

ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS WORD 'BAR' NOT IN VIOLATION OF LAW

Ruling Result of Query of District Attorney Evans in Regard to Sign, 'Union Bar' IS NOT A LIQUOR "AD"

Is in Use by the International Union of Restaurant Employes and Bartenders.

Salem, Or., Jan. 21.—The display of the sign "Union Bar" of the International Union of Restaurant Employes and Bartenders, is not a violation of the prohibition law, according to Attorney General Brown, who has an opinion to District Attorney Evans. It has been suggested that Evans that the display of the sign would be contrary to the clause of the prohibition law relating to advertising liquors. Brown takes the view that a place selling drinks that are within the law may have a bar and say it is unlicensed if it wants so to do.

Wants Case Postponed. Salem, Or., Jan. 21.—Attorney General Brown is making it known to the clerk of the United States supreme court set the case of the state against Bounty, involving the validity of the act limiting the number of the labor of men in Oregon, and the case of the Pacific Livestock company against State Engineer Lewis, in which the validity of the state water code is attacked, for arguments in April, so that only one trip to Washington will be necessary. The attorney general received word from Washington that the case against Bounty could not be reached until after the February recess.

Major Worden Is Candidate. Salem, Or., Jan. 21.—Major Charles E. Worden of Klamath Falls, filed today as a Democratic candidate for delegate to the national convention from the Second congressional district. In a brief biography he says that he was born in 1849 in Ohio and has been a resident of Oregon since 1894. He was chairman of the Ohio congressional committee in 1890 and 1894 and since coming here a member of the state central committee of Oregon. He has selected the following slogan: "The national government should aid, not hinder, the development of Oregon's resources."

S. E. Alaska Swept By Damaging Storm

Property, Ships and Fishing Vessels Are Imperiled by Most Severe Storm in Years—Extends Northward. Juneau, Alaska, Jan. 20.—(P. N. S.) Southeastern Alaska today is being swept by the worst storm it has known in years and fears are entertained that great damage to property, particularly to ships and fishing vessels, will result. The storm is sweeping the coast from Ketchikan northward. Almost every business house in Juneau has been damaged by the storm, windows being the greatest sufferers. Reports from points to the south indicate that a large number of fishing sloops, launches and other small craft have been wrecked. The gasoline schooner Edison of Tacoma is one of the vessels believed to be lost. Her crew is missing. Yesterday afternoon 10 inches of snow fell in six hours. This was the start of the storm. A wind blowing off the Takli Glacier made the weather bitterly cold. The wind this morning had attained a velocity of 75 miles an hour.

Decision Cuts Off Tennessee's Liquor

Federal Judge McCall at Memphis Says Webb-Kenyon Law Prohibits All Shipments From Outside State. Memphis, Jan. 20.—(I. N. S.)—Judge F. M. McCall in a sweeping decision in the federal court practically knocked out all interstate shipments of liquor into and out of Tennessee. Judge McCall held that the shipment of liquor into Tennessee is subject to the restrictions of the state laws, despite the fact that it is being shipped in or shipped out of the state. He held also that shipments going out of the state could not be called interstate shipments until they actually crossed the border. Under McCall's ruling, all liquor within the borders of Tennessee is subject to the restrictions of the state laws, despite the fact that it is being shipped in or shipped out of the state. He holds that shipment of liquor into Tennessee is apparently illegal under the Webb-Kenyon act of congress.

Woman Risks Life During Fire Crisis

Heroine Remains in Burning Plant Long Enough to Notify the Police by Phone; Woman Slightly Burned. Heroic action on the part of Mrs. Sarepta M. McDowell, an employee of the Pacific Waste company, yesterday afternoon saved the plant from probable complete destruction. With flames all about her, Mrs. McDowell groped her way to a telephone and notified the fire department before she left the building. The woman's eyebrows and hair were badly singed and she suffered numerous burns about the face and hands.

