SEATTLE CLAMORING FOR PLACE IN COAST LEAGUE NEXT SEASON

Defeat of Champions by the Beavers Shows Difference in Class of Baseball.

MACKMEN MAKE 7 RUNS

Pound Charley Schmutz for Four Runs in First Inning; Giants Make Three Tallies.

By R. A. C.

If the Seattle fans had their way they would hop into the Pacific Coast league in a minute and at their head would be David E. Douglas, the content and genial owner of the club. This much was evident while the Beavers were trimming the Seattle champions of the northwestern league in the sound city yesterday afternoon, by a score of 7 to 3. If someone will tell Dug and his fellow citizens how to get into the Coast league, the Seattle magnate will buy him the best dinner in town and Dug is some hot. Seattle wants to get into the Coast league and the Coast league wants Seattle, but the rub comes on territorial rights.

Seattle would add tremendous strength to the Coast league and Portland would make the Northwestern league territory and Portland belongs to Coast league territory. The Seattle fans want Coast league baseball and the Portland fans do not want Northwestern league baseball.

Get Schmutz for Four. When the Beavers cracked Charley Schmutz for four runs in the first inning yesterday, hitting every ball on the nose, the fans began to yell, "Give us Coast league baseball!" They kept it up until McIvor hit into a double play in the ninth and brought the unequal battle to a close. The crowd was a large one. Seattle fans who had not attended a Northwestern league game since the opening day, were out to judge the difference between Coast and Northwestern league baseball.

Both clubs were weakened. The Beavers were minus Bruce and Fisher, and the Giants were minus Barth, who has blood poisoning in the throwing arm. And right here, we want to pin a rose on Al Bartholomew. This youngster, catching his first game in organized baseball, and being stranger to the speed of Covertsleskie and the hooks of Evans, worked like a veteran. The last men on the Seattle list, notably, the much touted sack Smith who leaves today to join Cincinnati, were glued like leeches to the bases. The champions did not try to steal bases and displayed none of the fox stuff that class A players bring in trying to throw a young catcher into a wild pegging streak.

Robber Starts It.

Ty Lohery who got three hits during the afternoon, opened the batting streak on Schmutz in the first inning when he shot to rightfield. Carlisle filed to Shaw and Southworth doubled against the right field fence. Bartholomew sent a torrid drive across second and Lohery and Southworth tallied. Stumpff was safe when Tealey Raymond messed one. Derrick cracked a hit past Guilan and Bates registered, Stumpff reaching third. That was the end of Schmutz and Jimmy Clarke went in. Ward's out let Stumpff score. Stumpff's single, a stolen base and Derrick's second single gave the Beavers their fifth run in the third. Lohery's third single, Carlisle's double and Southworth's sacrifice fly to McIvor gave another fan. The seventh was made in the seventh frame when Guilan's bad throw let Ward reach second and he scored on Bartholomew's double to center.

Giants Have Rally.

Hits by Morse, McIvor, Cadman, Smith and Shaw in the fifth gave the Seattle club three off Evans, Rube letting down when he was ahead six runs. Rube came back in the sixth and retired the Giants in order. Covertsleskie relieving him in the seventh. Nine men favored Coffey in the last three innings. Score: PORTLAND, AB R H PO A E; Lohery, cf, 4 1 1 2 0 0; Carlisle, rf, 4 0 1 2 0 0; Southworth, lf, 4 1 1 2 0 0; Stumpff, 2b, 4 2 1 3 0 0; Raymond, 3b, 4 0 0 1 3 0; Bartholomew, c, 4 0 1 4 2 0; Evans, p, 4 0 0 0 0 0; Covertsleskie, p, 4 0 0 0 0 0. World Series Teams May Travel to Coast

Chicago, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—President Ban Johnson of the American league and members of the national commission expressed the opinion today that permission will be given for the two teams in the world's series to go to the Panama-Pacific exposition after the big games, for a post-season series with a picked Pacific league team. It is understood a delegation of San Francisco men will come east soon to make the request.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS

Table showing standings for Pacific Coast League, National League, and Federal League.

