FREE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU MOVES TO OTHER LOCATIONS

Women's Division Now Situated in City Hall and Men's at Fourteenth and Johnson.

WORK FOR ALL IS AIM

Persons Needing Help Are Urged to Make Their Wants Known to Those in Charge.

Portland's municipal free employment bureau has moved.

The woman's division is now located on the third floor of the city hall, and the men's division in recently leased quarters at Fourteenth and Johnson streets.

Every effort is to be made to secure work for those out of employment, and those seeking help are urged to notify the employment bureau. No charges are made for the services.

Mrs. C. M. Rynerson is in charge of the women's division, and E. L. Christensen is in charge of the men's division. The women's division may be reached by telephoning A-4125 or Marshall 4100.

The bureau was formerly located at Second and Salmon streets. Moving the women's division to the city hall and the men's division to Fourteenth and Johnson streets is the first step in Commissioner Baker's plan to reorganize the bureau and enlarge the scope of the work.

LARGE BALCONIES IS URGED

Builders Will Ask for Amendment of Building Code.

Members of the Builders' Exchange are seeking to have the present building code amended to allow the erection of slow burning mill constructed balconies not to exceed one-third the floor area in non-fireproof buildings within the inner fire limits. The present code restricts balconies of this type to 600 square feet of floor area.

The amendments are now being prepared by Building Inspector Plummer and will be soon submitted to the council. They will also allow the use of the same type of material in constructing partitions in non-fireproof buildings.

O'NEILL MAY GET SEWER JOB

Commissioner Dieck Recommends Acceptance of Bid on Work.

Commissioner Dieck has recommend to the council that the bid of J. P. O'Neill, of $14,596 for the construction of a sewer in Water and Mill streets be accepted. A week ago bids were rejected because of a squabble over the figures and new proposals were sought. The price offered by O'Neill is $1205 below the estimated cost.

A week ago Commissioner Dieck had recommended that the contract for the work go to William Lind, he contending that O'Neill's bid was irregular. The council rejected all bids, however, and now Commissioner Dieck recommends that O'Neill be awarded the contract under the new proposals.

TAXPAYERS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE HOLDS ITS FIRST MEETING

will meet again the latter part of the week at the call of the chairman.

Some Increases Are Asked.

Slight increases are shown in the requests of several of the departments whose budgets were in today, while if any showed decreases they were very small.

Chairman Teal said that when the estimates for road work are made up he wanted to have a definite plan for the road work for next year outlined.

The largest estimates submitted today are for the bridges and ferries, which show an increase of $5,926.92 over the budget for this year.

The county surveyor is asking for $3500 increase in his payroll, while County Auditor Martin asks for a decrease in his payroll of $540.

Money Wanted for Quarries.

Estimates aggregating $27,116 are made for the Linnton and Kelly Butte quarries, which have been practically closed for the last two years.

The total expenditures from the general fund of the county for 1914 amounted to $902,818.76, or a monthly average of $75,234.90, while for the first nine months of this year the expenditures ran up to $689,944.97, or a monthly average of $76,660.55.

Following are the requests submitted by those departments whose estimates were ready today:

Public Schools Will Be Inspected For Fire Hazard

The public schools are to be inspected for fire hazards every month instead of quarterly, according to a decision reached by Fire Marshal Stevens. This means that deputy fire marshals will go through school buildings every month that necessary precautions may be taken to prevent fires.

"We have been inspecting the buildings only quarterly," said Fire Marshal Stevens, "but there is no need to take any chances, so hereafter they will be inspected monthly. We hope to prevent fires in any of the school buildings. A visit to the schools every month will also bring the students in closer touch with the fire prevention work."

MAINTENANCE COST OF INTERSTATE SPAN IS ABOUT $100,000

Estimates of Expenses Are Considered at the Meeting of the Commission.

PAYROLL PUT AT $15,000

Cost of Paint Each Year Is About $3000; Further Discussion Being Conducted Today.

