

What Society is Doing

BY NONA LAWLER

YESTERDAY'S social calendar held several exceptionally interesting events. Society matrons and maids were entertained at a large and elaborately appointed tea given by Mrs. Frederick Leslie Warren and her sister, Mrs. Joseph Andrews, at Mrs. Warren's residence near Reed College, and the substitute net was entertained with a charming affair, a tea for Miss Helen Holman of San Francisco, given by Miss Katherine Hoyt, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoyt.

For this evening the ice hockey game between Portland and the new Seattle team, which is entering the league for the first year, will make the Hippodrome the Mecca of interest for society. A number of accompanying dinner and supper parties are planned by those who are entertaining groups of guests.

Dinner Hosts.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Metzger entertained last evening at a dinner party of 14 covers. The table was artistically decorated with white and yellow narcissus and violets. Those visiting the board were Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mrs. Charles G. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischer, Miss Clara Strauss of New York, Dr. Max Rosenfeld and the host and hostess.

For Mrs. Maxwell.
Mrs. Guy Webster Tibbot was an informal hostess Monday afternoon at a tea for Mrs. George Maxwell of Hoquiam, Wash., who is visiting in the city. The guest of her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, having come up for the marriage of Hallett Winslow Maxwell and Miss Grace Winslow, took place last week. Before her departure for home she will also visit with Miss Cornelia Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleischer to Entertain.
Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Fleischer have invited guests for a theatre party Wednesday evening of next week followed by supper and dancing.

For Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Moores.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Moores were hosts Wednesday evening at a reception which they tendered their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Moores, (Gertrude Jones) who were married the middle of last September. Receiving with the hosts and their home guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones of Lathrop Meadows, parents of Mrs. Merrill Moores. About 75 guests called during the evening. The affair held the atmosphere of a festive party with Christmas greens and holly in the center of red flowers decorating the rooms. In the dining room where a buffet supper was served, the scarlet poinsettia fringed the table. Pouring and serving were Mrs. Leon Peters, Mrs. L. K. Moore, Mrs. D. E. Bowman and Mrs. J. L. Schultz. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. A. M. Cannon and the Misses Bertha and Carrie Moores. The Misses Marguerite Paltzsch and Edna Mott assisted in the dining room and serving punch were Mrs. A. S. Wells and Mrs. Chester Moores.

To Entertain December 30.
Mrs. Claude H. King has invited guests to her home at East Third and Hancock streets, for the evening of December 30. Dancing will be enjoyed.

Hostesses Sunday Evening.
The Misses Miriam and Frances Jacobs will entertain with a dinner party Sunday evening at their home in West Park street.

Informal Tea.
Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood, who recently moved from her apartments at the Stelwyn and has taken a house at 845 Ravensway Drive, asked a few girls of the younger set to tea informally Wednesday afternoon. Her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Berbe, poured.

San Francisco Visitor Much Feted.
Miss Irma Wolff of San Francisco, who is the house guest of Mrs. Sanford Lowengart, is being much entertained during her visit. She will remain about two weeks longer in Portland and many delightful though informal affairs have been arranged for her. She visited Mrs. Lowengart last winter, making many friends here at that time who are welcoming her again. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ehrman were dinner hosts in her honor Wednesday evening, asking the following guests: Misses Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. Lowengart, Miss Emily Ehrman, Miss Florence Wolfe, Herbert Frank, Mason Ehrman and Dr. J. Ettelson.

Ramblers Club Entertained.
The Misses Margaret Schmid and Anna Cowan entertained the Ramblers club at Miss Schmid's home Tuesday evening with a Christmas party. There was a Christmas tree with numerous gifts for all. The holiday decorations were also used. Those present were the Misses Pearl Smith, Laura Walter, Frieda Schmid, Florence Johnson, Harriet Doolitz, Rose Schmid, Bertha Doolitz, Frieda Muehlhaupt and the hostesses, Margaret Schmid and Anna Cowan.

Mrs. Leet Hostess.
Mrs. William A. Leet entertained Wednesday afternoon at her apartment in the American for her house guest Mrs. E. W. King, who formerly resided in Portland, but is now making her home at The Dalles. The affair was quite informal. There were three ta-ville and Forest Grove he was greeted by large audiences. Both these councils are young, but have taken an active place in the social life of their respective communities.

Woodmen Make Visit.
A large delegation of Woodmen of the World visited the Neighbors of St. Johns camp last Wednesday night, headed by the Webfoot band of 32 pieces. Prospect camp, W. O. W., put on a fancy drill. Several turkeys were raffied off. Speeches were made by William Reidt, past consul; A. L. Barber, clerk of Webfoot; J. J. Jennings, C. O. Samain, G. W. T. Muelenburch and others. The Arista orchestra furnished music for the dancing.

Travels 6000 Miles.
Robert Andrews, grand patriarch of the encampment, I. O. O. F., was visiting officially the brothers in Newberg last night. Tonight he will visit Canby and tomorrow night Silverton. During the incumbency of his office he has traveled over 6000 miles, and has visited nearly every encampment in Oregon.

Golden Rule Encampment.
Golden Rule Encampment, No. 28, I. O. O. F., met in Orient hall, East Sixth and East Alder streets, last night, and by special dispensation of Robert Andrews, grand patriarch, all three degrees were given to a class of 12. A large number of representative members of the higher degrees of odd Fellowship were present.

United Artisans' Election.
The following are the new staff of officers elected by the United Artisans of University Park assembly: A. S. Meyers, master artisan; Mrs. M. Strong, superintendent; L. W. Bateman, senior conductor; Grace Kole, secretary; Grace Hemstock, treasurer; William Castel, inspector; Frank Kole, master of ceremonies; Nellie Kole, warden; H. E. Hartshorn, instructor.

Officers Are Elected.
Mount Hood lodge, No. 137, A. F. and A. M., last Tuesday night, elected and installed the following officers at 334 Russell street: George D. Young, worshipful master; Arthur Hobson, senior warden; R. E. Romine, junior warden; I. N. Palmer, treasurer; Ed C. Dick, secretary; Ed P. Tormohlen, senior deacon; W. G. Wharton, junior deacon; M. S. Arthur, senior steward; A. Benson, junior steward; Charles M. Fry, Tyler.

Candidates Are Initiated.
Prospect camp, Woodmen of the World, initiated a class of candidates last night for Webfoot camp, at the W. O. W. Temple. This was done because Webfoot camp has so many applicants it will not be able to take care of them all tonight. There are 120 candidates waiting to become members of Webfoot, and Prospect camp has offered to help "roll the logs" for its big sister and neighbor.

They are: Ray Fox, president; David Jones, vice president; Ernest Peterson, secretary; Emil Schulz, assistant secretary; Harry Dill, treasurer; W. Finck, sergeant-at-arms, and George Kincaid, editor of The Little Journal. The annual Christmas meeting of the association will be held in Cottillion hall next Thursday.

OUR YOUNG WOMEN

are so often subject to headache—because their blood is thin or insufficient. They hesitate to complain, but they lack that ambition and vivacity which is their birthright. Above all they need the tonic and nourishment in Scott's Emulsion that makes richer blood, fills hollow cheeks, suppresses nervousness and establishes strength. Nourishment alone makes blood and Scott's Emulsion is pure, concentrated nourishment, free from wines or opiates.

If mother or daughter is frail, pale or nervous, give her Scott's for one month and see the betterment. It has a wholesome, "nutty" flavor. Free from alcohol or drugs. Avoid substitutes.
