SEASONED PITCHERS AND INFELDERS NOW ARE SOUGHT BY MAC

Manager of Beavers Wants Some Men to Depend on if Youngsters Blow Up.

OUTFIELD LOOMS STRONG

Behind the Bat Portland Is Well Fixed With Fisher, Carisch, Fish and Bartholemey.

Exhibition games during the three-week training camp of the Portland Beavers at Sacramento are the least of the worries of Manager Walter McCredie. The big fellow is in the field for some seasoned pitchers and infielders so that he will have some players that he can depend upon in case the flock of youngsters he has signed fail to develop a couple of wonders.

With any number of strong teams in and around Sacramento, Mac is satisfied that he will get all the prize games that he wants, but according to the present plans of the Beaver chief, more attention will be the concentrating of the players this year than to battling the league teams elsewhere all over the lot.

Young Men Give Promise. Three of the infielders, Mac is counting on are young players, who show promise of developing into stars. Quinn is a great player, according to the dope and Hollister will be a wonder if he lives up to advance notices. Ward, who finished the 1915 season in Hobbs' Davis' box, looked pretty nice in the shortfield last season, but he had some difficulty in handling balls hit to the right of him. Galisto, if he reports, is almost sure to set a place in the lineup.

Behind the bat, Portland is well fixed with Fisher, Carisch, Fish and Bartholemey. In the outfield with Spens, Southworth, Nixon and probably one from the St. Louis American, the Beavers loom up as strong as any team in the circuit.

Hughenbotham, Leah, Noyes, Krantz, and Jimmy Clark are Northwestern hurlers, are the only seasoned pitchers Mac has signed but the jobs of some of these are very uncertain. The squad of pitchers looked very good and McCredie is hopeful of reaping one good hurler out of the lot.

Some information is expected daily from Fielder Jones regarding the players Mas has put a bid in for.

Advices received here yesterday, indicate that Bill Leard of the San Francisco Coast league will be appointed manager of the Seattle Northwestern league team, succeeding Teasey Raymond, who will become manager of the Spokane Indians. Leard, upon learning that he was to be released by Manager Wolverton, obtained permission to make a deal for himself and as he is a great friend of Owen Quinn, the Seattle team.

It is believed that he will be released by Manager Wolverton, obtained permission to make a deal for himself and as he is a great friend of Owen Quinn, the Seattle team. Leard is believed that he will be released by Manager Wolverton, obtained permission to make a deal for himself and as he is a great friend of Owen Quinn, the Seattle team.

Leard, when he played with Seattle several seasons ago, was a great favorite with the Seattle fans and Duval is of the opinion that he would make a good playing manager.

The Beavers have landed a prize in Quinn, the Syracuse first sacker, according to the following clipping from the Syracuse Herald: "The Syracuse first sacker, Quinn, who is on the reserve list of the Chicago Cubs, is being sought by John Powers of the Angels. Charles Weeghmann, owner of the Cubs, informed Powers today that he would not turn Standridge over at present, but would let him know later. 'Flame' Dehl, former Angel star, for whom the White Sox paid $5000, also may be seen in a Seraph uniform. Powers said that Dehl is on the reserve list of the Pittsburgh club and that he can have the big fellow if he desires.
