PORTLAND MECCA OF METHODIST BISHOPS DURING NEXT WEEK

Three Come Here to Take Part in Conference and Two to Visit Friends,

Five bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church will be in Portland during the coming week. Of these, three will participate in the all day meeting to be held at First church, Wednesday, under the auspices of the Methodist forward movement. One will visit here all day on Tuesday, while the fifth will arrive next Saturday and will probably preach in the First church Sunday morning, leaving here late Monday for the east.

Tuesday morning, Bishop David H. Moore, for four years in charge of the Methodist church in the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, will arrive and pass the day with friends. In the evening he will be at the Virginia Hill, where he will be pleased to meet his army of friends made during his residence here. The venerable bishop is still hale and hearty and one of the active members of the episcopacy.

Wednesday morning, Bishops T. S. Henderson, W. O. Shepard and R. J. Cooke will arrive at 8:15 o'clock, Bishops Henderson and Shepard will be the guests of Dr. Frank L. Loveland and District Superintendent J. W. Mc-Dougall for the day. They will leave in the evening for Seattle. During the day, three meetings will be held at First church, presided over by Bishop Henderson as president of the general conference committee on Evangelism. in charge of the Methodist forward movement. One meeting will be held in the forenoon, one in the afternoon and the final session in the evening. The three bishops will be the principal speakers. Next Saturday morning, Bishop Earl Cranston, for eight years in charge of this territory, and the immediate predecessor of Hishop Moore, will arrive. He will be the guest of Dr. Loveland and, if present plans carry, will occupy the pulpit of First church Sunday morning.

Bishop Cranston first came to Portland in 1898, having been placed in charge of this Upis opal area by the general conference. He was here until 1904 when he was succeeded by Bishop Moore, Next came Bishop Smith, who remained four years. Bishop Cooke was appointed in 1912 and closes in
