

FIVE PORTLAND BOYS TO PLAY WITH OREGON AGAINST MULTNOMAH

Youthful Stars Who Were Graduated From Local Schools Returning.

LEWIS MILLS TURNS OUT

Former Harvard Star in Multnomah's Line-Club Eleven Discloses So Much Greater Fondness.

Five former Portland interscholastic league football stars will be in the lineup of the University of Oregon team Thursday afternoon, when Hugo Bezdek's players clash with the "Winged M" players in the annual Turkey Day game on Multnomah Field. They are Jack Beckett and Lloyd Teagart, ex-Washington linemen; Jake Risley, ex-Hill Military Academy center, and Sterling Spellman and Bob Malarkey, ex-Columbia players. Bill Musack, a former Lincoln backfield man, will be one of the Oregon substitutes. Anson Cornell, former captain of the Washington team, is captain of the Lemon-Yellow team this year, but he will not be able to get into the game on account of his knees, which are still giving him trouble.

Local football fans are planning on turning out in large numbers to greet the former school players, who are aided in watching the famed Oregon Aggie eleven last Saturday afternoon. Interest in the Turkey Day contest is higher than ever this season as the result of Oregon winning the state championship and it appears as though the Eugene team has the best chance of the last seven years to down the husky Multnomah players.

Captain Rupert fears the Oregon eleven this year and he is working his men harder than ever. Lewis Mills, former Harvard player, turned out with the club men last night and will be used in one of the tackle positions. Two of last year's Oregon stars, Johnny Parsons, halfback, and Clayton Sharp, quarterback, will be in the Multnomah club lineup this year. Sharp will play the quarterback position during a part of the game, while Parsons is scheduled to play the whole game at his old position.

Captain Rupert is of the opinion that his players do not outweigh the Lemon-Yellow team this year. After this evening's practice he will put all his players on the scales to get their correct weights.

The final practice of the club men will be held tomorrow night, while Bezdek, according to reports from Eugene, will put his players through the last practice today. The Eugene squad will be composed of 20 players.

Reserved seats were placed on sale at the local sporting goods houses today.

Numbers Are Announced. Superintendent Walker of the Multnomah club today announced the numbers of the players of the Oregon and Multnomah teams. For the first time since the numbering system was inaugurated Captain Rupert of the "Winged M" will not wear number 13. Grover Francis, the star halfback of the club team, will be in the lineup. Francis was engaged as referee of the Aberdeen-Hoquiam game, but upon his own request was excused. Dad Conville returned this morning from Los Angeles and will turn out for practice tonight.

The officials for the game will be Lieutenant Benedict, former army player, referee; Coach Matthews of the Willamette university, umpire, and H. H. Herdman, head linesman.

Two Teams Leave Eugene. University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 23.—Two Oregon football teams leave Eugene tomorrow in opposite directions, the varsity team to Portland to try to beat the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club for the first time in six years, and the freshman team to Marshfield to battle with the high school lads of that locality and add another victory to their record. Both of these Oregon teams have met their rival O. A. C. teams and have defeated them against great odds.

