

PORTLAND ROSEBUDS DEFEAT VICTORIA IN EXTRA-TIME CONTEST

Portland Hockey Team Now Leading the Pacific Coast League Without Opposition

HARRIS SCORES WINNER

Lester Patrick Ties Up Game in Third Period, and Scene Near Portland Goal is Exciting Place.

After cooling his heels on the bench for 25 minutes last night after a foray with Ron McDonald, "Smoky" Harris came back to the ice and shot the winning goal against Lester Patrick's hard playing Victorians in an extra period of 11 minutes, 30 seconds.

Portland started out in the lead, much to the joy of newly 4000 raving fans, but found the outfit margin in the third period when Kerr and Patrick shot goals. Long Lester's tying tally being declared after a scene of great confusion in which British Judge Walter Parks heard the greatest babel of protest in his life. Referee Ion, who was right on top of the play, said that the ball went into the net and gave Patrick a score.

Portland played hard to break the tie in the remaining minutes of play, but Victoria was too strong defensively, and it went into the extra session. Portland scored the first goal five minutes after the second period opened, when a shot of Tobin's carried past the goalie. McCulloch's blocked a protest and fell obliquely inside the net. One minute later Tobin received a pass from Dundardale and shot it past McCulloch.

Both of Victoria's scorers were made good by terrific scrimmages in front of the plate, and a hard time was had in putting the ball into the goal. Harris was detected taking a kick at McDonald's feet, but was observed taking a healthy swipe with his stick at Harris, and Referee Ion chased the pair, ran for 20 minutes and smoky for 25. Harris got back in time to finish up the third period, and was well rested for his dash down the ice in the extra period for the goal that broke up the tie and put Portland in the lead.

Portland's next game will be Tuesday, January 4, with Victoria, at that place. BILLY SMITH TO BOX 6 ROUND GO WITH JACK ROOT

Veteran Boxer Confident of Winning From Local Heavyweight.

Portland boxing fans will see one of the old time ring gladiators in action tonight at the Rose City Athletic club, when "Mysterious" Billy Smith, former welterweight champion of the world, meets Jack Root, Smith has been training hard for the six round go and is in good condition.

Jack Root has high hopes of beating Smith. Root recently defeated Larry Madden, former amateur heavyweight champion of the northwest, and he is confident that he will beat the veteran boxer.

Valley Timblett and Ike Cohen will box in the semi-final event. Timblett fought a draw with Cohen early last fall. The other events of the card are: Frank Parslow vs. Henry Krieger; Bill McCool vs. Ping Houle; Bill Brown vs. Abe Gordon; and W. Winger vs. Sammy Gordon.

Crack Horses Reach Tia Juana Race Oval

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 29.—(P. N. S.)—The arrival of two of the Lower California Jockey club's crack riders and shipments of horses, totaling nine, was recorded here yesterday.

C. H. Pettigill, who will officiate as presiding judge in the 100 day meeting at Tia Juana and Dick Dwyer, racing secretary and handicapper of the same, were the noted turnouts to make their appearance.

The incoming horses include a shipment from Los Angeles and from Butte, Mont. In the Los Angeles consignment were Mount Sumner, belonging to W. H. Crawford, San Joaquin and Casagreen, owned by N. N. Brown and Eddie J. J. pet spotted by J. J. Duncan.

From Butte came H. McBride, Dove and Engraver and Hal Prospect and Dick Benson, the property of H. Higgins. A sixteen head race from the Pleasanton, Cal., stable yesterday. They are in charge of George Van Dusen, Bill Carroll and Al Dunlap.

Doyle May Lead Los Angeles Squad

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 29.—(P. N. S.)—Jack Doyle, a member of the famous Baltimore Orioles and now a scout for the Chicago American League club, has been recommended to Johnny Powers by Jimmy Callahan for the management of the local club.

This was learned here from an authentic baseball authority and it was said that Powers is giving more thought to Doyle than he is to any other candidate for the position. The Angel owner is yearning for a major league manager and Doyle seems likely to fill the bill. Doyle was the manager of the New York Giants until John McGraw came along and took over the team.