Wilson Gives Route For Speaking Tour

Will Visit Pittsburg, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joe, Des Moines and Davenport; Start Jan. 28. Washington, Jan. 21.—(U. P.) President Wilson's itinerary in behalf of his preparedness program will include Pittsburg, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Des Moines and Davenport, the White House announced today. The president will leave here January 23, returning a week later. In addition to the above named cities where he will make regular speeches, he plans some extra talks at train stops. Later, he will make a second stump-trip including northern cities, probably going as far as Denver, and returning by way of the important southern cities.

Oregon Drinkers to Have Jitney Service

Ashland and Medford Will Be Connected Over Pacific Highway With Hornbrook, Cal. Ashland, Or., Jan. 21.—Ashland and Medford are to be connected by a jitney service over the Pacific highway with Hornbrook, Cal. Ashland is the last town in Oregon, and the nearest to a California liquor supply house at Hornbrook. It is said that two signs have been erected near Hornbrook, Oregon to Oregon the sign reads, "Last Chance," and from Oregon to California the sign greets you, "First Chance." As Ashland has been a dry town for years, the importation of liquor has not increased very much, most of the people are using lithia water as a substitute.

SWEDEN PROHIBITS SHIPMENT OF WOOD PULP AS REPRISAL

Dispute Over Mail Reaches a Serious Stage; Britain Shows No Sign of Yielding. London, Jan. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Sweden has prohibited the exportation of wood pulp. The order goes into effect today. It is regarded both in London and Stockholm, as an act of reprisal against Great Britain for the seizure of mails destined for Sweden. Nine-tenths of the pulp used for paper making in England comes from Norway and Sweden. The result of this embargo will probably be a great increase in the price of paper in this country.

Mail Route Closed.

The seizure by Sweden of mails between England and Russia is causing serious inconvenience. Huge quantities of letters and parcels passing from one ally to the other are being stacked up in Stockholm in reprisal for British interference with Swedish mail. The transaction of business between London and Petrograd has been rendered almost impossible, the only mail route open between the two capitals being by way of the United States of Canada, and Siberia. So far Great Britain has shown no inclination to yield. All neutral ships destined for Holland or Scandinavian ports are being brought into British waters and searched. All mail bags are taken off for the purpose of weeding out letters intended to be forwarded to Germany and all post parcels containing contraband are confiscated.

Swedish Steamer Seized.

The seizure of the Swedish steamship, Frederic, in a sweeping decision today. It was stated that the goods seized included 125 postal parcels containing sheet rubber consigned to agents at Gothenburg. A wireless dispatch from Berlin today complains of the non-arrival of mail from the United States addressed to Americans. The German officials accounted for it by the fact that the British authorities had seized 620 bags of mail on the steamer Rotterdam. Even letters sent to addresses in Holland to be forwarded to Americans in Germany have not been received.

Saves Himself But Team Has Bad Fall

La Grande, Or., Jan. 21.—At 11 o'clock Thursday A. Henry Penny, while driving a drag sled hauling logs for the Grande Ronde Lumber company at Perry, skidded off a precipice 1500 feet high. Fortunately, Penny fell in such a way that he was not taken clear down the hill, but the drag sled and team crashed down the mountain side, landing on the frozen mill pond. One horse was killed outright and the other died soon after. The sleigh was demolished and the logs scattered in all directions. Penny was working for two contractors and drew his load near the edge of the precipice ready to skid them

Sportsmen Indorse Plan to Save Birds

Game Commission Will Share Equally With Any Person or Association in Feeding Birds During Snow Storm. Strong indorsement was given the plan of the Oregon Fish and Game commission, in which the commission is willing to share equally with any person or association in providing feed for the birds which are subject to frightful destruction for want of food during the present cold spell, at the luncheon of representatives of local sportsmen's associations held yesterday noon in the Chamber of Commerce building. From report conditions in Multnomah county seem to be fairly good but in other counties the birds are suffering in great numbers. All present at the meeting urged that the commission be liberal in expenditures to avert the destruction of thousands of birds.

