Home - Coming Week at U. of O.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Ore., Nov. 20.—The home-coming in spirited colors that the rain could not dampen, is entertaining the week-end in a manner unparalleled in the history of the university.

The guests started things when they reached Eugene. The "peppert" Friday night is generally conceded as the best ever. Five hundred fans serpentine through the streets. On Kincaid field the huge rain-soaked freshman fire was made combustible by oil.

When the fire died down the fans assembled in Villard hall where for two and a half hours "pop-instilling" stunts, took place. "Beauty" Robinson, Oregon, ex-scell leader, and Arthur Van Dusen, one of Oregon's noted rosters, mounted the rostrum and drew powerful "osicles" from the students.

Saturday the alumni were guests at a university luncheon. After the game there was an informal get-together at the Eugene Commercial club rooms.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How to Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds. You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no hawking, snuffing, muffled discharges, dryness, no struggling for breath at night. Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. Let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly. It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay snuffed up and miserable. (Adv.)

President Kerr will address the tenth annual conference of older boys of the Salem Y. M. C. A. on November 28, his subject being "The Marks of Manhood in America."

In his convocation address on Wednesday, Rev. W. B. Hinson of the Portland "White Temple" spoke of the four taboos that are the measure of manhood: first, the world's judgment, which though important both directly and indirectly, and to be jealously guarded, is least important; second, the friend's judgment, more accurate, more influential, more truly constructive of future manhood; third, the self's judgment, more intimate, more nearly final, but subject to error and deception; fourth, God's judgment, ultimate and absolute. The address was inspiring to all listeners. The Madrigal club and the Cadet band gave musical selections.

Intercollegiate events between eastern colleges and western are not limited to athletics; debate between Oregon Agricultural college students and students of the North Dakota Agricultural college, Fargo, N. He was accompanied by Commissioners Stone and Jack, and W. L. Finley, the state biologist, who made the college collection.

"Go To School" Days at Gresham

Novel Plan Introduced.

Gresham, Ore., Nov. 20.—The new Union high school building at Gresham is a modern pressed brick structure costing $25,000, and is well equipped. A standard electric program clock was installed at the beginning of the school year, which does much toward securing punctuality and system in the work. The large assembly hall is equipped with stationary desks and is more comfortable and more attractive than any other in Oregon.

The domestic science and manual training departments are furnished with the latest and best supplies necessary for the most practical work in these vocational subjects. A large number of students are taking advantage of the opportunities afforded them in these departments.

125 Students Enrolled. The school has an enrollment of nearly 125 students, which is 25 per cent above the number of students expected, and which taxes the new building to its capacity. There are five districts, three of which have students enrolled from other districts and counties.

Athletic sports are entirely secondary to the regular school work, and are engaged in for the physical culture to be derived from them by the students, and not for notoriety or advertisement of the school. The school, however, has a good football team, which has won some victories this season, and other sports, such as basketball and track teams, will be encouraged under faculty supervision.

The school has recently organized a high school orchestra, and different chorus clubs for the benefit of students desiring instruction in instrumental and vocal music. A school play in keeping with the high ideals of the school will be staged later for the benefit of the students and the public.

"Go to School" Days. The first three days of Thanksgiving week have been set apart as "Go to School" days, on which days patrons and friends of the school will be invited to visit and inspect the school in regular sessions.

Visitors will have an opportunity to witness regular class work as it is done every school day. This invitation is intended to be the forerunner of another one to the same people later for the purpose of forming a parent-teacher association.

The faculty is composed of eight experienced teachers, who are graduates of 12 of the leading normal schools and universities of the country. Each teacher is teaching the subjects for which she has made special preparation, and is free to make the most of her department, with the injunction from the principal that "a teacher is measured by results."

The board of education is composed of five of the most progressive men in union high school district No. 2, with Mayor George W. Stapleton as chairman and Karl A. Miller, cashier of the Bank of Gresham, as clerk.

McMinnville College. I. B. Rhodes, traveling secretary for the Pacific Northwest Y. M. C. A., delivered a talk before the college association recently.

