IS YOUR LIFE WORTH LIVING?

By Dr. Frank L. Loveland, Pastor of First Methodist Church.

Christianity is the divine agency for working the subsoil out of the system, that one may become less a beast and more a god. If a man or woman lives an animal life-that life is not worth living. "Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we die," is the creed of the swill trough. The life that incorporated the Decalogue, the Beatitudes and the "Mountain Sermon" is alone worth living.
