

CONFERENCE ON PLAN TO ARREST JOHN D. JR. SCHEDULED AT DENVER

General Counsel Belcher for Mine Workers Leaves for Denver to Confer.

LUDLOW TRAGEDY BASIS

Miners Argue That Rockefeller Should Be Held Accountable for Whatever Part He Played.

Charlestown, W. Va., Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—A. M. Belcher, general counsel for the United Mine Workers, left here today for Denver, Col., to confer with officials of that organization about asking for the arrest of John D. Rockefeller Jr., in connection with the recent strike troubles in Colorado.

Young Rockefeller Visits Mines.—Trinidad, Col., Sept. 21.—(U. P.)—With the House of Morgan threatening to take from the House of Rockefeller the title of "the world's richest man," John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has deserted the financial markets to mix with his miners.

He intimated today that he had foreseen the chance of amassing great wealth, because, like his father, as shown in a recent interview with the United Press, he is opposed to furthering the war in Europe.

A member of Rockefeller's party quoted the young man as "expressing displeasure with prospective assistance to the belligerents," apparently referring to the proposed half billion dollar loan to the allies.

Shortly before 8 a. m. today he started on a 65 mile automobile trip over the stone public highway built with his money, to give starving miners employment after the recent strike. His trip today included visits to mining camps at Primero, Tercio and Segundo.
