Harriman Line Objects to Rental Terms Granted S., P. & S. by Public Body.

VALUATION IS SET OUT

Pay Reasonable Part of Operating and Maintenance Cost,

The controversy which followed the construction of the new railroad bridge between the O-W. R. & N. company, which built the bridge, and the S., P. & S. company regarding use of the bridge by the latter was revived in Circuit Judge Kavanaugh's court. The O-W. R. & N. company is seeking to enjoin the enforcement of the award of the public service commission which granted the S., P. & S. company the use on payment of $1.70 per locomo tive and $5 cents per freight car to cross the structure, with a monthly minimum of $500. The bridge has been used by the P. & S. company during the pendency of the suit under a stipulation which it agrees to settle in accordance with the final outcome of the proceedings. The O-W. R. & N. com pany objects to the findings of the commission, on the grounds that the compensation fixed is not reasonable that the S., P & S. company is not a railroad insofar as its traffic is considered in connection with the crossing of the river under consideration, because the crossing is desired only for switching purposes, and that the making its award exceeded its jurisdiction.

The valuation of the entire bridge was stipulated to exceed $1,700,000, and of the railroad portion to exceed asserts that its competitor should pay a reasonable part of the operating, maintenance and depreciation expenses, and either a fixed sum repreor a pro rata portion of 6 per cent interest on the valuation of the railroad

Bourne Charges Secretary of Treasury With Shifting Nation's Balance-Charge Untrue, Says McAdoo.

Washington, Nov. 16.—(U. P.)—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo was charged today by ex-Senator Jonathan Bourne of Oregon with shifting figures and concealing the true financial condition of the government. The shift, according to Bourne, was over $100,000,000. Harvey Chase, a certified public ac untant, swore to this analysis of McAdoo's figures, charging that the balance of the general fund October 23 was actually about $3,500,000, in-stead of more than $117,500,000, as McAdoo figured. > No Work for Transients. Oregon City, Or., Nov. 16 .- There is absolutely no work for non-residents of Oregon City and vicinity at the West Linn paper mills, said mill officials here this morning. The report which has gone broadcast that more men were being put to work, has caused many transients to come fruitlessly in search of work. Yesterday morning 103 men applied for work and only three were given it. The time for the annual resumption of the pulp mills has arrived and this means more work, but the regular force is always recruited from Oregon City people, said the official.

OTHER DECISIONS TODAY

Motion to Dismiss Appeal in Northwestern Telephone Trust Case Is Denied.

Salem, Or., Nov. 16 .- The supreme ourt today reversed one of its own departments and Circuit Judge McGinn of Multnomah county, and held that an agreement on which J. W. Taggart claimed a commission from J. N. Hunter and William Staatz for the sale of timber lands in Crook county was void because it did not state the consideration Taggart was to receive. In arriving at the decision of today the court sat en banc.

Justice Benson wrote the opinion handed down today and Justice Bean, who wrote the previous opinion, upholding Taggart, dissented.

"However we may regard the statutes of our state, we are not at liberty to repeal them by interpretation," said Justice Benson in his opinion.

The court held today that a real estate broker cannot recover unless he has a written memorandum, signed by his employer, specifying the land he is to sell and the compensation he is to receive for the sale. The memoran dum in the case was either lost or de stroyed, and secondary evidence of its ontents was submitted.

The court holds that because there was no price stipulated for the services of Taggart, the memorandum was not sufficient to take the case out of the statute of frauds.
