Albany Violator of Liquor Law Is Fined

Albany, Or., Jan. 7.—A man should know all about his "booze." This was the stand Judge Swan virtually took Thursday in settling the first case under the prohibition law here. Peter Dewall, proprietor of a rooming house, was the defendant on a charge of conducting a nuisance when the police found a barrel and two cases of beer in his place. The barrel was addressed to Ed Smith, one of the cases to John Dewall and the other to Peter Dewall. Both John and Peter pleaded ignorance. Smith testified that he ordered, received and paid for his beer. Judge Swan ordered the cases destroyed and ordered the barrel restored to Smith. Dewall, upon changing his plea to guilty, was fined $50 and costs.

CONVENTION CALLED TO ORGANIZE STATE GARAGE ASSOCIATION

Will Be Held at Armory January 28, During Week of the Automobile Show.

Oregon garage owners will meet in Portland January 28, during the week of the automobile show to organize a state association. Yesterday a committee from the Portland Garage Owners' association completed the preliminary arrangements for holding the convention and invitations to every garage man in the state will be sent out. This action comes as a result of the success of state garage bodies throughout the east and the service rendered local repairmen by the Multnomah county organization.

Chairman Fred Duhdee announced last night that the convention will be held Friday, January 28, in the Armory and that all railroads have granted special rates for the occasion. The fact that most of the garage men attend the annual automobile show in Portland makes the date opportune for getting a representative delegation together.

In the morning the visitors will be taken over the Columbia river highway as guests of the local garage men and automobile dealers. The work of organizing will be done in the afternoon.

After Friday night's show they will be guests of the local accessory men at a special performance at one of the local theatres in which professionals and amateurs, the latter recruited exclusively from the automobile trade, will be the entertainers.

Saturday evening, at the closing of the automobile show, they will be entertained at a dance in the Armory by the Portland Garage Owners' association.

BUSINESS PROPERTY OF EUGENE CHANGES HANDS IN TWO DEALS

Nathan Hill Sells Coleman Block to Bible University and Buys Bank Building.

Eugene, Or., Jan. 7.—Two big deals in Eugene business property were consummated Thursday. Nathan Hill, a farmer living near Springfield, sold to Dr. E. C. Sanderson, president of Eugene Bible university, the three story brick block on Willamette street known as the Coleman block. The building and lot on which it stands are 55 by 114 feet.

Mr. Hill bought the old United States National bank building, at the corner of Willamette street and Seventh avenue, from the bank, which now occupies new quarters, for $35,000, trading in his fine 80 acre farm near Springfield. This building is two stories high and 45 by 120 feet.

The main portion was erected 15 years ago by J. H. McClung and an annex was built four years ago. The bank bought it seven years ago when the bank was first organized, and moved out last June.
