracing is too dangerous for automobiles for racing amateurs, the racing association of the interstate fair ruled today that there will be no more automobile racing. Several accidents have occurred in the past two days.

STATE CAPITAL NEWS

Salem, Or., Sept. 15.—Governor Withycombe yesterday received a telegram from Chief Forester Graves of the United States department of agriculture, that he will speak at the water-power conference in Portland, September 21. With his chief engineer, Graves will explain the policy and work of the forest service in handling water powers in national forests. Clay Tallman, commissioner of public lands, will represent Secretary of Interior Lane at the conference.

Asserting that her husband sent her for a visit with relatives in January following their marriage, December 7, 1912, and thereafter wrote her that he would not send her money to return to him, Anna D. Bates has filed a suit for a divorce from Thomas Bates. Bates has failed to communicate with her for two years and his present whereabouts are unknown, she says. She asks that her former name of Moon be restored to her.

The state public service commission has issued an order requiring the Portland Railway, Light & Power company to stop all business within 50 feet of Cottrell station and sound a signal before crossing the highway. In a complaint signed by H. Blackburn and 100 others, it was asserted that the crossing is extremely dangerous.

Following corporations have been authorized by Commissioner Schuchman to do business in Oregon: Sechtem Investment company, F. J. Sechtem, Mae Sechtem and Elizabeth Borch; incorporators, capital stock $10,000, real estate, Portland; Shelby Investment company, R. A. Wilcox, R. E. Doane and Gus Newbury incorporators, capital stock $5000, Grants Pass; Cultus Lake Reservoir company, S. S. Mohler, J. Holman and J. W. David, incorporators, capital stock $5000, Portland.

An order has been entered in circuit court here revoking a previous order giving the former wife of Glen W. Caffee $15 per month for the support of a minor child. The reason for the new order is that Mrs. Caffee remarried.

After a successful canning season, extending from May 25, Hunt Bros. have closed for the year the big plant here. W. G. Allen, manager of the cannery, acted as host of the 200 employees at a dance in the cannery, which marked the close of the season.

Gaylord H. Patterson, former professor of economics and sociology at Willamette university, has accepted the chair of economics and sociology at Dickinson college, Carlisle, Pa.

Defendants in the case of the Portland Chamber of Commerce against the several railroads doing business in Oregon, in which the rates charged for carrying articles too large to be loaded in sideloads of cars, in less than carload lots, were declared unreasonable, have filed an application for a continuance in September 24 until some time in October to await a rehearing on the same rule before the Interstate Commerce commission and a hearing similar to that in Oregon before the California commission. The defendants say it would be advantageous to have for consideration the result of the two proceedings.

Congress of Women Hold a Reception

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—(P. N. S.)—The first business meeting of the convention and a big reception and ball in the California building were today's features in the Congress of Women Voters here. The business meeting was scheduled for the afternoon in the Illinois building, and the reception and ball for the evening in the California building. Some of those who are on the program to speak at the initial luncheon session are Mrs. William Kent, Miss Annie Hartin of Nevada, Sarah Barfield of Oregon, and Congressman J. A. Elston of Alameda.

The Future
Sickness and old age are not pleasant subjects to discuss; however, we grow older steadily and would never pass on if we were never ill. The idea is to provide as nearly as possible against the inevitable and grow old with grace, comfort and dignity. A savings account started soon enough in this strong state bank will dispel many of the possible adverse conditions of later years. Think it over.