Operation, maintenance and interest costs of the new interstate bridge when it is turned over to Multnomah and Clarke counties will be approximately $100,000 if estimates made at a meeting this morning are approximately correct. Commissioners Lightner and Holman of Multnomah county, Commissioner A. Rawson of Clarke county, Engineer E. E. Howard and District Attorney Evans met to consider the probable cost that provision may be made in the 1916 budget should it be necessary.

Payroll $15,000 a Year.

A payroll of $15,000 per year; oil, waste, coal and electric power at $1200 per year and light at $1200 per year comprise the maintainance cost. A coat of paint each five years at $15,000 makes an annual cost of $3000 for that item, paving repairs are figured at $1000 and emergencies at $4000, giving a total of $8000 for maintainance. Interest of $25,000 on Clarke county bonds and $37,500 on Multnomah county bonds make interest charges total $62,500, giving a total of $87,500.

"The income of the present ferry is said to be about $100,000 per year and at that rate with equal charges as tolls the cost would be met from tolls alone," said Commissioner Holman. "We feel that all should be figured beforehand that provision may be made for any part which need be paid before the budget for the county is made up."

To Be Paid by State.

Multnomah county's interest charge includes only the interest on the portion of the bonds used directly in the construction of the bridge. This is to be paid by the state but will be cared for from the tolls if possible, because Clarke county's interest must be cared for from the tolls, as the county alone is responsible for the payment of its interest charges. The additional $500,000 of Multnomah county bonds is being used for approaches and is not included in the tolls consideration.

Further discussion is being taken up this afternoon.

TESTIFIES AGAINST KEENEY

Mont Akeyson Implicates Man in Alleged Arson Case.

Mont Akeyson, under oath this morning, detailed in Circuit Judge Gantenbein's court, where Mordie Keeney is on trial on an arson charge, the actions of Keeney on the night of the fire and testified that Keeney was directly connected with it. He said that Keeney kept watch outside of the house and gave the signal for him to touch the match to paper on which a mixture of linseed oil and turpentine had been spread.

On cross examination Attorney Robert F. Maguire read from stenographic notes which he said he had made of a conversation he had with Akeyson after the conversation and asked him if it were not true that he had told before others that Keeney had absolutely nothing to do with the fire. Akeyson denied the statement.

Maguire also asked if it were not true that a plot existed to swear that Keeney was responsible and that Mrs. Grace L. Woolette, Akeyson's sister and one of the state's witnesses, had told Akeyson's wife that they must stick together to lay the blame on Keeney's shoulders. Again Akeyson denied the statement.

Deputy District Attorney Collier contends that Maguire has turned statements made by Akeyson around and has not given the true meaning of Akeyson's statements and some lively encounters between the two have resulted. The examination of Akeyson is expected to end this afternoon.

Akeyson has pleaded guilty to the charge of setting fire to the house. George L. Woolette has also pleaded guilty to taking part in the fire.

MATTER IS UP TO COURTS

Injunction Holds Back Collection of Taxes of State.

Unless the state of Oregon can collect through the courts $62,500 held back by County Treasurer Lewis under injunction orders the state will not receive another penny from 1915 taxes. Treasurer Lewis has mailed to State Treasurer Kay a check for $489,756.14, the last of the $1,119,512.12, exclusive of the $62,500, which the state receives from Multnomah county's taxes. The $62,500 represents interest paid by Multnomah county on the $1,250,000 Interstate bridge bonds. The state is compelled by law to make this money good to Multnomah county but failed to provide for it and injunction proceedings were resorted to by the county to save the money from the taxes, and yet protect Treasurer Lewis.

Examination as to Sanity.

Examination of Stephani Fuchs, the Austrian servant girl, who has admitted she left her dead baby in the Peoples' theatre last Wednesday night, and who asserts she is the heiress to a $10,000,000 estate, was begun this morning by Drs. S. E. Josephi and J. F. Calbreath. The girl was charged with insanity by her sister, Mari Schiebert, as the result of her ideas of her wealth. She maintained her story of the fortune. The examination will be continued this afternoon, when her sister will testify, if she can be reached. The girl also asked that she be allowed to look for letters she maintains she has showing her story of her fortune is true.

