Parsons Gets Glory.

"Chuck' Parsons belongs the credit for the victory. For the first time this season he showed his last geason's form and he tore through the line of tackle like his famous brother, Johnny, for many large gains. His defensive playing was a stumbling block for the visitors. Fullback Campbell. Ozbun Walker, Stanley Anderson, Char-Johnson and Borman played consistently throughout the whole game. Campbell's returning of punts was a

Salem's touchdown was scored in practically the same way that Oregon scored its first six points against the Oregon Aggles three weeks ago.

By aid of several line plunges and a beautiful 35 yard forward pass from Captain Proctor to R. Radcliffe, Salem put the ball on Washington's five yard line. Three times the visiting backs tried to pierce the Washington forbut the stonewall defense put up by Earl's men was too much for On the fourth down, left half C. Radeliffe plunged through the Washington line for three yards, but lacked two yards of making the goal line.

Boatwright Blocks Punt.

Captain Normandin of Washington dropped back to punt. He signalled for the ball, was exceedingly slow in getting it away and the ball was blocked by Boatwright, one of the guards. White, the other guard, felto the ground and landed on the ball. The punt out was missed. In the second period Washington threatened to score when Teed recov-

Salem, however, held and punted to midfield and then the Washington team proved that it could do a little forward passing. A long pass from Strowbridge to Anderson netted 23 yards. Normandin gained nine yards, but lost five yards on the next down, when the players became over-anxious and got off side. An unsuccessful forward pass over the coal line gave Salem possession of the ball on the 20 yard line and Proctor punted. Campbell made a nice return of the kick and on the second down Parsons went through an opening for 29 yards. He was downed by Grosvenor 11 yards from the goal line. A line plunge by Strowbridge netted two yards and then Parsons went through the same hole for nine yards and a touchdown. Parsons made a perfect catch of the punt out and reliable E1 Strowbridge made a beautiful goal kick. It was as true as any made on the local grounds this Both teams came near scoring in the second half, but the great defensive playing of each put a stop to many There were a great number of penalties. Washington suffered a 15 yard penalty in the fourth quarter on the two following downs suffered five yard penalties in each.

Radcliffe Sprightly Party. C. Radcliffe, the left half of the Salemites, is about one of the niftiest halfbacks seen in action here this season. He showed great form in plung-ing through and bucking the line and was very strong on defensive work.
