

IT'S ALL HERE and IT'S ALL TRUE O'CLOCK EDITION

THE JOURNAL

THE WEATHER Fair tonight and Thursday; winds mostly westerly. Humidity, 97.

BLOCKADE HAS BEEN REMOVED FROM GREECE Entente Powers Notify Skoulioudis There Will Be No Further Coercion of Greek Shipping by Them.

KING OF GREECE IS ILL; CONFINED TO PALACE Possibility He May Not Be Able to Take Part in the Elections Sunday.

Greek King Ill. London, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—King Constantine of Greece is suffering from a mild case of influenza and fever, according to reports today. These reports are said to remain in his room and not to participate in state affairs.

Greece Not Invaded. Athens, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—Official dispatches today told of a lull in the struggle along the Serbo-Greek border. There is no longer any direct military action, and the Greek army has been ordered to withdraw when they discovered the mistake they had made in passing beyond the border.

Bulgaria Rejoices. London, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—Bulgaria is exultant. Her capture of Dobruja and Gjevelj in Serbia, officially reported in the war office statement received here early today, was hailed as a marking a day of great historical importance in Bulgarian history, inasmuch as it cleared Serbia of the last of the "foemen."

Reply to Be Conciliatory. Geneva, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—The American note on the Ancona matter considered at a special meeting of the Austrian cabinet today, according to advices received here from Vienna, is understood to be conciliatory. It will not be satisfactory to the American government. It is understood the state department will not accept an Austrian claim that Franz Joseph's government had not been advised of the United States' position concerning submarine warfare.

Safe Conducts for German Attaches to U. S. to Be Granted British Embassy Assures the State Department Boyed and Von Papen Can Go.

Allies' War Bonds Reach Low Mark. Syndicate Closes Today and Bonds Drop to 94 1/2; $30,000,000 Worth Sold to the Public at 98.

The Twelvemonth In Review. The Year's End Number of The Sunday Journal Magazine, December 26, will present a comprehensive review of the leading events of the year.

Women Threaten To Bar Male Voters. Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—Suffragists claim they have sufficient votes in congress to prevent the proposed enfranchisement of men in the District of Columbia, unless the vote is also given women.

TERMS NAVY LEAGUE BRANCH OF 'MORGAN WAR TRUST' IN TALK Congressman Tavener Attacks Munitions Maker; Chamberlain Bill Advanced

Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—The Navy league was called a branch office of the "J. P. Morgan war trust" by Representative Tavener in the house today. In urging government construction of all war equipment, he charged that the league is backed by contributions from makers of munitions.

To Rush Land Grant Bill. Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—Senator Chamberlain today secured an agreement from the senate public lands committee to take up his Oregon land grant bill after the holidays, following the water power bill. It probably will come up the second week of January.

AUSTRIA EXPECTED TO ANSWER ANCONA NOTE IN FRIENDLY FASHION Response Will Be Given Ambassador Penfield Today, Belief in Washington.

Secretary Houston Says Increased Production Has Met With Higher Market. Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—In his annual report for 1915, David C. Houston, secretary of agriculture, says that in spite of the greatly disturbed condition of the world during the last 15 months agriculture in the United States, as a whole, has prospered.

Crowley Left Just Before Big Explosion. Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 15.—(P. N. S.)—United States secret service operatives revealed here today that Charles C. Crowley, now under indictment in San Francisco, with other foreign agents, for alleged complicity in gigantic plans to destroy munitions and factories throughout the country, made a hurried flight from Tacoma only a few hours before the dynamiting of a large load of powder, destined for the Russian government, in Elliott Bay, Seattle.

Peace With Federal League Held Certain. Chicago, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—"Peace with the Federal league is certain unless the American league kicks over the traces," said Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburg Nationals, this afternoon when he arrived here from New York.

Zeppelin Blown Up With Crew of 40. Amsterdam, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—Schleswig reported the destruction of Zeppelin L-22 and the killing or wounding of the entire crew of 40 persons.

