TODAY'S BEAUTY SUGGESTIONS

Face powder simply covers up an unattractive complexion and leaves no lasting benefits. Those who have tried a simple spumax face lotion find it much better, as it removes skin discolorations, such as freckles and tan, and makes the skin smooth, white and velvety. This lotion is made by dissolving four ounces of spumax in one-half pint hot water, then adding two teaspoonfuls glycerin. This complexion beautifier does not rub off or show like powder, and gives a more refined appearance. It removes both shininess and sallowness, rapidly giving the skin a permanent healthy, youthful appearance.

An especially fine shampoo for this weather can be had at trifling expense by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. Pour slowly on scalp and massage briskly. This creates a soothing, cooling lather that dissolves and removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt. Rinsing leaves the scalp spotlessly clean, soft and pliant, while the hair takes on a glossy richness of natural color, also a fluffiness which makes it seem very much heavier than it is. After a canthrox shampoo arranging the hair is a pleasure. (Adv.)

Ivan Alumnae and the Collegiate Alumnae also have boxes arranged for the Multnomah club, sections for the high school students, and one for the A. C. A. as well as sections for various local organizations, including the Rotary club, the Ad Men's club and the Progressive Business Men's club and the Healy Board. The fraternities and sororities that have boxes are: Beta Theta Pi, Chi Psi, Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Chi, Kappa Alpha Theta, Tri Delta, Zeta Psi, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Phi, Chi Omega, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Beta Phi, Delta Gamma and Gamma Phi Beta.

The three high schools are in the hands of a committee including: Miss Emma Wold at Lincoln, Miss Ruth Dunway at Washington and Miss Agnes Bench at Jefferson. The schools will be represented, having sections reserved for them and a "sell" contest will be held with trophies given. Carl Knudson is in charge at Lincoln, Gerald Stevens at Washington and Harry Kenin at Jefferson.

The wedding of Miss Ella Strong and Charles Channing Carson took place yesterday at the home of the bride, Stronhold, near Skamokawa, Wash. It was a simply appointed affair, with only the relatives present. Both bride and bridegroom are prominent in Portland society, and will make their home here.

Miss Nancy Zan made her formal bow to Portland society Thursday afternoon at an elaborately appointed reception from 3 until 6 o'clock given by her mother, Mrs. Don Zan, at their home, on Willamette Heights. Several hundred invitations were issued for the event, and the Zan home was thronged with guests throughout the afternoon. In the evening about 30 maids and men of society gathered for dancing, rounding out the day's pleasures.

Miss Zan is a charming girl, a pretty brunette, and she was a veritable picture in her gown of white tulle, made with full skirt and high waist, the girde-like bodice being made of cloth of silver, combined with tulle. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of tiny flowers in pastel tints. Mrs. Zan was handsomely gowned in white satin, with drapery of lace and crystal headed trimming. The house was a bower of lovely flowers, the floral gifts to the attractive debutante. In the drawing room were masses of chrysanthemums, roses, violets and orchids making a beautiful setting for the affair. During the first hour Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Mrs. Wilbur E. Cooman presided at the party, the feature of which was a broad bowl of pink roses and maiden-hair ferns. During the second hour Mrs. Carl L. Wendicke and Mrs. E. Crumpacker presided. The hostess assisted about the rooms by Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Philip Carroll, Misses Rhoda Rumelin, Ruth Teal, Dorothy Strowbridge, Margaret Ayer, Gies Nickerson, Sara McCully, Virginia McDonough, Catherine Russell, V'ona Guthrie, Grace Peters and Elizabeth Jones.