Amateurs to Open Hockey Season Portland's second amateur ice hockey season will open tonight when the O-W-R & N. team clashes with the Waverley Country club septet at the Ice Hippodrome. J. D. Farrell, who presented the Portland Amateur Hockey association with a trophy last year, will face the puck at 8 o'clock.

J. O'Leary Not to Be German Target

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 29.—(P. N. S.)—Johnny O'Leary, the Seattle boy who holds the lightweight championship of Canada, is not going to fight in the trenches. He will stick to the squared circle where battles are more remunerative and less dangerous.

Several days ago word came that O'Leary and his manager, Jockey Madden, had enlisted in a Canadian regiment. It now appears, according to word received here, that the enlistment was one of those conditional affairs and the conditions finally interferred with the program.

O'Leary was willing to enlist, but insisted that he be allowed to fulfill all of his present boxing engagements, and he declared that he was the sole support of his parents, and must fight a few more battles in order adequately to provide for them in case he failed to come back from the trenches. The military authorities decided that these conditions were not conducive to good discipline, and declined to accept them.

Aggies Will Play Syracuse, Nov. 30

According to telegraphic information from Syracuse, N. Y., the Oregon Agricultural college football team will play the Syracuse eleven in Syracuse Thanksgiving day, November 30, 1915.

The contest was scheduled at the conference meeting held during the first part of the month to be played October 21, but evidently this date did not fit in with the Syracuse schedule.

The Aggies will have to leave Corvallis immediately after the annual game with the University of Oregon, which will be played the Saturday before Thanksgiving. Details of the trip will be arranged by J. Stewart as soon as he returns from the east.

Roxy Middleton Is Not Balking on Play

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 29.—(P. N. S.)—Extinction of the Federal league will mean toward bringing balking baseball players into the fold. This idea came apparent today when it was announced that Outfielder Middleton of the Oaks has requested that his contract be nullified. Middleton had refused to stand for a cut in his salary, and threatened to jump to the Federals.

Manager Rowdy Elliott says he expects other Oaks who has contemplated being refractory will hop into the fold as readily as Middleton. Seattle Stars in Tourney. Seattle, Dec. 29.—(P. N. S.)—Twenty boxing and wrestling bouts are on the program tonight for the opening of the Seattle Athletic club tournament, which will settle the boxing and wrestling championships of the city.

The tournament will end with the contests held for Thursday night. More than 50 boxers and wrestlers are entered, and will compete for honors in the various classes. The special event of tonight's program will be a boxing bout between Tommy Phelps and Wesley Banckie, featherweights.

Britton is Outpointed. Akron, Ohio, Dec. 29.—(U. S.)—Jack Britton was outpointed here in a 12 round bout by Johnny Griffiths of Akron last night.

PREXY TENER OF OPINION 25 MEN NEEDED ON CLUB

National League Magnates Will Meet to Talk Things Over.

New York, Dec. 29.—(I. N. S.)—Now that the Federal league has been quietly—or noisily buried, John K. Tener has determined that the National league might just as well get back to its knitting where it left off at the Waldorf Astoria some time back, when the independents wafted whispers that they were ready for peace and broke up the annual meeting of the parent organization for the time being.

No determined in Mr. Tener that he has ordered, or requested the league delegates to assemble at Cincinnati on January 4 for a reconvening. Mr. Tener said that there were several important matters to be threshed out that can not be left over for future worry.

Impres will be discussed and rules for department, as suggested by James E. Gauffney, president of the Boston Braves. Furthermore, the National league is expected to raise the player limit to 25 instead of the 21 in vogue since the Federals forced their hand. At any rate, Mr. Tener insists it is necessary that the delegates convene, if it is only to make permanent the arrangement temporarily taken here when the Federals evacuated.

Baltimore Feds in Huff Over Baseball

Chicago, Dec. 29.—(U. P.)—Reports reached here today that owners of the Baltimore Federal league club are disgruntled over the baseball peace pact and are prepared to start legal machinery which may embarrass the American and National leagues, and the former Federal leaguers.

