

May Indict Many
In Smuggling Case

Commissioner of Immigration White Takes Personal Charge of Investigation Involving Chinese.
San Francisco, Nov. 2.—(P. N. S.)—Several indictments will result from the grand jury investigation into the Mongolian Chinese smuggling case, according to the prediction today of Commissioner of Immigration Edward White, who yesterday assumed active charge of the investigation. Assisted by District Attorney Preston, White today is examining many immigration department employees, who, it is believed, can throw light upon the bold attempt at smuggling on the Mongolian and previous similar episodes which were successful. Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti, due today from Washington, also is expected to immediately take a hand in the investigation.
