Annual Conference of Intercollegiate Delegates Adjourn; Successful Session.

CONFERENCE IS STRONG

President Dyment's Statement Shows Meed of Two Separate Bodies-California Delays Training.

Completing their schedules in football, baseball, basketball, track and wrestling, the annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Intercollegiate con-ference adjourned until next year. The session was the best ever enjoyed and barring the squabble over the fresh-men rule, there was very little arguing over the rulings. Every recommendation suggested by the University of Oregon representative passed the conin the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Conference rules.

teams will play among themselves as they did last year and the western teams will follow suit.

The basketball title will be decided because the University of Oregon has Washington and O. A. C. will play respective floors and will play one home and home game each with Whitman, Washington State and University of Idaho. Across the mountains, besides playing home and home games with Wasnington and O. A. C., Washington State, Whitman and Idaho each basketball game was agreed upon is understood that the above rule is