It is understood that attorneys for the Baltimore club are en route today to Chicago, with the intention of demanding concessions from the Baltimore owners. A stiff price is wanted for their franchise, and it is reported that unless their terms are met an effort will be made to prevent dismissal of the Federal league's suit against organized baseball.

Will Fight Under Tent. Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 29.—(I. N. S.)—Refused the use of the auditorium for Saturday (New Year's) night, Frank Whitney will meet Freddie Welsh under a big circus tent, which will be erected just back of the Grand theatre. The bout will go ten rounds and will be for the lightweight world's championship. The tent will seat 5000 and indications are that the fight will be to capacity limit.

McCreddie Gets Another Busher. Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 29.—(P. N. S.)—"Bush" Thompson, who had a short tryout with Walter McCredie last year, has received a letter from the Beaver manager in which McCredie stated he thought he might use Thompson's services this spring. Thompson was troubled with a bad leg last fall and McCredie was anxious to find out if it was better.

Everybody Anxious? Berkeley, Cal., Dec. 29.—(U. P.)—Immediate action in the selection of a football and a baseball coach for the University of California is expected when Graduate Manager John Stroud arrives here tomorrow from a holiday trip into Nevada. Although there is nothing to indicate who Stroud has in mind, reports are still persistent that a Pacific Coast man will coach the Bear eleven next spring.

Paper Chase Saturday. The annual New Year's Open paper chase of the Portland Hunt club will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The start will be made at the club house. The winner will be presented the Hunt club trophy.

Vernon Bunch Finds Herb Moran High

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 29.—(P. N. S.)—Herb Moran, the outfielder obtained by the Vernon club in the Joe Whittell deal, will not be retained by the Tigers next season, according to an announcement made by Ed Marz. It is said that Moran demanded too high a salary.

Ted Cuthers, who was also obtained from the Braves will report next spring, although with the addition of Ray Bates, he probably will have a hard fight for an infield position. Ball Must Pay for Park. St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 29.—(I. N. S.)—It was learned here this afternoon that Phil Ball, former owner of the St. Louis Federal league club, paid $250,000 for the St. Louis American league club. This price is believed to include only the franchise, stands and players and that Ball probably will have to pay $250,000 additional for the grounds.

Ruppert May Buy Cleveland. Cleveland, Ohio, Dec. 29.—(U. P.)—Reports were current here today that Colonel Jacob Ruppert, of the New York Americans, may buy an interest in the local American league club. It is expected that the club either will be sold outright or financial aid will be given owner Somers either today or tomorrow. Molla Off for New York. Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 29.—(P. N. S.)—Miss Molla Bjurstedt, national women's tennis champion, has left for New York city to take up her home. It is believed that Miss Bjurstedt will return to the coast next year.

O. A. C. Coach On N. C. A. A. Board

New York, Dec. 29.—Members of the National Collegiate Athletic association gathered here yesterday to attend the tenth annual meeting. William H. Taft, ex-president, was one of the prominent speakers. His address was on "College Athletics."

Reports of the various committees were received. Several minor changes were made in the swimming and track and field rules on the recommendations of a special committee. Two changes were made in the football rules committee. Lieutenant Naves, Army, and Professor W. A. Lambeth, University of Virginia, replacing Lieutenant D. I. Sultan, Army, and Harris Cope, University of the South.

The following officers and representatives were elected at the afternoon session: President, Dean LeBaron Briggs, Harvard; vice president, Dean J. H. Apple, Chicago university; secretary-treasurer, T. W. Socolan, Wesleyan college; representatives, First district, Professor H. N. Corwin, Yale; Second district, Professor Jose E. Raycroft, Princeton; Third district, Professor C. H. Herty, North Carolina; Fourth district, Professor H. E. Buchanan, Tennessee; Fifth district, Professor G. A. Goodnow, Illinois; Sixth district, Professor C. S. Brewer, Missouri; Seventh district, Professor B. G. Swan, Oklahoma; Eighth district, Professor E. J. Stewart, Oregon Agricultural college.
