

APPENINGS IN SOCIETY

German prisoners in Siberia. All who are interested in the cause are requested to join the society and assist in the work. Mrs. Theresa Abendroth is president of the auxiliary.

Tuesday afternoon the ladies of the Laurelhurst club held their regular afternoon card party. Mrs. Alex. Oliver and Mrs. Thas. Riegler acting as hostesses for the afternoon. The fortunate winners at bridge were Mrs. Emil Nelson and Mrs. Robert Adams; at 500, Mrs. Ferdinand Reed and Mrs. E. L. Long.

During the refreshment hour Mrs. John Adams gave two vocal selections, accompanied by Mrs. H. F. Ong. The next card party will be held on Tuesday afternoon, November 30. Mrs. Russell Clark and Mrs. Jack Hoban will act as hostesses on that date. The members of the Laurelhurst club wish to announce that the big dance and musicale to be given at the Multnomah hotel on November 24, will be informal as well as formal.

J. Frank Shea, Jr., arrived last week to pass 10 days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Shea, at their residence in Johnson street. Mr. Shea has been living in New York City for the past three years, doing dramatic work. He has a host of friends among the younger set, who are welcoming him home.

Mrs. Harry J. Murphy was a hostess last week at a series of parties, honoring her sister, Mrs. Blanche Bosa, who has left to pass the winter in California. Mrs. Murphy's guest list included: Mesdames Richard Williams, H. F. Ong, R. L. Adams, Frank Waller, W. A. Teutsch, Loran Dedwell, John M. Sineclair, Carolyn Travis, R. S. Hard, Stella Crow, Charles Ringier, George Bigelow, F. L. Schanz, William Anderson, C. E. Richards, A. G. Wallace, Viola Able, A. Jeffrey, Harry Barker, Harry Meyers, N. P. Sorenson, McNeerney, Frank Woodard, F. C. Young, H. C. Dewey, Fred Adams, George Blatner, William Adams, M. F. Gratton, W. A. Elvers, Carl Liebe, E. N. Crockett, Charles Foster, Misses Jennie Grey, Gusta Backie, Florence Ellwanger, Margaret Davies, Plunger, Laura Farrier and Lillian Farrel.

The Rev. and Mrs. John E. H. Simpson were honored Tuesday evening with a surprise party, given by a table prettily decked with chrysanthemums. The guests were, for the most part, former school mates of the hostess, and a delightful afternoon was passed in pleasant reminiscences.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burke have left for an extensive trip including San Francisco, southern California and possibly Honolulu before their return. Accompanying the Burkes were Miss G. D. Betteledge of Albany, N. Y., who has been their guest for the past two months at the Mallory.

Miss Helen Whitney is the house guest of Miss Ellen Thielsen at Salem. She will pass several weeks with Miss Thielsen, and will doubtless be the inspiration for much entertaining.

Mrs. H. G. Campbell, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Perkins, is now visiting in Salem with Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, where she will pass a week before returning to her home at the coast, west of Eugene.

Mrs. H. O. Hickox and little son have returned home from a six weeks' trip to California. After seeing the exposition, they enjoyed a visit with relatives and friends in San Jose.

Mrs. W. H. Dancy, of Salem, has returned home after an extended visit here with her mother, Mrs. M. J. Creighton.

Mrs. W. A. MacEacham arrived last week from the east to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Churchill.

Dr. W. P. Mills of Missoula, Mont., Mrs. N. J. Gaud and Mrs. J. M. Price of Helena, Mont., are registered at the Mallory.

Senator and Mrs. Harry Lane will leave Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where they will be domiciled while congress is in session.

Dr. Mable Buland Campbell, of Kalama, Wash., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. L. Buland.

The Saint Rose Social club gave a dancing party last night at Rose City lark clubhouse.

Miss Reta Bates left Wednesday on the Beaver for San Francisco and the exposition.

Mrs. Edith Fallenius has taken apartments for the winter at the Nortonia.