PRATT IS LEAGUE'S HEAD

Managers of the teams of the Spalding Football league last night elected Martin T. Pratt, manager of the Multnomah Club football eleven, president of the organization for the coming season. The league will be composed of the following teams: South Portland, Overlook, Brooklyn, Ben Hur, Junior Moose, Albina, Lincoln Park and Hill.

VERNON SIGNS KAUFFMAN

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Dick Kauffman, a right handed pitcher of the Tacoma club, has been signed to play for the Vernon Tigers, according to an announcement made here today. Kauffman was a free agent, having been given his release by Tacoma, it was said, in return for high class work he did for that club.

CHUCK WARD IS LOST TO BEAVERS BY DRAFT ROUTE

Northwestern League Clubs Hanking After Coin in the Case. "Chuck" Ward, the fast young shortstop of the Portland Beavers, has been drafted by the Chicago club of the National league, and, if he signs a contract, will be taken south by the Cubs next spring. The drafting of Ward is a mixed-up affair. He belonged to Aberdeen, but when that club was forced to disband from the Northwestern league after the Victoria dropped out, Ward was transferred to Tacoma. Portland purchased Ward from Aberdeen for $500, which Manager John Barnes pocketed for back salary due him and over which the Aberdeen directors are raising a howl. When the sale was made to Portland, Joe McInnity, who was using Ward, signed a written release to the Portland club. The draft price on class B clubs is $1250, which will come to the McCreeds, inasmuch as title in Ward is now vested in Portland.

Stanford Has Fine Scheme for Letters

Berkeley, Cal., Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—With no competition in athletics with Stanford university, and no means for athletes to win their "C," a new method has been devised by Coach Walter Christie and Captain Ted Probie of the track team for awarding the letters. A minimum of six points must be won in the three big meets of the track season, the games to be designated by the coach, before the letter will be awarded.

MIRACLES ONLY WILL KEEP HOSE AND PHILS AWAY

Boston Will Be Favorite in Betting in Baseball Derby. New York, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—The Red Sox and the Phillies will face each other in the world's series, barring miracles. Yesterday's results assured this, and about squeezed the last drop of pennant hopes from the other contenders. Those teams are in a position to lose five games, while the others in the race win all their games, and yet the Red Sox and Phillies would still cop the honor of battling each other for the championship. Boston will go into the series with as well balanced an aggregation as ever entered the October baseball Derby, and will be the favorite in the betting.

Jess Willard Will Fight in Milwaukee

Milwaukee, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Jess Willard's first championship probably will be fought in Milwaukee. Tom Jones, manager, declared the big fellow is ready to box, and that Milwaukee can have his first scrap if proper financial arrangements can be made. "Willard's contract with the Wild West show expires in November, and after that time he will be ready to box any of the men who want a chance for the title," said Jones.

BOXING CARD ANNOUNCED

Three of the five six-round boxing contests to be staged Friday night in the Arion hall under the auspices of the Imperial Athletic club have been arranged by Matchmaker Charles Jost. The main event will be between Bob Evans of Portland and Tommy Clark of Seattle. Frankie O'Brien will be pitted against Ben Gillian, and Jimmy Howe, the Chinese boy, will meet Young Green.

BASEBALL CHATTER

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Manager Elliott of the Oakland team yesterday released infielder Tanner, who was recently purchased from the Waco team of the Texas league, and outfielder Tobin. New York, Sept. 21.—Pitchers Blodgett and Ross of Chattanooga and Shocker of Ottawa and Infielder Cable of the Bradford Interstate league team have been drafted by the New York Americans. Blodgett and Ross are southpaws. Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Player Riley of the Wichita team has been awarded to the St. Louis Nationals by the National commission. Pittsburgh, Sept. 21.—Outfielder Eugene Madden of the Galveston, Texas, league has been drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Seattle, Sept. 21.—The Seattle Northwestern league champions lost outfielder and Substitute Catcher Barth in the drafts to the Brooklyn Nationals.

