There are now 44,787 PACIFIC telephones in Portland. Ten years ago (1905) there were but 18,352.

This indicates that the PACIFIC telephone business in Portland has made much progress. This progress is due to the growth of Portland, and also to a satisfactory service rendered.

We appreciate this patronage, and during the year 1916 and the years that follow, the efforts of our 1700 employes in Portland will continue to be directed towards conducting the telephone business in such manner that the public may enjoy the use of a telephone service furnished by a company that is progressive in its policy, fair and courteous in its dealings with its patrons, reliable in the service furnished, and alive to the needs of Portland and the Northwest.

There is now in use one PACIFIC telephone for every six persons in Portland, and the number is increasing daily.

When you want to talk by telephone, use the PACIFIC! A ...