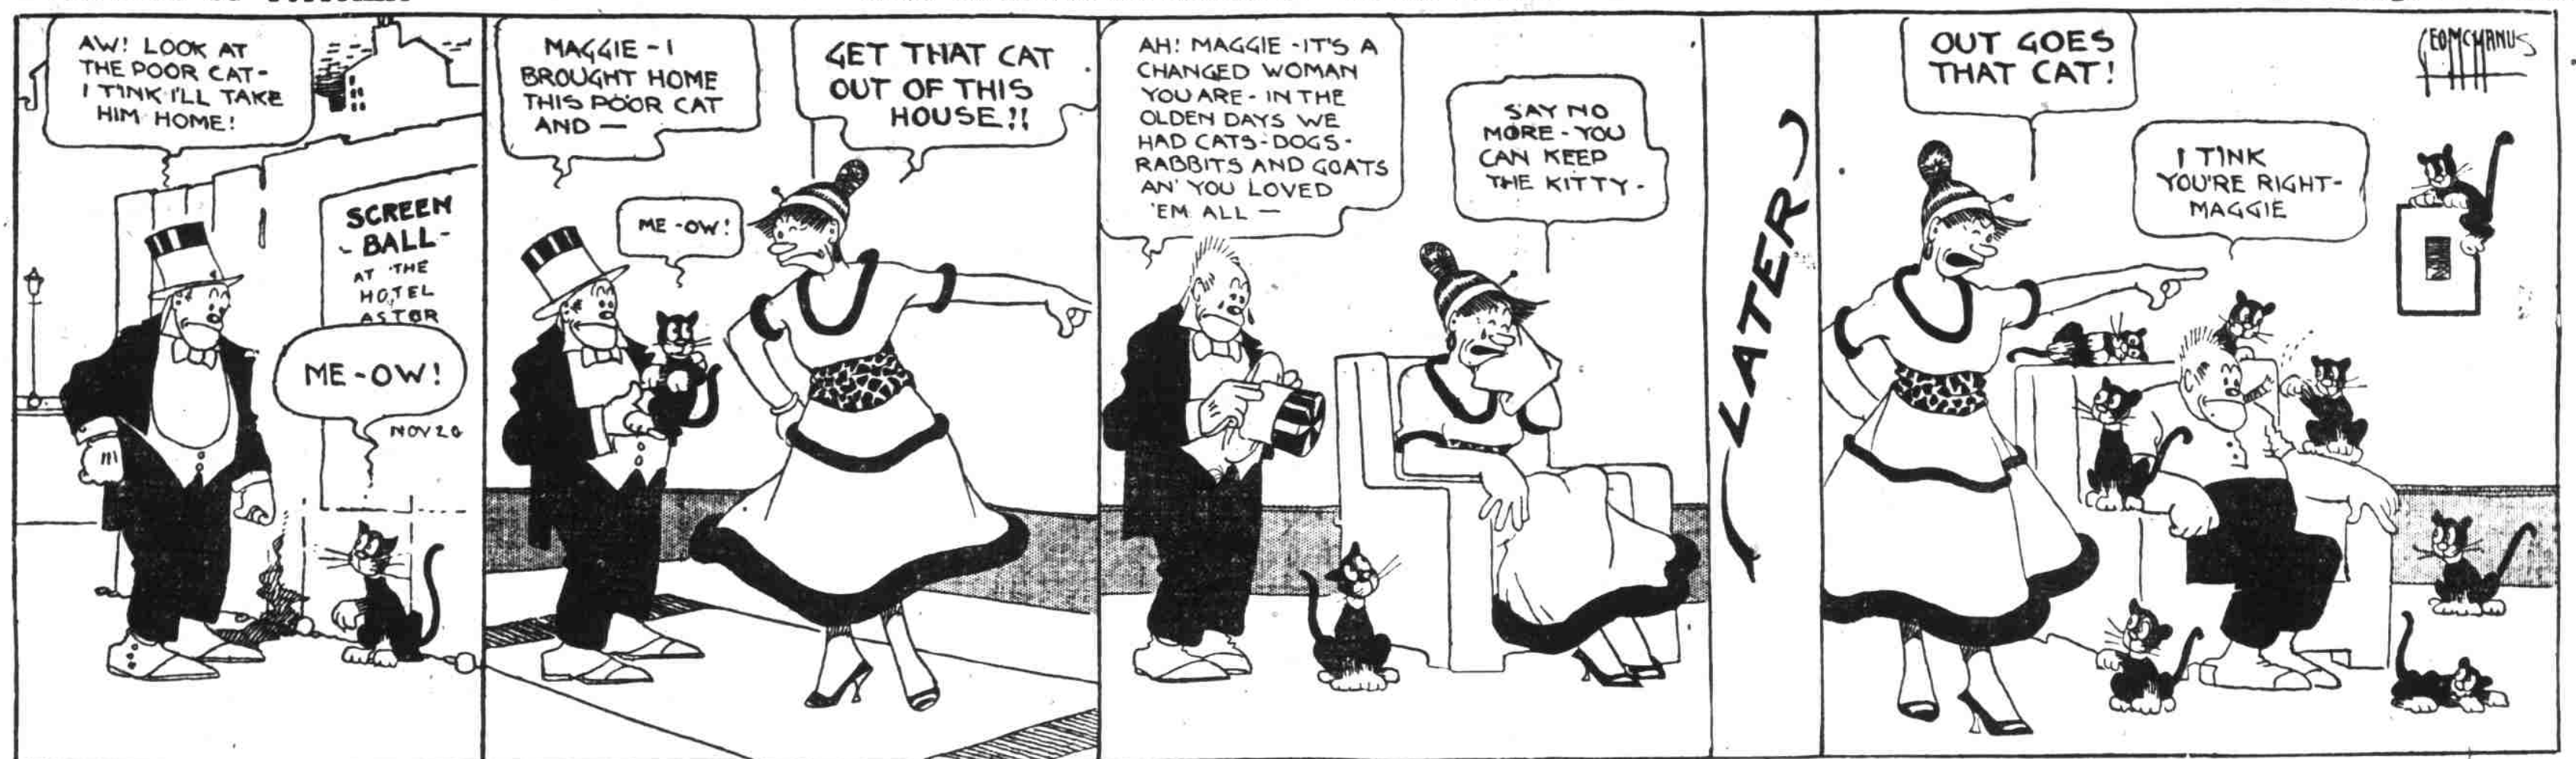

Coach Hugo Bezdek evidently thinks that his men are still in the prime of condition, for he has held no practice since the O. A. C. game. And he says that he is going to try hard to beat the clubmen.

The major portion of the squad will make the trip to Portland, but it is assured that the same men will start the game as defeated the Aggies. This game is looked forward to by a large number of fans, who think that on the perfect Multnomah field the Oregon squad will show its true mettle in dry-field tactics.

Coach "Tick" Malarkey is priming his freshman squad for the trip to Marshfield. The following freshmen will make the trip: Dwyer, Miller, Piel, McKinney, Madden, Cook, Wilson, Morfitt, Hoisington, Mast, Jensen, McDonald and probably two more not yet selected.

Dundee Beats Bloom. New York, Nov. 23.—(I. N. S.)—Johnny Dundee outpointed Phil Bloom in a fast 10-round bout at the Clairmont Athletic club in Brooklyn last night. Bloom had the best of the milling in only the fourth round.

FOUR TEAMS ARE SIGNED FOR CITY INDOOR LEAGUE

the Army hooking up with the University Park. Willie Stepp, who was the Maroon captain last summer, will manage the Monarchs. He has signed up a number of the old time indoor players and his aggregation looms up as a strong one. The players signed to date by Stepp are McConnell, Morton, Pfeister, Brown, Briggs, McKean, Blegg, Tauscher, Mays, Lind, Groce, Bogar and Garner. Carl Mays, the Boston Red Sox hurler, is included in Stepp's list of players.

O'Leary Not So Effusive. San Francisco, Nov. 23.—(I. N. S.)—Johnny O'Leary, the Seattle lightweight contender, writing to Sol Levittson here, refutes his manager's statement that he beat Freddie Welsh in the Winnipeg bout, but claims that he had four rounds, that three were breath regularly or walk without assistance since the game. He is also forced into the class of injured "down and out" for the rest of the season. With a halfback, two ends and a center out of