Women Threaten To Bar Male Voters. Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—Suffragists claim they have sufficient votes in congress to prevent the proposed enfranchisement of men in the District of Columbia, unless the vote is also given women.

BULLETINS

Austria Got Copies of Notes. Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P. S.)—All records regarding the activities of German submarines were examined today by Secretary of State Lansing. His investigation showed that copies of all notes relative to German direct warfare were delivered to the Austrian embassy here. These copies, he maintains, constituted an official notification of America's position.

Bandit Going to Die. Galveston, Texas, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—Thirteen men and five women bandits have been arrested in Mexico City and with the exception of one they will be hanged by the gallows, according to a cablegram received here today.

New Passport Rules. Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P. S.)—Additional regulations regarding the issuance of passports were made here this afternoon by President Wilson, in executive session. Hereafter all applications for passports must be made five days before the date of sailing.

Greek Agreement Claimed. Paris, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—The allies have reached a complete agreement with Greece with the report current today in official circles. According to the report the Greeks temporarily will withdraw their troops to allow free passage to the invading Bulgarians, the allies being authorized to remain at Saloniki and fortify their positions. Greece also will reduce her garrisons at the entrance of the Gulf of Saloniki.

College Girl a Suicide. Madison, Wis., Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—With two 22 calibre revolver wounds in the chest and two packages of arsenic lying nearby the body of Miss Lalitha Folks, a Vassar graduate, who was specializing at the University of Wisconsin, was found in the snow on a country road near here today. No motive for the apparent suicide has been established.

FORGOTTEN CALLER CAUSES DEATH. Hanford, Cal., Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—After a quarter of a century which his wife alleged he had failed to mail for her, N. C. Wonsset, 25, manager of the Stratford Lumber company, near Hanford, committed suicide today.

AGRICULTURE IN U. S. PROSPERS IN SPITE OF FOREIGN DISTURBANCE. Secretary Houston Says Increased Production Has Met With Higher Market.

Crowley Left Just Before Big Explosion. Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 15.—(P. N. S.)—United States secret service operatives revealed here today that Charles C. Crowley, now under indictment in San Francisco, with other foreign agents, for alleged complicity in gigantic plans to destroy munitions and factories throughout the country, made a hurried flight from Tacoma only a few hours before the dynamiting of a large load of powder, destined for the Russian government, in Elliott Bay, Seattle.

Peace With Federal League Held Certain. Chicago, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—"Peace with the Federal league is certain unless the American league kicks over the traces," said Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburg Nationals, this afternoon when he arrived here from New York.

OSCAR II, FORD PEACE SHIP, IS IN BRITISH PORT Vessel Reaches Kirkwall, a Scotch Harbor, Today, According to London Report, Considerably Off Schedule

VESSEL WAS TO REACH NORWAY LAST EVENING English Had Announced They Would Not Attempt to Delay Peace Ship.

London, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—The Henry Ford peace ship Oscar II arrived at Kirkwall today. Kirkwall is a Scotch harbor. It is understood the Oscar will be detained a few hours for the usual examination for contraband.

Press dispatches last night reported the English government authorities as indifferent to the Ford expedition and scarcely likely to do anything to bring him near the English coast. These messages said that it was scarcely expected Ford would enter Kirkwall.

BRITAIN'S END NEAR, SAYS DR. HELFFERICH, IMPERIAL TREASURER. German Secretary Asserts "Mene, Mene, Tekel Upharsin" Is Written.

Berlin (By Wireless to Sayville, L. I.), Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—Germany's financial foundation is rock-ribbed, England predicted today in the balance and found wanting, her dissolution is at hand, and upon her is the blame for continuance of the war.

Secretary Houston Says Increased Production Has Met With Higher Market. Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—In his annual report for 1915, David C. Houston, secretary of agriculture, says that in spite of the greatly disturbed condition of the world during the last 15 months agriculture in the United States, as a whole, has prospered.

