Sheriff Hurlburt and Deputies Flaherty and Phillips met * with 40 of the 65 special traffic officers of the Portland Auto- * mobile club last night at the # Chamber of Commerce, and po- * leing the country roads was discussed

He also offered to make any of the special traffic officers regular deputies. S. Dean Vincent accused the Portland traffic policemen of winking at traffic violations and the suggestion was made * by one speaker that the automobile club should instruct po lice officers in the city and * state traffic laws. H. P. Coffin, chairman of the public safety commission, acted * as chairman. The special offi-* cers are to meet once a month * in the future.