JOHNNY PARSONS BACK AT OREGON AND HOPES HIGH

Famous Halfback Will Add Great Strength to Bezedek's Team. University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Sept. 21.—Johnny Parsons is back at the University of Oregon, and with him came a big job of hope. The star of last year's aggregation phoned yesterday from Portland, telling the boys that he would be back for work at 6 o'clock. And at 6 he rolled into Eugene, and was given the glad hand of a waiting crowd. With the return of Parsons there is likely to be a severe shake-up on the first team, but probably not until after the game with Multnomah Amateur Athletic club. At present, Robert Malarkey is playing in the position that Tick Malarkey made famous last year, and is making a creditable showing. "Shy" Huntington, who played alternate quarterback last year, is now at right halfback, Parsons' old holdout. It is quite probable that Parsons will be in good condition, for he spent his summer on his father's farm on the edge of Portland. Yesterday's practice was light, as well as slow. The weather has been sultry, and the boys are sluggish in their maneuvers. Charles Hoskins, the Echo star, continues to improve from day to day. Bartlett at left end distinguished himself in the scrimmage of the last few days, and in the Saturday scrub game by pulling down runner after runner on skrimish plays. His offensive work shines, also, and if his showing continues favorably he will probably pinch his end position. "Anse" Corbett has found a capable understudy in Monteith, who, although new at the pivot position, is showing lots of "pep" and speed.

LEADER TWINS IN FOOTBALL SUITS AT WASHINGTON

Dobie Now Has Four Veterans in the Line at Seattle. Seattle, Wash., Sept. 21.—(P. N. S.)—Because the Leader twins of Portland failed to make good on their retirement intentions and last night applied for football suits, prospects in Coach Gilmour Dobie's camp at the University of Washington are looking decidedly better today. After announcing that they would find it necessary to forsake football for work the Leader boys managed to arrange the affairs so that the gridiron need not be deprived of their presence and their coming brought rejoicing to Washington cohorts. Washington now has four veterans for her line with Captain Hunt and one of the Leader boys on the ends, Rograve at guards, and the other Leader in a tackle position. The backfield as it now stands sees Shiel at fullback, "Hap" Miller at one half, Ray Gardner, a sophomore from Spokane, at the other half, and Bud Young and Wood of Aberdeen alternating at quarter. Of the new men who are showing best in the line, Grimm of Centralia at tackle, Gilmer of Seattle at center, look the most impressive. Dobie is putting his men through nightly scrimmage practice and is devoting a lot of time to the forward pass and to the kicking end of the game.

ARCHIBALD BEST JOCKEY

Win in Women's Doubles. Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Miss Carrie Neely of Chicago and Miss Molla Bjurstedt of Norway to-day are the women double champions in the Tri-State Tennis tournament. They defeated Mrs. Malcolm McNeill Jr. of Chicago, and Miss Ruth Sanders of Cincinnati yesterday in the final round, 6-1, 6-0.

MAJORS ARE AFTER BAUM

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Henry Berry, owner of the San Francisco Coast league club, announced that he had been offered $5000 for "Spider" Baum, leading pitcher of the league. Berry stated the matter would be decided by Baum. The Seal owner is not averse to parting with Baum, but will abide by the latter's wishes. He refused to give the name of the club making the offer. Bill Neal, scout for the Philadelphia Nationals, is expected to make an offer today for the services of Walter Schaefer, Seal outfielder. Declaring that the Coast league was good enough for him at present, Spider Baum of the San Francisco Seals, leading pitcher of the Coast league, stated today that he would probably turn down the offer of an eastern league team. Spider said he was not certain of his future plans.

Los Angeles Fans Likely to See Racing

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—The running meeting just concluded at the exposition track may be extended to Los Angeles. It is understood that many of the owners, and practically all the jockeys, are anxious to see an attempt made to revive the sport of kings in the southern city. President Charles W. Clarke of the Golden Breeders' association, which promoted the meeting, today expressed a willingness to go south and aid in handling the meeting, and is waiting advice from sportsmen there.

Win in Women's Doubles.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—Miss Carrie Neely of Chicago and Miss Molla Bjurstedt of Norway to-day are the women double champions in the Tri-State Tennis tournament.