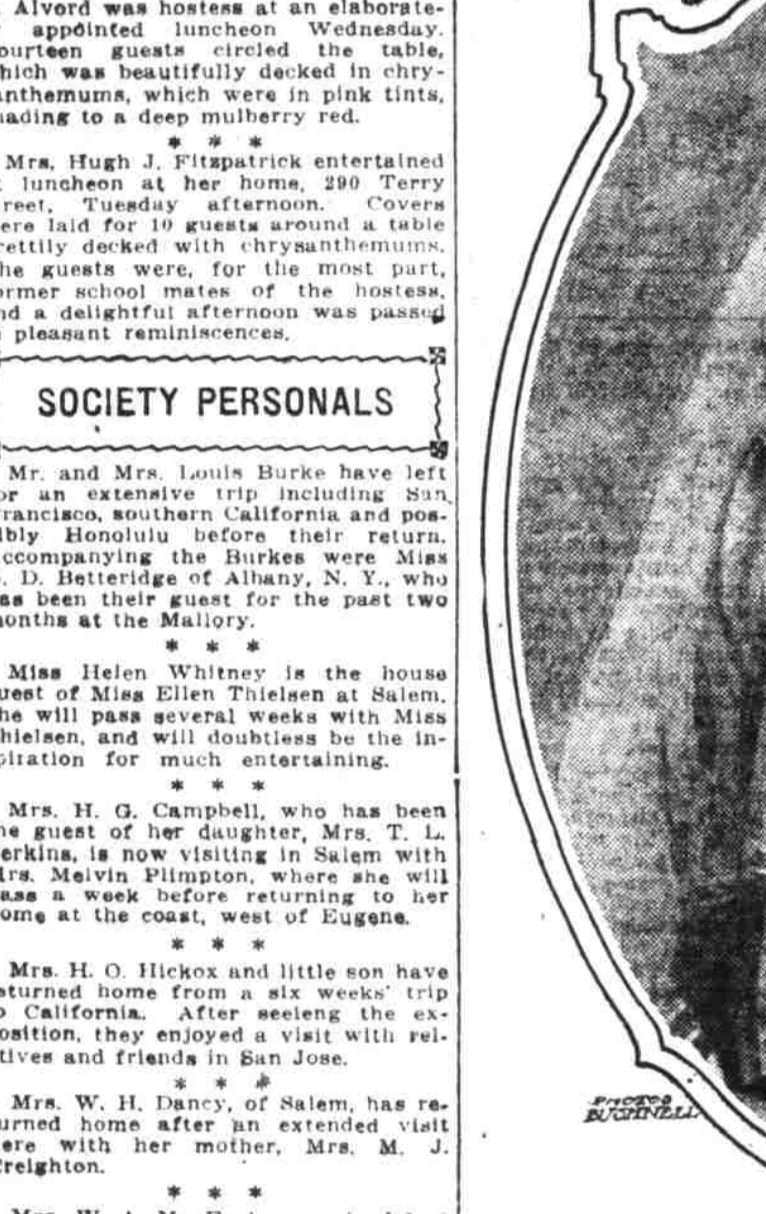

Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Clark and Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Clark's mother, have moved in from the Clark's country

MRS ADOLF SUTTER (NEE DUNLER)

MRS JOHN ALBERT BECKWITH (NEE CHAPIN)

MRS HARRY FOSTER CHAPIN (NEE BECKWITH)

C. Alvord was hostess at an elaborately appointed luncheon Wednesday. Fourteen guests circled the table, which was beautifully decked in chrysanthemums, which were in pink tints, shading to a deep mulberry red.

Mrs. Hugh J. Fitzpatrick entertained at luncheon at her home, 290 Terry street, Tuesday afternoon. Covers were laid for 10 guests around a table prettily decked with chrysanthemums. The guests were, for the most part, former school mates of the hostess, and a delightful afternoon was passed in pleasant reminiscences.

Mrs. W. A. MacEacham arrived last week from the east to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Churchill.

Dr. W. P. Mills of Missoula, Mont., Mrs. N. J. Gaud and Mrs. J. M. Price of Helena, Mont., are registered at the Mallory.

Senator and Mrs. Harry Lane will leave Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where they will be domiciled while congress is in session.

Dr. Mable Buland Campbell, of Kalama, Wash., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. L. Buland.

place on the Oregon City line and will spend the remainder of the winter at the Hotel Mallory.

WEDDINGS

Miss Anna Sigel has gone to Kansas City for a 10 day visit among relatives.

