hour following each week's meeting. program of unusual pleasure was given Thursday evening when Mrs. Elizabeth Bond sang the following melections:

In a program of this quality much depends on the singer's understanding and sympathy of the composer, and it is a great pleasure to watch Mrs. Bond as the sweet tones of her clear soprano voice charm us; she conveys to her audience the perfect joy she feels in the expression of music and all are happy because of her singing. Every shade of emotian is expressed with deilcate sensibility. Mrs. R. A. Hollenbach as accompanist, is always