commission, "Doc" is shifting the entire team around in an effort to bolster up the line which has to buck the beefiest forward defense in the country in the Syracuse game. Elmer Thompson, who has been one of Stewart's reserve guards all season, has been transferred to the ranks of the regulars and placed on the right extremity of the line. In Hofe's and Blosser's former position, the big Minnesota lineman is shifty on his feet and promises to be one of the dark horses that will help the Aggies against their strong New York opponents.

Locey Goes to Tackle. Locey, the Weber, Idaho, fiend, who has proved his worth at the fullback position, has been shifted to Smythe's tackle. On account of his weight and defensive strength, "Doc" picked him as the best man to handle the difficult job. Smythe has been transferred to Anderson's guard and Andy is taking over the center berth at O. A. C. As a center, but as Coach Stewart's four back formation with a side pass from the snapperback did not require a beefy man at the pivot job, Andy was switched to guard and has been playing in that position ever since. He will be able to step into Yeager's shoes, however, with little difficulty.

Abraham was the one man Bezdek instructed his men to watch and they watched him to the extent that his neck was severely wrenched when three lemon-yellow players dove for him on a line buck play in the second period. Abe's neck has not been strong since it received its initial jolt in the W. S. C. game and whether "Doc" is best bet at right end and second best pivot man on the team, he will not be in shape the rest of this year. "Sooty" Dutton, the speedster open field runner on the team, was kneed in the back by Mitchell, Oregon end, in their little exchange of courtesies he had to be carried from the field. All the muscles in his back were severely injured and he has not been able to even and that Welsh took the rest. Welsh, he said, told him that if he took care of himself he would be the next lightweight champion.