Court Proceeds With Trial.

Despite motions for a change of venue, filed this morning by the defendants in four suits against the Bank of Gresham, John G. Sieret, O. A. Eastman, J. M. Short and George J. Hodder, the suit of O. W. Boring, one of the four, was taken up by Circuit Judge McGinn. The others who objected to trials in Judge McGinn's court were C. D. Welch, C. H. Johansen and H. G. Mullenhoff.

In the affidavits accompanying the motions, the defendants assert that the cases were transferred from other courts to that of Judge McGinn on his own initiative, and that Judge McGinn is too prejudiced to give them an impartial trial.

New Kind of Sport Is Described by Editor From Burns

Julian Byrd, the Burns editor, is in Portland today describing a new kind of sport. "Take a small, high powered shot gun on your trips by auto across the sage brush," he prescribed.

"When a rabbit jumps, bang him. He may get away, but with practice fewer fail to 'kick the bucket' and you get some good practice and at the same time help rid the land of a pest.

"Personally," concluded Mr. Byrd modestly, "I've gotten so I get 23 rabbits out of 25 shots."

Mr. Byrd says the autumn has been so mild in the north country that the usual number of ducks and geese have not reached Harney county lakes as yet. He was accompanied to Portland by Mrs. Byrd and while she visits here he will attend the state editorial convention at Salem.

ENGLAND SEIZES TWO AMERICAN, A DANISH VESSEL; ONE ASHORE

American Tanker Llama, With Prize Crew Aboard, Aground Off Scotland, Lost

Washington, Nov. 1.—(U. P.)—A British prize crew seized the American steamer Llama, afterward grounded off Scotland yesterday, according to the Dundee consul's report to the state department today. No reason was assigned for the seizure.

The Llama was later reported sinking and probably beyond saving. Her crew of 29 was landed safely.

Consul Young at Halifax also wired that the American vessel Hocking, formerly the Danish vessel Gronland, reported to be on the British blacklist, was brought into Halifax yesterday after being halted off New York by British warships.

Still another vessel, the Danish Hamborn, was seized.

In the absence of details, state department officials did not attempt an explanation of the British reasons, though it was suggested in some quarters that the seizures are perhaps the beginning of a new policy concerning neutral ships suspected of engaging in German trade.

Claim Hocking Is German.

Halifax, Nov. 1.—(I. N. S.)—Disposition of the steamers Hocking and Hamborn, seized by British warships when a few hours out from New York, rests with the admiralty, according to official announcement here today.

It is understood that the Hocking was seized on orders from London, the British authorities refusing to recognize the transfer from the Danish to American flag, and declaring that the vessel was operated by German capital.

Owners to Protest.

New York, Nov. 1.—(I. N. S.)—Owners of the steamers Hocking and Hamborn likely will lodge a protest with the state department this week over what they term the English blockade of New York, resulting in the seizure of the two vessels.

The Hocking was bound for Norfolk from New York for coal, and possibility exists, according to statements here today, that the seizure was made within the three mile limit.

Vessels Were Coasters.

Washington, Nov. 1.—(I. N. S.)—Terming the seizure of the steamers Hocking and Hamborn by British warships off New York "high-handed and illegal," officials of the state department today indicated that the seizures would be protested immediately and even may result in a demand by the United States that the rulings regarding naval prizes be revised.

The state department officials believe the steamers were engaged in coastwise trade and were in no way aiding Britain's enemies.

No official steps will be taken, however, until Consul Young at Halifax, who already has reported seizure of the Hamborn, turns in a report on the Hocking.

The Hocking was formerly the Danish steamer Gronland and is one of a fleet of 12 vessels, totaling 44,251 tons, which were bought since the war by the American Trans-Atlantic company of which R. S. Wagner of Millwaukee, is president.

Last week the British board of trade posted the names of all 12 as liable to seizure as prizes because their ownership was questioned.

Wagner denounced this action, stating that the ownership was absolutely and entirely American.