Trap Creek Logging Firm Is Enlarged

Newly Organized Company at Raymond Purchases Interests of Quaint Logging Company at Nallipes. Raymond, Jan. 21.—The Trap Creek Logging company, a new corporation organized by Henry Kalb of this city, Thomas Larkin and James Bremner of Astoria, has purchased the Quaint Logging company's camp and outfit at Nallipes. Preparations will begin at once to add considerable equipment, and as soon as the weather moderates a much larger crew than formerly employed will be put at work on the mills on this harbor are handicapped in their operations by a shortage of logs, and the new concern being independent of any mill will find a good market for its output.

Injured Man Crawls Mile Through Snow

Mill at Wendling Runs Short of Logs

One Hundred Men Thrown Out of Work When Booth-Kelly Lumber Company Closes Down. Wendling, Or., Jan. 21.—The Booth-Kelly Lumber company closed the mill here Monday on account of inability to get logs, and also on account of snow and ice which has accumulated on the piled lumber making it difficult to run the material through the planers. The closing of the mill throws about 100 men out of employment at the mill and about 25 or 30 at the lumber camps.

Rich, Lives in Hovel.

Lumber Prices in North Area Going Up

M. C. Woodward of Portland Gives Optimistic View of Lumber Business on Visit to San Francisco. San Francisco, Jan. 1.—(I. N. S.)—M. C. Woodward, of Portland, identified with Northwest lumber interests, is registered at the Pines hotel. Lumber prices, in the north are looking up at a fine rate, according to Woodward, and the timbermen and dealers are looking forward to a busy year. The large cut which is promised for the early spring will be disposed of early because of the great demand existing for western lumber. W. W. Baker, president of the Baker-Boyer bank, of Walla Walla, Wash., accompanied by his wife, arrived from the north this morning and also is staying at the Palace.

Tries to Save Her Mother; Loses Life

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Frantically attempting to smother the flames enveloping her mother, little Elinor Peyret, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Peyret, was burned to death in the Peyret home last night. Mrs. Annie Peyret, the mother, is dying in the Oakland Emergency hospital. The explosion of a can of coal oil caused the fire and when little Elinor ran into the kitchen she found her mother's clothing a mass of flames.

BEN SELLING Leading Clothier Morrison at Fourth

Must All Be Sold By Next Friday

Very Vital News for All Homes Now Without Music. No Reasonable Offer to Be Refused. Time Is Money Now, and There Is None to Spare At Broadway and Alder Street. By Friday, the 28th, the first step in the proposed consolidation as heretofore advertised must be completed. Bad weather has interfered with our selling of late. We must make up for lost time now. We are making still greater inducements than ever. Read this carefully. The remaining stock brought over from the Morrison street firm, consisting of Bennett, Behning, Cable-Nelson, Chase & Baker, Schoenberg, Schulz, and also some specially fine Sohmer upright and grand pianos, and even a Kimball and a Knabe, and numerous other makes, must be disposed of at once.

It is easy for anyone to save up $6 a month, and when for only $188.00 we are now turning over as fine a piano as would ordinarily cost $300.00, and in some places it would cost even $325.00; and when we offer the less expensive styles for only $165.00, $155.00, and $148.00—and will take only $5.00 a month for them, then there certainly can be no excuse for putting off coming at once to this sale. Selling has recommenced and will continue until every one of these instruments has been disposed of. By coming early you secure first choice. This means something, too. No charge for delivery. Appropriate stool or bench will also be included at cost. Thus the great consolidation sale has now recommenced in earnest, don't miss it!

The Morrison-street establishment has been definitely closed and all of the instruments have now been taken out of storage, and are displayed on the third floor of the Eilers building. "Make quick disposition of everything," that's the order. Each and every instrument is now offered at the exact factory cost, not including any advertising or sales expense whatsoever. Quite a number of instruments will be sold for even less. Even the several baby grands may be had on payments as little as $10 a month; others as stated are offered on payments of only $5 a month, all of them new pianos. Payments so easy that no matter how little the income, every home can participate. Almost everything can be had for less than half price, and we