Mrs. Bertha Marie Reinstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reinstein, and John Lee Jacobs of San Francisco were united in marriage last Sunday evening at an elaborate ceremony, Rabbi Jonah B. Wise officiating. More than 100 guests, including many out of town visitors from California and New York, witnessed the services. Mr. Reinstein gave his daughter in marriage and she was attended by Miss Hanna Friedenthal, as maid of honor, and Miss Anita May, bridesmaid, with Roy Feldenheimer acting as best man. The bride's gown was an imported model of ivory satin and elaborations of rarely beautiful hand made lace and ropes of pearls. It was built on princess lines with under flouncings of silver thread lace. Her veil was draped from the back of her coiffure with a wreath of orange blossoms, circling her head. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and tulips.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs have left for California, where they will tour the southern part of the state before settling in their home at San Francisco. Mr. Jacobs has extensive business interests in California and comes of a prominent San Francisco family. The wedding is the culmination of a romance which began when the couple were in college at Berkeley.

At a prettily appointed wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Money, in Gladstone, Wednesday, their daughter, Marion, became the bride of William Yates Farnsworth of Camas, Wash. The Episcopal rite ceremony was performed by Rev. H. N. Smith, of the Federated Congregational church of Oregon City. Miss Marjorie Money, the bride's sister, acted as bridesmaid. C. S. Stevey, of Camas, was best man. Proceeding the ceremony "Because" was sung by Miss Moretta Hickman. Miss Louise Huntley played the wedding march. The bridal party stood under an arch of white chrysanthemums and green. The color scheme carried out in all the decorations was white and green. The bride wore white crepe de chine and bridal veil wreathed with real orange blossoms in her hair, which were sent from Los Angeles by a friend, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Marjorie Money wore flesh colored crepe de chine and carried yellow rosebuds. At the informal reception held Rev. J. D. Neelan, of Portland, proposed a toast to the bride. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth will make their home at Camas, where he is connected with the Crown-Williamette Paper company.

On Wednesday evening, the seventeenth, Mrs. Juliette Harris was married to Benjamin L. Markes by Father O'Hara. The bride is well known in Portland where she has resided for the past year. She formerly lived at Baker City, Oregon, and Walla Walla, Wash. She is a member of the Cathedral choir, as is her husband, who is the Pacific Coast representative of the Monarch Stove company. Immediately after the ceremony a dinner was given to a few friends at the Benson hotel, and the bride and bridegroom left on the midnight train for a visit to the San Francisco and San Diego fairs and a tour of southern California, which will be made partly by auto. They will be gone from six to eight weeks when they will return to make this city their home.

Arthur D. Callaghan and Miss Beulah Haseldene Wright were married at the Holy Rosary church Wednesday morning in the presence of the immediate family. Rev. Father Chamberlain officiated, reading the ceremony and then saying the nuptial mass. All the appointments of the affair were quite simple. The couple were attended by Mrs. John Wright, a sister-in-law of the bride, and John Callaghan, a brother of the bridegroom. Miss Agnes Senn played the wedding march, and Miss Edith Elyan sang during the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wright, of Gresham.

The bridal party went to the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Callaghan, at 383 Williams avenue, where the services at the church, where a wedding breakfast was served.

Albert Lindquist, superintendent of the composing room, of the Evening Telegram, was united in marriage at The Dalles last Wednesday to Miss Jessie Kratzer, of Altona, Pa., who recently came from her eastern home to visit a cousin, L. L. McCartney, at The Dalles. Rev. Leon L. Myers, pastor of the Christian church at that place, was the officiating minister, the ceremony taking place at the McCartney residence. Mr. and Mrs. Lindquist will be at home to their friends at the Barker apartments.

Tuesday evening, the wedding of Miss Ellen Evelyn Nystrum and Anton Oulick took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ritter, 546 Gantenbein avenue. Rev. J. Richard Olson read the ceremony in the presence of a large circle of the friends of the couple. Miss Jennie G. Hansen and Stephen E. Westover attended the couple. A bounteous wedding supper was served after the ceremony to the assembled guests. Mr. and Mrs. Oulick will make their home in Portland at 584 Gantenbein avenue.