Two Americans Wounded by Cocos

Washington, Nov. 1.—(I. N. S.)—Cocos tribesmen attacked a scouting party near Bahon Saturday, wounding Corporal Colman and Private Snodgrass, according to a dispatch received here today from Admiral Caperton. No mention of Haitian casualties was made.

Rufus Holman to Speak.

County Commissioner Rufus C. Holman has accepted an invitation to address the State Editorial association at Salem Friday. He will speak on "Some Things of the First Importance to the Development and Prosperity of Oregon and Their Dependence Upon Accurate and Honest Publicity." Commissioner Holman and Roadmaster Yeon will be speakers at a luncheon of the Oregon City Commercial club Tuesday noon and will give good roads talks.

NATIONAL BANKS ARE WARNED AGAINST USURIOUS INTEREST

Letters Will Be Formally Read at Next Meeting of Board of Directors.

STATUTES ARE CITED

Comptroller of Currency Called Attention to Their Oaths to Observe Federal Statutes.

Carrying out his campaign to eliminate from the national banks of the country all taint of usury in dealing with borrowers, John Skelton Williams, comptroller of the currency, has sent to every bank in the country a letter directing attention to the federal laws on the subject and the oaths taken by bank directors to support them.

All national banks in Portland received copies of this letter Saturday and today. Although all the banks disclaimed any usurious practices in Portland, the letters will be formally read at the next meetings of the boards of directors and certification will be made to the comptroller that this action has been taken.

Attention to Law Called.

The letter reads:

"Sirs: The attention of your officers and directors is called to the oath which was signed by each director upon his qualification, in which he solemnly swore as follows: 'I will, so far as the duty devolve upon me, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such association; that I will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any of the provisions of the statutes of the United States under which this association has been organized.'

"Your attention is called to section 5197 of the revised statutes of the United States, being part of the national bank act, which provides that a national bank—

"'May take, receive and charge on any loan or discount made, or upon any note, bill of exchange or other evidence of debt, interest at the rate allowed by the laws of the state, territory or district where the bank is located, and no more, except that where, by the laws of the state, a different rate is limited for banks of issue organized under state laws, the rate so limited shall be allowed to associations organized or existing in any such state under this title.'

Violations of Statutes Alleged.

"When no rate is fixed by laws of the state or territory or district, the bank may receive, reserve or charge a rate not exceeding 7 per centum, and such interest may be taken in advance, reckoning the days for which the note, bill or other evidences of debt, has to run.'

"This office regrets that the sworn statements of condition of a great many banks show that section 5197, R. S. U. S., against usury, has been grossly violated by these banks.

"You are respectfully advised and admonished that this provision of the national bank act should be faithfully observed by all banks, their officers and directors, in accordance with the solemn oaths taken by the directors.

"You are requested to read this letter at the next meeting of your board of directors, and to have it inscribed upon the minutes, and to send a copy of this letter to every member of your board who may not be present at such meeting, with the request that he promptly acknowledge its receipt to you.

Report Is Requested.

"Within 30 days after your next board meeting and not later than December 20, 1915, you are requested to send to this office letters from all members of your board who may not have been present at the meeting at which this letter is read, acknowledging the receipt by each absent director of a copy hereof, together with a certified extract from your minutes showing that the letter has been read to your board and giving the names of the directors present at the meeting at which it is read."

Bankers construe this letter to mean that bank officers as individuals are not to be allowed to make personal profits out of bank transactions, one of the evils that lately caused the comptroller to deliver a stern rebuke.

It is said that some bankers have in the past exacted usurious rates through practices over which the banking laws have no jurisdiction, the records in every case showing regular proceedings and regular legal interest charges. This is done sometimes through the agency of a third party—a lawyer or at any event some one not connected officially with the bank—who charges "commissions" for negotiating loans that the bankers had refused to consider. That the intercession of these outside parties persuaded the bank officers to make the loan—with the suspicion that the bankers profited personally in the transaction—often gave rise to bitter complaint.

British Soldiers to Eat Oregon Apples

New York, Oct. 30.—(I. N. S.)—Included in a large cargo carried by the American liner St. Paul when she sailed at noon today for Liverpool were many barrels of Oregon apples purchased by the British government for the soldiers in the trenches. There also was a quantity of chilled beef. No war munitions were carried.

