

ATTORNEY GENERALS OF ALL DRY STATES MAY FILE BRIEFS

Suggestion Comes to Oregon Attorney General Brown From State North Dakota.

WEBB-KENYON LAW BE UP

Will Be Re-Argued In Supreme Court, Washington, Early Next Year, and Constitutionality Determined.

Salem, Or., Nov. 23.—Attorney General Brown may file a brief in the West Virginia case, involving the right of a dry state to enjoin the shipment of liquor from another state, which will come up for argument in the United States supreme court early next year. The constitutionality of the Webb-Kenyon law is involved. Attorney General Brown received a letter from Attorney General Lindke, of North Dakota, stating that he thought favorably of the plan for each attorney general of a dry state to file a brief in the case, as their interests will be vitally affected by the decision. Attorney General Brown has taken to the matter under consideration.

Permit to Appropriate Water.
Salem, Or., Nov. 23.—State Engineer Lewis has granted to Bidwell Cam, of Gateway, Jefferson county, a permit to appropriate 25 second feet of the waters of Trout creek for the irrigation of 607 acres, and a supplementary supply for the irrigation of 284 acres of land. Cam is trustee for a number of landholders. The estimated cost of the improvement is $14,000.

Need Not Pay Road Taxes.
Salem, Or., Nov. 23.—Attorney General Brown today gave an opinion to the effect that the city charter of Hubbard was sufficient to exempt its citizens from payment of road taxes levied by the county court under section 6429, L. O. L.

Serious Crime Alleged.
Salem, Or., Nov. 23.—Glen Lee was brought back to Salem from Tillamook, charged with a statutory offense, and is in the county jail in default of bail. He will have a hearing tomorrow.

Banker Died of Heart Disease

H. R. Eldridge, of National City, Suddenly Expired in Bolivia, While Looking After Interests of Concern.

New York, Nov. 23.—(U. S. S.)—Cables were received yesterday at the National City Bank announcing the death from heart disease of Vice President H. R. Eldridge, at Hotel Bolivia, in Buenos Aires. Mr. Eldridge had been making an inspection of the bank's branches in South America.

Allegiance of Poles Is Won by Diplomacy

Berlin, via Rotterdam, Nov. 23.—(U. S. S.)—Today the solemn opening of the Polish University and Polytechnic high school at Warsaw convinced every one in attendance that the German government, by permitting and aiding the revival of Polish schools, had won a great and peaceful victory over all those Poles who until now have had a leaning towards Russia.

Velvet for hats and gowns—and now for footwear!

Its return is quite the natural thing, for no shoe material thus far has proved itself quite so fitting a complement to the rich garments of velvet and velour so popular now.

You'll want one pair of velvets this winter, surely—so come in and see the "Julienne." It's of rich black velvet with foxing of glimmering patent, and has the exceedingly smart white stitching. A piping of black calf goes up front and around top.

It's a new model in the Red Cross Shoe

so we don't have to say anything about its comfort.

The price is tempting—$6.00