Arnoldus Pedersen and Miss Petra Homseth were married on Saturday evening, November 6, at the St. James Lutheran parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Hansens were the witnesses.

Miss Ivy Dick of this city and David McLaren of Burns, Or., were married at the Emanuel Lutheran parsonage, 150 North Nineteenth street, last the bride's sister, acted as bridesmaid. C. S. Stevey, of Camas, was best man. Proceeding the ceremony "Because" was sung by Miss Moretta Hickman. Miss Louise Huntley played the wedding march. The bridal party stood under an arch of white chrysanthemums and green. The color scheme carried out in all the decorations was white and green. The bride wore white crepe de chine and bridal veil wreathed with real orange blossoms in her hair, which were sent from Los Angeles by a friend, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Marjorie Money wore flesh colored crepe de chine and carried yellow rosebuds. At the informal reception held Rev. J. D. Neelan, of Portland, proposed a toast to the bride. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth will make their home at Camas, where he is connected with the Crown-Williamette Paper company.

On Wednesday evening, the seventeenth, Mrs. Juliette Harris was married to Benjamin L. Markes by Father O'Hara. The bride is well known in Portland where she has resided for the past year. She formerly lived at Baker City, Oregon, and Walla Walla, Wash. She is a member of the Cathedral choir, as is her husband, who is the Pacific Coast representative of the Monarch Stove company. Immediately after the ceremony a dinner was given to a few friends at the Benson hotel, and the bride and bridegroom left on the midnight train for a visit to the San Francisco and San Diego fairs and a tour of southern California, which will be made partly by auto. They will be gone from six to eight weeks when they will return to make this city their home.

Arthur D. Callaghan and Miss Beulah Haseldene Wright were married at the Holy Rosary church Wednesday morning in the presence of the immediate family. Rev. Father Chamberlain officiated, reading the ceremony and then saying the nuptial mass. All the appointments of the affair were quite simple. The couple were attended by Mrs. John Wright, a sister-in-law of the bride, and John Callaghan, a brother of the bridegroom. Miss Agnes Senn played the wedding march, and Miss Edith Elyan sang during the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wright, of Gresham.

The bridal party went to the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Callaghan, at 383 Williams avenue, where the services at the church, where a wedding breakfast was served.

Albert Lindquist, superintendent of the composing room, of the Evening Telegram, was united in marriage at The Dalles last Wednesday to Miss Jessie Kratzer, of Altona, Pa., who recently came from her eastern home to visit a cousin, L. L. McCartney, at The Dalles. Rev. Leon L. Myers, pastor of the Christian church at that place, was the officiating minister, the ceremony taking place at the McCartney residence. Mr. and Mrs. Lindquist will be at home to their friends at the Barker apartments.

Tuesday evening, the wedding of Miss Ellen Evelyn Nystrum and Anton Oulick took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ritter, 546 Gantenbein avenue. Rev. J. Richard Olson read the ceremony in the presence of a large circle of the friends of the couple. Miss Jennie G. Hansen and Stephen E. Westover attended the couple. A bounteous wedding supper was served after the ceremony to the assembled guests. Mr. and Mrs. Oulick will make their home in Portland at 584 Gantenbein avenue.

Arnoldus Pedersen and Miss Petra Homseth were married on Saturday evening, November 6, at the St. James Lutheran parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Hansens were the witnesses.

Miss Ivy Dick of this city and David McLaren of Burns, Or., were married at the Emanuel Lutheran parsonage, 150 North Nineteenth street, last

MRS HARRY J MURPHY

Sunday morning, Rev. J. Richard Olson officiated and the witnesses were Mrs. Anna Rodgers and M. E. Rodgers. The couple will make their home at Burns.

Casper Christiansen of Astoria and Miss Evelyn Jensen were married at St. James' Lutheran parsonage on Thursday, November 11. Mr. and Mrs. J. George Kelter were the witnesses. The young couple will make their home at Astoria.

Vier H. Fuchs and Miss Ella J. Jensen were united in marriage at St. James' Lutheran parsonage on Saturday evening, November 6. The wedding was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hauser.