King George Back In London, Better

London, Nov. 1.—(I. N. S.)—King George of England, who was thrown from a horse recently and badly injured while reviewing his troops, arrived at Buckingham palace this evening. He was fatigued, but stood the journey well and suffered no ill effects.

Wets Expected to Win in Ohio.

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 1.—(U. P.)—Betting odds favored the wets today to carry tomorrow's liquor election test. Liquor interests looked to the larger cities, particularly Cincinnati and Cleveland, to overcome any advantage gained by the drys in the state at large.

Steamer Toward Probably Sunk.

London, Nov. 1.—(I. N. S.)—The British steamship Toward, registering 290 tons, has been sunk, presumably by a German submarine, according to announcement here today. The crew was saved.

SEEK SUBSTITUTE FOR THE SALOON WHEN THE STATE GOES 'DRY'

Church Cooperation in Matter of Revivals Also Suggested by R. P. Hutton.

PLANS ARE DISCUSSED

House to House Canvass to Swell Attendance at Church Also Is Recommended.

A plan for capitalizing Oregon dry has been advanced to the churches of the state by R. P. Hutton, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, that may result in a statewide evangelical campaign after January 1.

Mr. Hutton explained his plan to the members of the Portland General Ministerial association this morning and met with an interdenominational committee this afternoon.

"God has prepared a time when revivals should be held all over the world," declared Mr. Hutton this morning, pointing out how the war was bringing converts into the churches of Europe and how prohibition in other states has resulted in successful evangelism.

Substitutions Sought.

"You must do something for the men who have made the saloon their club and general rendezvous," said he. "With the saloon out of business the time comes for providing a substitute and showing the saloon frequenter the way to righteous and rightful living.

"The evening of December 31 is the time to begin to take care of those men who make the last night of a 'wet' Oregon a debauch. If the churches will get together, hold big revivals and push the movement many souls can be saved to Christ."

Mr. Hutton suggested house-to-house canvass of Portland as well in order to get back to the churches those who are lax in church attendance.

His plan was unanimously indorsed by the members of the association present with a recommendation that the details of the campaign be left to the interdenominational committee.

Several of the pastors present proposed all-night union meetings to which men might be invited to watch out the old year in place of the saloon and the grill.

Others proposed going into the saloons and giving cards to frequenters with invitations to come to their churches promising sandwiches and coffee and a better time than could be had in the saloons.

Plans Are Discussed.

Many thought, however, that a debauch could not be prevented in Portland New Year's Eve and that most of the saloon frequenters would not be in a condition to attend a church service.

Several demanded that Billy Sunday be brought here for the month of January for a great big, evangelistic campaign, asserting that a professional evangelist was absolutely necessary to get results as prospective converts had to be pounded until they were shown the right way.

"The average minister doesn't know any more about conducting a revival than a dog does of Latin," declared the Rev. Benedict of Vancouver, Wash.

Mr. Hutton's proposition seemed to meet with general favor and if an evangelistic campaign is carried on it will probably be through union meetings held in the different sections of the city.

Eastern Oregon Man Bound and Robbed

Baker, Or., Nov. 1.—Fred Springer, arrested last night at Ontario, charged with robbing Charles Adams of McEwen of $165, after binding and gagging him in Adams' house, was brought here this morning by Deputy Sheriff Nelson.

The robbery took place Sunday morning. Adams engaged Springer to work for him several days ago. Sunday Springer went to the barn, made Adams saddle a horse, and then forced Adams, a gun's end, into the house, where he bound and gagged him.

Soon after Springer left Adams freed himself by rubbing the rope shackles against a saw hanging on the wall, and notified the authorities. Word was sent out and Springer was apprehended a few hours later.

Springer boasted to Adams, when tying him, that he was "Hugh Whitney," the noted outlaw.

Adams had befriended Springer, buying him clothes and giving him employment when he was down and out.

The case will go before the grand jury, now in session.