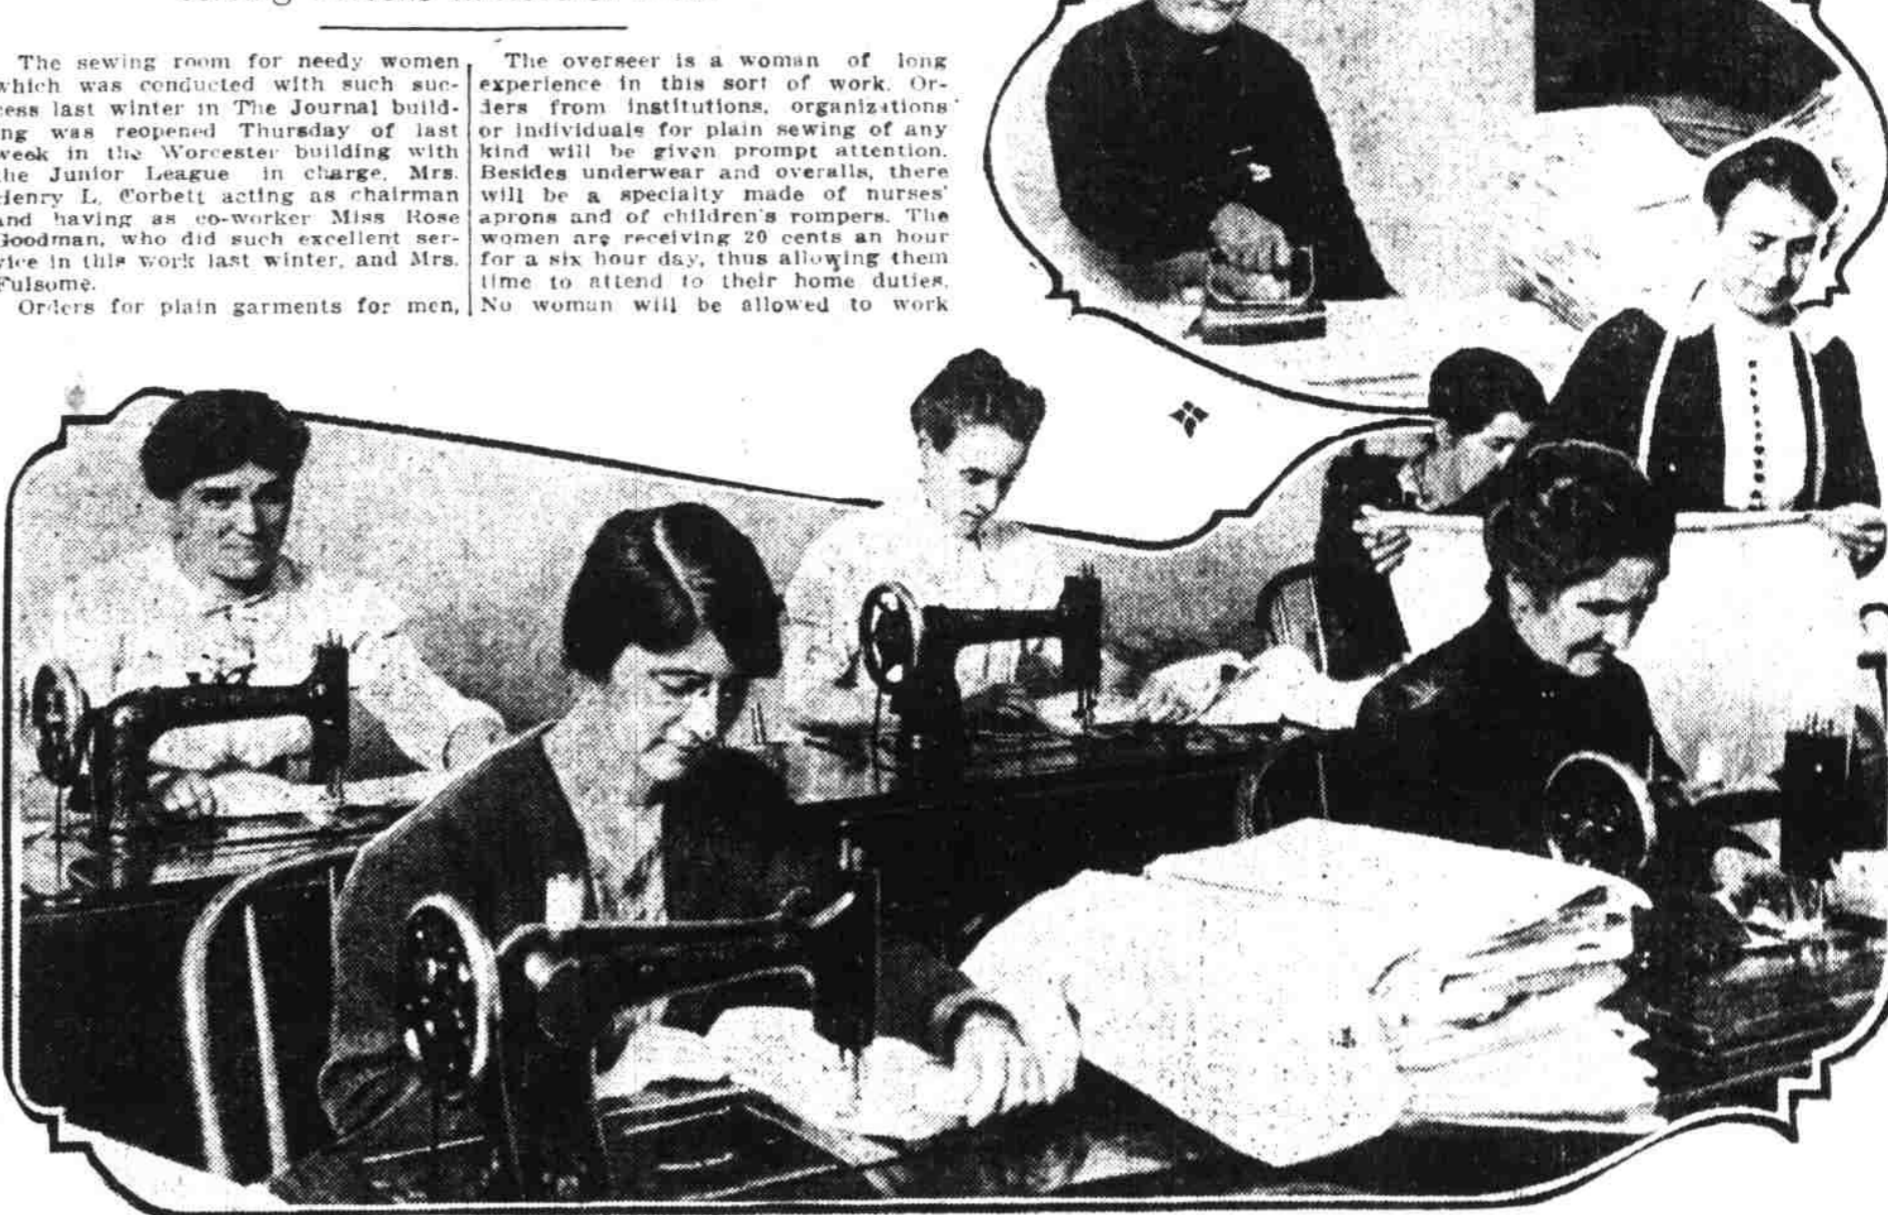

McMinnville, Ore., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Potter is again in charge of the men's glee club and this year the organization is considered one of the best in years. The boys appeared at the Baptist church recently and showed splendid control and tone quality. They are planning to accompany Dr. Myron Haynes, financial secretary of the college, who is working for the new endowment.

Curtis P. Coe, professor of education at McMinnville college, is collecting material for a library in connection with his department. He aims to secure books and other literature of social interest to his classes in pedagogy. For research work he has already obtained reports from the state and municipal bureaus of education, courses of study used in the leading elementary and secondary schools of the country; reports of the Rockefeller foundation and other data of practical value. The new library is distinct from the regular library maintained by the college.

Dr. Myron Haynes, financial secretary of the college, has left for eastern Washington, where he is to conduct a six months' campaign in the interest of the college endowment fund. S. & H. Trading Stamps

Every day of every year, some woman, somewhere, is writing us grateful letters for restoration to health. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read this Letter from Mrs. Waters. CAMDEN, N. J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, No. 550 Mechanic Street, Camden, New Jersey. This from Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I. PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and I overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. RICHMOND, 199 Waldo Street, Providence, Rhode Island. Every sick woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E.