A surprise kitchen shower was given at the home of Miss Grace Hastorf, 326 Benton street, Saturday, November 13, in honor of Miss Francis Anderer, bride-elect. Huge bouquets of yellow and lavender chrysanthemums, as well as yellow ribbon, were used as decorations, and in the dining room, where a dainty luncheon was served, was elaborate with ribbon and bouquets of the color, pretty place cards marked the places of the guests. The evening was spent with music and song. Several beautiful piano selections were rendered by Miss Minnie Portello and Miss Emma Hinkle. Those present were: Francis Anderer, Gertrude Christensen, Esther Repp, Eleanor Williams, Helene Buelow, Emma Hinkle, Mrs. Hinstorf, Mrs. Frank Churchill, Isabella Hastorf, Genevieve Prudell and Minnie Portello.

Misses Bertha Wylder and Elizabeth Singleton entertained their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hedley, 105 East sixty-second street, Wednesday evening, November 17. A pretty color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations. Much merriment was caused by an auction sale, Mrs. E. R. Singleton acting as auctioneer, and other games followed, which, with music and several

(Continued on Following Page)

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Burke have left for an extensive trip including San Francisco, southern California and possibly Honolulu before their return. Accompanying the Burkes were Miss G. D. Betteledge of Albany, N. Y., who has been their guest for the past two months at the Mallory.

Miss Helen Whitney is the house guest of Miss Ellen Thielsen at Salem. She will pass several weeks with Miss Thielsen, and will doubtless be the inspiration for much entertaining.

Mrs. H. G. Campbell, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Perkins, is now visiting in Salem with Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, where she will pass a week before returning to her home at the coast, west of Eugene.

Mrs. H. O. Hickox and little son have returned home from a six weeks' trip to California. After seeing the exposition, they enjoyed a visit with relatives and friends in San Jose.

Mrs. W. H. Dancy, of Salem, has returned home after an extended visit here with her mother, Mrs. M. J. Creighton.

Mrs. W. A. MacEacham arrived last week from the east to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Churchill.

Dr. W. P. Mills of Missoula, Mont., Mrs. N. J. Gaud and Mrs. J. M. Price of Helena, Mont., are registered at the Mallory.

Senator and Mrs. Harry Lane will leave Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where they will be domiciled while congress is in session.

Dr. Mable Buland Campbell, of Kalama, Wash., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. L. Buland.

The Saint Rose Social club gave a dancing party last night at Rose City lark clubhouse.

Miss Reta Bates left Wednesday on the Beaver for San Francisco and the exposition.

Mrs. Edith Fallenius has taken apartments for the winter at the Nortonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Clark and Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Clark's mother, have moved in from the Clark's country

Furs

at Popular Prices

Our stock is the largest and best selected styles in Portland. The quality and workmanship always unequalled. Think and compare.

Red Fox Animal Boas $8.75 for

Red Fox Sets, with new Barrel Muff $18.75

Fine selection of small Neckpieces in all Furs $2.25 and up for

Grey Fox Sets on sale at $12.75

Our Prices Always the Lowest.

We Pay Highest Prices for Raw Furs

COMPARE

HUDSON BAY FUR CO.

Reliable Furriers
111 Broadway, Near Washington

THERE is an individuality and distinction to Gill's Holiday Greeting Cards—in engraving style—in design and decoration "they are different!"

Many hundred varieties await your inspection. Prices most reasonable. Place your order early.

Engraved Stationery, Cards, Announcements
Magazine Floor

Gill's

The J. K. Gill Co., Booksellers, Stationers and Complete Office Outfitters.

A Frolaset Corset for the First Time at $2.50

--The makers of this famous corset are now offering a model for the first time at less than $3.50. These new

Frolaset

Frö Lä Say
Front Laced Corsets

—Now to be had in the new, big Meier & Frank Company Corset Store.

—Tomorrow there will be several new models—all on the lines approved by famous corsetieres for Winter!

—Our expert corsetieres will find the "Frolaset" that best fills the needs of your individual style.

Model No. 1416 1/2 Price $2.50

Model No. 1420, Price $3

—Third Floor, Sixth Street

Meier & Frank Co.

1807 THE QUALITY STORE OF PORTLAND

Surgical Corset Fitting a Specialty

Engraving
PRINTING
WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS
INVITATIONS
PROGRAMS
AND STATIONERY

Kilham