Typo Officials Are Guests in Portland

Dinner and Reception Tendered President Scott and Secretary Hayes; Greetings ,Extended.

Portland printers entertained yesterday two of the highest officials in the International Typographical union, President Marsden D. Scott and Secretary J. W. Haytes.

The visitors reached the city in the afternoon from the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor in San Francisco. They were taken for a sightseeing trip and then given a dinner at the Imperial hotel. C. P. Howard, president of Multnomah Typographical union, presided.

The dinner was tollowed by a reception in the rooms of the Portland Press club, which was largely attend-ed. Greetings on behalf of the Press club were extended to the visiting officials by President Leslie M. Scott City Commissioner Daly, a member of the union, welcomed them to Port-

Messrs. Scott and Hayes left San Francisco before the convention at San Francisco came to a close, Mr. Scott stated, however, that it highly successful,

The attitude of Samuel Gompers on preparedness is that of the great majority of union men, according to the visitors—a belief in peace, but not peace at any price.
