Youngstown, Ohio, Jan. S .- (U. P.) -A plot to blow up the Republic Steel plant, in the wake of a night of rioting, was frustrated here today, when disguised militiamen overheard the plotters and reported to their superiors. The first of the National Guardsmen were immediately detrained to guard the plant.

After this plot had been broken, Brigadier General Speaks dispatched dam, 10 miles distant, as strikers threatened to destroy it. Destruction of the structure, 70 feet high and 200 feet long, would mean demolition of