Crowley Left Just Before Big Explosion. Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 15.—(P. N. S.)—United States secret service operatives revealed here today that Charles C. Crowley, now under indictment in San Francisco, with other foreign agents, for alleged complicity in gigantic plans to destroy munitions and factories throughout the country, made a hurried flight from Tacoma only a few hours before the dynamiting of a large load of powder, destined for the Russian government, in Elliott Bay, Seattle.

Peace With Federal League Held Certain. Chicago, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—"Peace with the Federal league is certain unless the American league kicks over the traces," said Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the Pittsburg Nationals, this afternoon when he arrived here from New York.

Student Test Shows Control of Many Words. First Terms in Franklin High School Have Speaking Vocabulary of 7000 Words.

First terms at Franklin high school have a speaking vocabulary of 7000 words, and third terms 7500, according to a test lately made by I. A. Melendy, professor of English. The same test showed that the students had at their command when writing a vocabulary as follows: First terms, 8850 words; third terms, 9100.

TEN HOUR DAY FOR WOMEN CHRISTMAS RUSH IS REJECTED. Father O'Hara Does Not Believe Plan Would Relieve Problem of Unemployed.

The Industrial Welfare commission informed the Chamber of Commerce today that the request of retail merchants for a ten hour day for women employees was rejected.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Lord Alverstone Dies at Age of 72. As Member of Alaskan Boundary Commission Former Chief Justice of England Voted for American Rights.

New York Recovers From Storm Tieup. New York, Dec. 15.—(U. P. S.)—Traffic here had been restored today after the partial tieup due to the great snow and wind storm.

BLIND BUSHELS OF WHEAT CROP FOR YEAR 1915. Corn Production Also Shows a Marked Gain Over the Product of the Previous Year in United States.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The 1915 wheat crop will total 1,011,505,000 bushels, valued at $930,302,000, against $919,917,000 in 1914, valued at $78,889,000, the department of agriculture announces today in its estimates.

Comparative Estimates Given Out by the Department of Agriculture. Washington, Dec. 15.—The 1915 wheat crop will total 1,011,505,000 bushels, valued at $930,302,000, against $919,917,000 in 1914, valued at $78,889,000, the department of agriculture announces today in its estimates.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Revenues Are Off Millions Owing to War. Kitchen Introduces Bill Proposing Extension of Emergency Taxes; Customs Drop $82,000,000.

Washington, Dec. 15.—(U. P.)—The administration bill, proposing extension of the present war emergency taxes a year in their present form, was introduced today by Majority Leader Kitchen. He desires a vote thereon tomorrow.

BEEMAN'S WORK IS PRAISED BY WITNESS FOR DR. MARCELLUS. Petition of Physicians for Reinstatement of Beeman Features End of Inquiry.

Praise for the work of Ira T. Beeman, formerly chief quarantine officer of the health bureau, by witnesses for City Health Officer Marcellus and the presentation of a petition signed by 150 Portland physicians asking for Beeman's reinstatement featured the conclusion of the council's investigation of Dr. Marcellus' methods of handling the affairs of the health bureau.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

TRUNK MURDER MYSTERY TAKES STARTLING TURN. Picture Sent Broadcast Over Country That of San Francisco Man and Not That of Bartholomew.

THE JOURNAL'S THEORY CONFIRMED IN DETAIL. Lind Was Wealthy, Says Friend Who Is Double of Indicted Suspect.

The picture on the circular being sent broadcast over the United States by the Portland police, announcing a reward of $500 for the arrest of George Bartholomew, accused of the murder of John Lind in the "green trunk" mystery, is not a picture of Bartholomew, but of Anton Anderson, floor manager at the Columbia garage, 645 Gerry street, San Francisco.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.

Man Who Developed Red Boy Mine Dies. The funeral of E. J. Goffrey, who died at his home, 835 East Yamhill street, yesterday, will be held from the conservatory chapel of the East Side funeral directors, East Sixth and East Third streets, at 10 o'clock today.