AGGIES GIRDING FOR CLASH WITH SYRACUSE TEAM

Eugene Game Puts Several O. A. C. Players Out for Season.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Or., Nov. 23.—Coach Stewart and his orange and black varsity have no alibis for the defeat handed out to them by the lemon-yellow team last Saturday, except the oceanic condition of the field, which made football impossible and gave the 5000 fans a real exhibition of water polo. However, the head coach is preparing his men for the Syracuse game in Portland, December 23, and has already made arrangements whereby a full supply of life preservers, rudders, oars and rowlocks will be on hand in case of an emergency. The orange men are in worse condition now than they have been at any time this season. The team is all broken up, due to injuries received in the Oregon game, four regulars being out of the fray for the rest of the year. Yeager, the 158 pound center, Wash. boy, who has been playing his position since the beginning of the season, had his collar bone broken in the beginning of the second quarter but played the half out without a whimper. This injury eliminates him for the season and brings to a close the plucky little fellow's career as an Aggie football player, as he graduates next June.

And That Isn't All. Ex-Captain Hofer had his ankle sprained and also graduated this year, thus making the Oregon game the last one in which the big Salem tackle wears orange and black colors. Lee Bissett, the Newberg boy, who has been "Doc's" best bet at right end and second best pivot man on the team, injured his left shoulder so badly that he will not be in shape the rest of this year. "Sooty" Dutton, the speedster open field runner on the team, was kneed in the back by Mitchell, Oregon end, in their little exchange of courtesies he had to be carried from the field. All the muscles in his back were severely injured and he has not been able to

NAVY ELEVEN IS WHIPPING INTO SHAPE FOR ARMY

Coach Ingram Shifts Men to Best Advantage for Next Thursday.

New York, Nov. 23.—(U. P.)—That there will be a battle worthy of the name Thanksgiving day, when the army and navy clash in their annual football game, is indicated by reports today from Annapolis and West Point. Head Coach Ingram of the Midshipmen is holding secret practices this week and giving his men the toughest workouts of the season. While the Annapolis line-up is still much in doubt, it is practically certain that the backfield will be composed of Craig, Westphal, David and Martin. Vall has been showing unusual class, and may replace any of the foregoing except Craig.

There are four places on the line which Ingram is still unable to fill. Slightly Ward and Gilman are practically sure to begin the game at the tackles and Kercher will be one of the guards. Holtman and E. R. Smith began yesterday to fight it out for the other place and C. M. Jones and Goodstein are the contenders for the center position. Blodgett or Von Reimberg will start at left end and Johnson or Jackson at the other flank. Followers of the Army are deriving pleasure from the fact that Redfield

VERNON STOPS TURKEY

Aberdeen, Wash., Nov. 23.—Tex Vernon won his third consecutive knockout last night when he put Young Turkey of Centralia out in the third round. Vernon knocked out Arthur Benny, Australian featherweight champion, at Raymond in the first round and a few days later Young Irish of Astoria, in the fourth round. Charley Fox of Aberdeen was given the decision over Harry Bishop at the end of the tenth round last night. Fox did all the leading and struck more cleaner blows than Bishop. The decision was well received by a large crowd.

Walter Rheinschild Not Signed as Coach

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 23.—(U. P.)—Manager John Stroud of the University of California, when told that Walter Rheinschild, former University of Michigan tackle had stated in Los Angeles that he had been offered $3000 per year to coach the blue and gold football team.

"We have made no offers to anyone and will not until we have combed the country for the best we can get," Stroud added.

Bat Nelson Sees All There Is to the Fair

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—(I. N. S.)—A San Francisco paper prints this one on "Bat" Nelson.

"When Battling Nelson arrived in Milwaukee he was asked what he had seen at the exposition in San Francisco. "Well, sir," replied the battler, "they've got a picture of a woman out there called 'Stella.' When you first go in there you can hardly believe she's a picture, she looks so real. She's in the same position as was September Morn, only she's lying down instead of standing up and there's no river or ocean to hide her feet. "She's a wonder, that 'Stella.' I want to see her four times."

Motor Boat Club Has Its Annual Banquet

Close to 60 members of the Portland Motor Boat club attended the first annual banquet of the organization last night in the Commercial club.

There was a spirit of good feeling and fellowship at the banquet and it is expected that much more interest will be taken in the club affairs as a result. Commodore Beebe urged that more of the members attend the weekly gatherings at the club house. Captain J. Spicer, harbor master, gave the members a few pointers about harbor laws which met with favor.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual election on the first Monday in January.

As a result of recent discoveries, leading physicians are gradually discarding the use of drugs in the treatment of constipation. It acts merely as a mechanical lubricant. Nujol is not a drug. Its use will not give quick, temporary relief. But Nujol is a genuine remedy in that it relieves constipation in the most natural way by lubricating the lining of the intestines, softening the intestinal contents, and thus promoting healthy and normal bowel activity.
